Passion Of Jesus In The Gospel Of Luke:

The Passion of Jesus in the Gospel of Luke Donald Senior,1992 The Passion is the climactic event in each of the gospels These volumes elucidate the passion in its historical background and explore its theological breadth and depth Back cover

The Passion According to Luke Jerome H. Nevrey SI,2007-05-01 Jerome Nevrey brings a remarkably enlightened approach to the Passion Narrative and to Luke's particular version of it The book begins where previous studies leave off for it goes beyond traditional questions of source and historicity and treats the Lukan Passion Narrative from the standpoint of redaction criticism Neyrey offers a fresh literary analysis of the text along with significant thematic and theological insights into Luke's version of Jesus's Passion Five major episodes in the Passion Narrative are treated The Farewell Address at the Last Supper the Garden Jesus's Trials his Address to the Women and the Crucifixion Although rich in detail this book continually offers a unified view of the text readers are constantly offered overviews summaries of the data and interpretation of it The book breaks new ground in suggesting a distinctive Lukan soteriology of the cross and a corresponding Christology Study of the faith of the dying Jesus becomes a major clue for seeing Jesus as the New Adam in Luke Acts This book significantly advances our reading of Luke especially by the way Acts is brought to bear as an interpretive clue to Luke s whole project Luke Acts Contemporary interpretation of Luke demands study of the way Lukan structures and themes are continued and confirmed in Acts which holds true especially for the Passion Narrative Luke brings the story of Jesus into harmony with the story of his church The Passion Series Donald Senior, 1989 The Reign of God and Rome in Luke's Passion Narrative Yong-sung Ahn, 2006-03-01 From a Korean perspective this book examines how Luke's Passion Narrative constructs the space time of the Reign of God both in contest to and in compliance with that of Rome and shows how Luke s colonial relations complicate the Gospel s theological perspectives Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels Joel B. Green, Scot McKnight, I. Howard Marshall, 1992-02-18 Edited by Joel B Green Scot McKnight and I Howard Marshall this reference work encompasses everything relating to Jesus and the Gospels Luke: Artist and Theologian Robert J. Karris, 2009-03-04 The Bible is literature as well as a sacred text For this reason the application of contemporary methods of literary criticism to the study of Scripture can yield rich benefits Robert Karris examination of Luke s Passion account exemplifies this approach Karris argues that Luke reveals his theology through his artistry particularly in the themes he chooses to develop and the means by which he does so These themes provide Karris with an important insight into two questions Why in Luke s understanding was Jesus crucified and what was the significance of that death Faithfulness is one more important theme Karris discovers in Luke's Gospel Luke's Jesus portrays God as endlessly faithful forgiving and merciful even to those unfaithful to him Justice also surfaces as a clear theme in Luke Jesus associated with outcasts and preached justice toward victims of his day When the religious leaders of that time apposed this life style of justice Jesus assumed the role of the suffering righteous one The author concludes by examining Luke's interest in the eating habits of Jesus By no accident was Jesus slandered as a drunkard and glutton Hies practice of eating with the unrighteous asserted that the seats at God's banquet table were reserved for the outcasts and the sinners Karris's study shows that Luke saw the reason for Jesus s death to be rooted in the reason for his life His conclusions will have value for both the student of Scripture and the individual or group interested in the issues of justice and society The Passion According to Luke Marion L. Soards, 2015-01-29 The goal of this redaction critical investigation is to determine what in Luke 22 is special to Luke to assess its origin and to uncover Luke s purpose in using this material Unlike earlier studies Soards concentrates on lines of thought that link the chapter with the Gospel as a whole The author's conclusion is that though Luke did not use a single coherent source other than Mark for this chapter his diverse material was chosen in order to advance Luke s distinctive interests in Christology eschatology and ecclesiology Christologically Jesus is shown as in charge of the Passion events and as the realization of a divine plan eschatologically the Passion is portrayed as inaugurating the era of the Last Days ecclesiologically Jesus s attitude to his disciples functions as instruction for Luke s readers about their role in God s Jesus and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Kathleen E. Corley, Robert L. Webb, 2004-08-25 An exciting and engaging book that will appeal not only to academics but to the film viewing public educated lay persons and students Not only will the book aid this audience in a greater appreciation of the film The Passion of the Christ but perhaps more importantly it will enable the reader to distinguish between both the contents of the film and the contents of the Gospels and between the contents of the film and what may be historically reconstructed about Jesus Furthermore the book will aid the reader to appreciate the contributions that the study of the Gospels and the historical study of Jesus can make to the discussion of the film The Passion of the Christ Iesus and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ is edited by Kathleen E Corley Oshkosh Northwestern Distinguished Professor and Professor of New Testament at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh Wisconsin and Robert L Webb an independent scholar living near Toronto Ontario Canada The other contributors are Dr John Dominic Crossan Professor Emeritus of religious Studies at DePaul University Illinois Dr Helen K Bond Lecturer in New Testament Language Literature and Theology at New College University of Edinburgh UK Dr Craig A Evans Payzant Distinguished Professor of New Testament at Acadia Divinity College Nova Scotia Canada Dr Mark Goodacre Senior Lecturer in New Testament at the Department of Theology University of Birmingham UK Dr Glenna S Jackson Associate Professor in the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Otterbein College Westerville Ohio Dr Scot McKnight Karl A Olsson Professor in Religious Studies at North Park University Chicago Illinois Dr Mark Allan Powell Professor of New Testament at Trinity Lutheran Seminary in Columbus Ohio Alan F Segal Professor of Religion and Ingeborg Rennert Professor of Jewish Studies at Barnard College Columbia University New York Dr W Barnes Tatum Professor of Religion and Philosophy at Greensboro College North Carolina David J Goa Curator Emeritus at the Provincial Museum of Alberta and a Fellow of the M V Dimic Institute for the Study of Culture at the University of Alberta Interweaving Innocence Heather M. Gorman, 2016-12-29

In this study Heather Gorman analyses Luke's portrayal of Jesus death in light of the ancient rhetorical tradition particularly the progymnasmata and the rhetorical handbooks In addition to providing a detailed up to date exegetical study of Luke 22 66 23 49 she argues three things First through the strategic placement of rhetorical figures and the use of common topics associated with refutation and confi rmation Luke structures his passion narrative as a debate about Jesus innocence which suggests that one of Luke's primary concerns is to portray Jesus as politically innocent Second ancient examples of synkrisis suggest that part of the purpose of Luke's characterisation of Jesus in the passion narrative especially when set in parallel to Paul and Stephen in Acts was to set up Jesus as a model for his followers lest they face similar persecution or death Finally Luke s special material and his variations from Mark are explicable in terms of ancient compositional techniques especially paraphrase and narration and thus recourse to a special Passion Source is unnecessary The Sources of Luke's Passion-narrative Alfred Morris Perry, 1920 The Resurrection of the Messiah Francis J. Moloney, 2013 Taking inspiration from a different interpretative tradition the classic work of Raymond Brown on the birth and death of the Messiah Francis Moloney has provided a comprehensive narrative reading of the resurrection stories of all four Gospels in close association with their passion narratives to which they are the stunning response The book traces how the four eangelists different telling of the resurrection stories has narrated the action of God for Jesus and the action of God and Jesus for all Christians in and through the early Church's belief and experience of the resurrection of Jesus The final chapter discusses what we can recover about the events of Easter day and more importantly what these events meant then and continue to mean today back cover Studies in Hermeneutics, Christology and Discipleship Richard N. Moo,2008-03-25 Luke's Literary Creativity Mogens Müller, Jesper Tang Nielsen, 2016-08-11 A combination of two classic discussions in New Testament scholarship the contributions in this volume shed light on the still unsolved synoptic problem by using the well coined concept of rewriting to describe the relationship between the synoptic gospels The contributions work with the hypothesis that the synoptic tradition can be conceived of as a process of rewriting Matthew rewrote Mark and Luke rewrote Mark and Matthew This approach to the synoptic problem dismantles the grounds for the otherwise widely accepted two source theory If it can be shown that Luke knew Matthew's Gospel the Q hypothesis is superfluous One group of articles focuses on the general question of Luke's literary relation to the other gospels In these essays the concept of rewriting describes Luke's use of his sources The second part of the collection examines a number of texts in order to shown how Luke rewrites specific passages In the final section the contributions concern Luke's relation to Roman authorities It is shown that Luke's literary creativity is not limited to his predecessors in the gospel tradition Rewriting is his literary strategy

The Saving Cross of the Suffering Christ Benjamin R. Wilson, 2016-07-25 What is the place of the cross in the thought of the third evangelist This book seeks to show the central significance of the death of Jesus for Luke's understanding of 1 how salvation is accomplished and 2 what it means for Jesus to be the messiah Whereas previous authors have helpfully attended to individual motifs within Luke's account of the passion this book takes more of a wide angle approach to the topic moving from the very first allusions to Jesus rejection at the beginning of Luke's gospel all the way through to the retrospective references to Jesus death that occur throughout the speeches of Acts By focusing on the inter relationship of the various parts that form the whole of the Lukan portrayal of Jesus death Wilson proposes fresh solutions to several of the intractable exegetical disputes related to the place of the cross in Lukan theology thereby helping to situate Lukan soteriology within the broader context of Jewish and Christian belief and practice in the first century Weeping and Tears in Luke's Gospel Narratives Sue Ann Mak,2025-06-18 Divine Suffering Andrew J. Schmutzer, 2023-02-22 Divine Suffering is an inter disciplinary study that draws from systematics philosophy biblical theology and pastoral experience In addition to covering topics like the suffering of the Father in the Son and God's cruciform vulnerability this book also explores how divine suffering animates the Christian gospel and resonates in the ongoing persecution of believers The study of the suffering God has everything to do with Theology History and Church Mission Like exploring a cathedral from all its entrances both scholars and seekers will find ample opportunity for theological challenge biblical insight and missional hope To accomplish this both Scripture and doctrine are closely investigated Today divine suffering must face the contemporary realities of protest atheism escalating wars new studies in relational theology and dialogical personhood that presses the need to explain a Christian message about the kind of God who is not only transcendent but also personal Divine Suffering introduces us to the history of God not just the God of history In this study we meet a God available to our pain though not diminished by it Mounting forms of grief need to be met with an equally pastoral understanding that validates suffering without valorizing it An Introduction to the Gospels and Acts Charles B. Puskas, David Crump, 2008-07-15 Leading students through the texts highlighting the various literary devices and themes and pointing out the historical and cultural contexts An Introduction to the Gospels and Acts is a fruitful collaboration between a mainline scholar Puskas and a more evangelical scholar Crump who clearly articulate their own opinions while charitably engaging a wide spectrum of scholarship The coverage of the Gospels and Acts throughout is clear comprehensive and well documented Maps charts outlines and tables round out the wealth of information offered here Publisher
