Passion's Secret Doris Lemcke,1993 Set in 1860s Georgia this exciting story tells of Camilla Langesford a financially destitute Southern belle who surrenders to the soul searing kisses of rugged Yankee carpetbagger Patrick Grady

Irony on Occasion Kevin Newmark,2012 This book examines how the romantic and post romantic concept of irony provides the means for an uneasy articulation between philosophical thought and literary language It considers the role played by ironic disruptions in writings by Friedrich Schlegel S ren Kierkegaard Friedrich Nietzsche Thomas Mann Jean Paulhan Jacques Derrida Paul de Man and J M Coetzee

The Ongoing Feast Arthur A. Just,1993 From the perspective of the Emmaus narrative in Luke 24 this study is a literary critical analysis of Jesus table fellowship as an expression of the eschatological kingdom The first time Jesus is recognized by faith as the crucified and now risen Messiah occurs at Emmaus through his teaching on the road and in the breaking of the bread Emmaus is the transition between the meals of Jesus and early Christian meals setting the pattern of Christian worship as one of word and meal

Authorship in Nabokov's Prefaces Jacqueline Hamrit,2015-01-12 Whereas literary criticism has mainly oscillated between the death of the author Barthes and the return of the author Couturier this work suggests another perspective on authorship through an analysis of Nabokov s prefaces It is here argued that the author being neither dead nor tyrannical alternates between authoritative apparitions and receding disappearances in the double gesture of mastery without mastery which Derrida calls

exappropriation that is a simultaneous attempt to appropriate one's work control it have it under one's power and expropriate it losing control by loosening one's grip The intention of this is to approach through one's experience of reading and interpreting the experience of self effacement and impersonality pertaining to writing of Blanchot Prefaces are considered to be suitable places for the deconstruction of the classical image of Nabokov's arrogance through the unearthing of his reserve and vulnerability This work provides an account of the mere intuition which therefore does not pretend to be a conclusive and definitive interpretation of another image of Nabokov whose undeniable talent for deception seems in accordance with a need for discretion and secrecy

Writing Lovers Méira Cook,2005-04-22 In writings by the French post structuralists rhetorical tropes such as speechlessness fragmentation and deflection testify to the writer's difficulty in broaching the subject of love Similarly Cook shows that love poetry proceeds out of a profound failure of language resulting from the opacity of discourse its lack of neutrality or the fugitive transparency of reference Writing Lovers also explores race ethnicity age and sexual identity within the context of the passionate excesses of amatory discourse

Derrida and the Future of Literature Joseph G. Kronick,1999-09-30 Presented here is the fullest account to date of Derrida's unconventional understanding of literature and its importance to the development of a poststructural ethics Kronick explains why Derrida has had such a great impact upon literary studies and at the same time he demonstrates how different Derrida's conception of literature is from the literary critic's Focusing on such key topics as singularity justice law aporia and the event this book explores the unexpected ways literature appears in Derrida's works and is tied to his major concepts

Between Deleuze and Derrida Paul Patton,John Protevi,2003-05-01 Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Derrida are the two leading philosophers of French post structuralism Both theorists have been widely studied but very little has been done to examine the relation between them Between Deleuze and Derrida is the first book to explore and compares their work This is done via a number of key themes including the philosophy of difference language memory time event and love as well as relating these themes to their respective approaches to Philosophy Literature Politics and Mathematics Contributors Eric Alliez Branka Arsic Gregg Lambert Leonard Lawlor Alphonso Lingis Tamsin Lorraine Jeff Nealon Paul Patton Arkady Plotnitsky John Protevi Daniel W Smith

The Secret Life of Emily Dickinson Jerome Charyn,2025-04-25 In this brilliant and hilarious jailbreak of a novel Charyn channels the genius poet and her great leaps of the imagination Donna Seaman Booklist starred review Jerome Charyn one of the most important writers in American literature Michael Chabon continues his exploration of American history through fiction with The Secret Life of Emily Dickinson hailed by prize winning literary historian Brenda Wineapple as a breathtaking high wire act of ventriloquism Channeling the devilish rhythms and ghosts of a seemingly buried literary past Charyn removes the mysterious veils that have long enshrouded Dickinson revealing her passions inner turmoil and powerful sexuality The novel daringly written in first person begins in the snow It's 1848 and Emily is a student at Mount Holyoke with its mournful headmistress and strict strict rules Inspired by her letters and poetry Charyn goes on to capture the occasionally comic always fevered ultimately tragic story of her life from defiant Holyoke seminarian to dying recluse The Prayers and Tears of Jacques Derrida John D. Caputo,1997-09-22 The Prayer and Tears of Jacques Derrida takes its point of departure from Derrida's more recent sometimes autobiographical writings and closely examines the religious motifs that have emerged in his later works John D Caputo's provocative interpretation of Derrida's thinking also makes an original contribution to the question of the relevance of deconstruction for religion Caputo's Derrida is a man of faith who bridges Jewish and Christian traditions The deep messianic apocalyptic and prophetic tones in Derrida's writings Caputo argues bespeak his broken covenant with Judaism Through its startling exploration of Derrida's impossible religion the book sheds light on the implications of deconstruction for an understanding of religion and faith today from back cover The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison,2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8:27-38 and the Transfiguration 9:2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1:1-13 and functions as a mid-course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end-course conclusion 14:61-62 15:39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8:31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9:1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8:34-38 is to follow

The Saving Cross of the Suffering Christ Benjamin R. Wilson,2016-07-25 What is the place of the cross in the thought of the third evangelist This book seeks to show the central significance of the death of Jesus for Luke's understanding of 1 how salvation is accomplished and 2 what it means for Jesus to be the messiah Whereas previous authors have helpfully attended to individual motifs within Luke's account of the passion this book takes more of a wide-angle approach to the topic moving from the very first allusions to Jesus' rejection at the beginning of Luke's gospel all the way through to the retrospective references to Jesus' death that occur throughout the speeches of Acts By focusing on the inter-relationship of the various parts that form the whole of the Lukan portrayal of Jesus' death Wilson proposes fresh solutions to several of the intractable exegetical disputes related to the place of the cross in Lukan theology thereby helping to situate Lukan soteriology within the broader context of Jewish and Christian belief and practice in the first century Anti-Suicide
