The midwest, 2012 In Fifty Years We'll All Be Chicks Adam Carolla, 2010-11-02 A couple years back I was at the Phoenix airport bar It was empty except for one heavy set gray bearded grizzled guy who looked like he just rode his donkey into town after a long day of panning for silver in them thar hills He ordered a Jack Daniels straight up and that's when I overheard the young guy with the earring behind the bar asking him if he had ID At first the old sea captain just laughed But the guy with the twinkle in his eye asked again At this point it became apparent that he was serious Dan Haggerty's dad fired back You've got to be kidding me son The bartender replied New policy Everyone has to show their ID Then I watched Burl Ives reluctantly reach into his dungarees and pull out his military identification card from World War II It's a sad and eerie harbinger of our times that the Oprah watching crystal rubbing Whole Foods shopping moms and their whipped attorney husbands have taken the ability to reason away from the poor schlub who makes the Bloody Marys What we used to settle with common sense or a fist we now settle with hand sanitizer and lawyers Adam Carolla has had enough of this insanity and he's here to help us get our collective balls back In Fifty Years We'll All Be Chicks is Adam's comedic gospel of modern America He rips into the absurdity of the culture that demonized the peanut butter and jelly sandwich turned the nation's bathrooms into a lawless free for all of urine and fecal matter and put its citizens at the mercy of a bunch of minimum wagers with axes to grind Peppered between complaints Carolla shares candid anecdotes from his day to day life as well as his past Sunday football at Jimmy Kimmel's house his attempts to raise his kids in a society that he mostly disagrees with his big showbiz break and much much more Brilliantly showcasing Adam's spot on sense of humor this book cements his status as a cultural commentator comedian complainer extraordinaire ADAM CAROLLA
