Passions Storm:

Storms of Passion Lori Power, 2014-03-28 Vivian Margaret is tired of reading about other people's romances. She craves adventure. After a fortuneteller shines a mirror on her innermost longings, Vivian enrolls in a sailing course on the other side of the country. Reservist, rescue swimmer, and tech specialist Tucker MacLean has been there and done that and is not going to fall for a woman any time soon. That is until he quite literally collides with Vivian. Out of her element, she rediscovers her strength of character and a stubborn ambition to cling to hope when all seems lost. Not realizing the depth of his intense emotional attachment until a surprise storm threatens Vivian's life, Tucker must find her and bring her back from the heart of the storm. Passion drives him, love sustains him.

Bunyan Characters Alexander Whyte, 2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original Bunyan Characters by Alexander Whyte. The Works of Thomas Reid, D.D. Thomas Reid, 1846. The Trials and Passion of Christ Michael E. Cannon Jr., 2011-02-25 The Passion of Christ is observed by people all around the world as one of the more significant days on the Christian calendar. In certain parts of the world such as the Philippines, the reenactments of the crucifixion can go so far as to include actual nails driven through the hands of participants as they wail in pain. Is this the way we are to learn about the crucifixion? Will a reenactment teach us the truth of the cross? The text of John 18 and 19 teaches us clearly the facts of the crucifixion and is surrounded by intrigue and mystery. For too long, Protestant Christianity has neglected the years of scholarship in pre-Reformation and post-Reformation Roman research. In The Trials and Passion of Christ, Michael Cannon brings together the best of Protestant and Roman scholasticism to uncover significant details surrounding the trials and the drama of the crucifixion on Golgotha. This book is a journey reading nearly like an eye-witness report through the trials, the suffering, and the passion of Christ.

"To Tread on New Ground" Carole B. Balin, 2014-12-01 Hava Shapiro is among the nearly forgotten Jewish women writers who sought acceptance in Jewish literary circles of the last century. Born in Slavuta, modern-day Ukraine, in 1878, she published works of fiction, memoir, literary criticism, and journalism, including a volume of short fiction and a scholarly monograph on the Czech leader Masaryk. Her handwritten diary, the first known diary to be kept by a woman in Hebrew, evokes not only the momentous events of her day but also the experiences of women like herself who failed to follow the dictates of Jewish tradition and aspired to roles beyond those of wife and mother. In To Tread New Ground: Selected Writings of Hava Shapiro, editors and translators Carole B. Balin and Wendy I. Zierler present an English anthology of Shapiro's late nineteenth and early twentieth-century Hebrew writings. The selection culls from her short fiction, feminist literary criticism, reportage, and literary essays, as well as her diary and hundreds of letters Shapiro chronicled publicly and privately, such as cataclysmic events as the Russian Revolution and both World Wars, in addition to critical episodes in the Jewish past, including pogroms, mass migration, ruptures in traditional Jewish life, and the development of Zionism. A list of Shapiro's intimates, whom she describes in both her diary and published reminiscences, reads like a who's who of the Russian Haskalah, including Y. L. Peretz, Reuven Brainin, David Frischmann, Nahum

Sokolov Micha Yosef Berdishevsky and Hayim Nahman Bialik To further contextualize Shapiro's writings Balin and Zierler include a thorough introduction and translations of critical essays about Shapiro Balin and Zierler's Hebrew edition of Shapiro's writing Behikansi atah which was published in Israel in 2008 brought the first broad attention and readership to Shapiro's remarkable biography and writings The translations in To Tread New Ground which include previously uncollected materials will be welcomed by English speaking readers interested in Hebrew literature East European Jewish history and gender studies

The World Of Hannah More Patricia Demers, 2021-11-21 History has not been kind to Hannah More This once lionized writer and activist the most influential female philanthropist of her day is now considered by many to be the embodiment of pious morality and reactionary anti feminism Largely because of her belief in separate spheres for men and women More has been vilified by modern day feminists The first biography to examine the complete range of her life and work The World of Hannah More depicts the author as a forceful voice in her own day and one who from the point of view of plain justice today deserves a more nuanced treatment Without denying the problems More presents for modern readers Patricia Demers has produced a balanced revisionist study of a woman enormously influential in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century England By examining the career of this cultural warrior situating her major texts in relation to contemporaries and addressing her published writing philanthropic activities and voluminous correspondence Demers anchors The World of Hannah More in the work itself an appropriate and just response to a woman who took pride in living to some purpose Trying to deal justly with More and her female moral imperialism requires admitting both the expansiveness and the limitations of her charity methodology and vision Without venerating or trivializing Demers pursues the doubleness and contradictions of More's largely neglected or superficially mined works from the determined experiments of the earliest plays to the poignantly revealing essays on practical piety Christian morals and Saint Paul
