

An aerial, black-and-white photograph of a large, arched steel truss bridge spanning a wide river. The bridge is completely covered with a dense crowd of people, appearing as a sea of white dots against the dark metal structure. In the background, a cityscape with various buildings and a park area is visible. The text of the title is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

Passivity Resistance And Collaboration Intellectual Choices In Occupied Shanghai 1937 1945:

Passivity, Resistance, and Collaboration Poshek Fu, 1993 Focusing on the intellectual life of Shanghai under occupation Fu describes Chinese responses to the Japanese Occupation of 1937 45 Passivity, Resistance and Collaboration Po-shek Fu, 1989 Wartime Culture in Guilin, 1938-1944 Pingchao Zhu, 2015-10-30 This book examines the development of wartime culture in the city of Guilin Guangxi Province in southwestern China during a major part of the country's war of resistance against Japanese invasion between 1938 and 1944 This study challenges existing historiography on China's wartime culture at three levels First the Guangxi warlord group played a crucial role in maintaining regional security providing a liberalized political environment for wartime cultural activities and facilitating wartime nationalist communist relations at both local and national levels Second wartime culture was more literary than political and it reflected a powerful intellectual vigor that was an indispensable component of China's war efforts Intellectuals of different social and political backgrounds were their own organic selves feeling no pressure to come to intellectual consensus in literary production Third wartime culture was characterized by the active participation of many international groups political organizations and foreign individuals The literary works produced in Guilin between 1938 and 1944 clearly reflected a combination of Chinese national and international anti fascist and anti military sentiment Chinese literary masterpieces were translated into different foreign languages and noted foreign literature and political works were introduced to Chinese audiences through various cultural and political exchange programs in the city Echoes of Chongqing Danke Li, 2010-10-01 This collection of annotated oral histories records the personal stories of twenty Chinese women who lived in the wartime capital of Chongqing during China's War of Resistance against Japan during World War II By presenting women's remembrances of the war this study examines the interplay between oral history and traditional historical narrative public discourse and private memories The women interviewed came from differing social economic and educational backgrounds and experienced the war in a variety of ways some of them active in the communist resistance and others trying to support families or pursue educations in the face of wartime upheaval Their stories demonstrate that the War of Resistance had two faces one presented by official propaganda and characterized by an upbeat unified front against Japan the other a record of invisible private stories and a sobering national experience of death and suffering The accounts of how women coped worked and lived during the war years in the Chongqing region recast historical understanding of the roles played by ordinary people in wartime and give women a public voice and face that until now have been missing from scholarship on the war Managing Transitions Gerry Groot, 2004-02-24 Managing Transitions examines the history and roles of China's minor parties and groups MPG's in the Chinese Communist Party's CCP united front between the 1930's and 1990's using Antonio Gramsci's principles for the winning and maintaining of hegemony Gramsci advocated a war of position the building of political alliances to isolate existing state powers and win consent for revolutionary rule and transform society Economic reform is now creating new socio economic groups and the CCP is adjusting the united front and the MPGs to co opt their representatives and deliberately forestall the evolution of an autonomous civil society and middle class which could challenge CCP rule This has resulted in a new and expanding role for the united front the MPGs and organisations representing the new interest groups

The Literature of Leisure and Chinese Modernity Charles A. Laughlin,2008-03-06 The Chinese essay is arguably China's most distinctive contribution to modern world literature and the period of its greatest influence and popularity the mid 1930s is the central concern of this book What Charles Laughlin terms the literature of leisure is a modern literary response to the cultural past that manifests itself most conspicuously in the form of short informal essay writing xiaopin wen Laughlin examines the essay both as a widely practiced and influential genre of literary expression and as an important counter discourse to the revolutionary tradition of New Literature especially realistic fiction often viewed as the dominant mode of literature at the time After articulating the relationship between the premodern traditions of leisure literature and the modern essay Laughlin treats the various essay styles representing different groups of writers Each is characterized according to a single defining activity wandering in the case of the Yu si Threads of Conversation group surrounding Lu Xun and Zhou Zuoren learning with the White Horse Lake group of Zhejiang schoolteachers like Feng Zikai and Xia Mianzun enjoying in the case of Lin Yutang's Analects group dreaming with the Beijing school The concluding chapter outlines the impact of leisure literature on Chinese culture up to the present day The Literature of Leisure and Chinese Modernity dramatizes the vast importance and unique nature of creative nonfiction prose writing in modern China It will be eagerly read by those with an interest in twentieth century Chinese literature modern China and East Asian or world literatures

Beyond the Neon Lights Hanchao Lu,2023-07-28 How did ordinary people live through the extraordinary changes that have swept across modern China How did peasants transform themselves into urbanites How did the citizens of Shanghai cope with the epic upheavals revolution war and again revolution that shook their lives Even after decades of scholarship devoted to modern Chinese history our understanding of the daily lives of the common people of China remains sketchy and incomplete In this carefully researched study Hanchao Lu weaves rich documentary data with ethnographic surveys and interviews to reconstruct the fabric of everyday life in China's largest and most complex city in the first half of this century How did ordinary people live through the extraordinary changes that have swept across modern China How did peasants transform themselves into urbanites How did the citizens of Shanghai cope with the epic upheavals revolution war and again revolution t The Danwei Xiaobo Lü,Elizabeth J. Perry,2015-02-24 The danwei or work unit occupies a central place in Chinese society To understand Chinese politics demands a better understanding of this system This volume provides a systematic study of the danwei system and addresses a variety of questions from historical and comparative perspectives

Art, Politics, and Commerce in Chinese Cinema Ying Zhu, Stanley Rosen, 2010-06-01 Ying Zhu and Stanley Rosen have brought together some of the leading scholars and critics of Chinese cinema to rethink the political mutations market manifestations and artistic innovations that have punctuated a century of Chinese screen memories From animation to documentary history of the industry to cinematic attempts to recreate history propaganda to piracy the influx of Hollywood imports to Chinese style blockbusters Art Politics and Commerce in Chinese Cinema presents a fresh set of critical approaches to the field that should be required reading for scholars students and anyone interested in the past present and future of one of the most vibrant and dynamic film industries in the world Michael Berry author Jia Zhangke's Hometown Trilogy and A History of Pain An excellent collection of articles that together offer a superb introduction to contemporary Chinese film studies Richard Pena Program Director Film Society of Lincoln Center This is one of the most important comprehensive and profoundly important books about Chinese cinema As correctly pointed out by the editors of the volume understanding of the emerging film industry in China requires a systematic examination of arts politics and commerce of Chinese cinema By organizing the inquiry of the Chinese film industry around its local and global market politics and film art the authors place the current transformation of Chinese cinema within a large framework The book has set a new standard for research on Chinese cinema It is a must read for students of arts culture and politics in China Tianjian Shi Duke University Art politics and commerce are intertwined everywhere but in China the interplay is explicit intimate and elemental and nowhere more so than in the film industry Understanding this interplay in the era of market reform and globalization is essential to understanding mainland Chinese cinema This interdisciplinary book provides a comprehensive reappraisal of Chinese cinema surveying the evolution of film production and consumption in mainland China as a product of shifting relations between art politics and commerce Within these arenas each of the twelve chapters treats a particular history development genre filmmaker or generation of filmmakers adding up to a distinctively comprehensive rendering of Chinese cinema The book illuminates China's changing state-society relations the trajectory of marketization and globalization the effects of China's start historical shifts Hollywood's role the role of nationalism and related themes of interest to scholars of Asian studies cinema and media studies political science sociology comparative literature and Chinese language Ying Zhu is professor of cinema studies in the Department of Media Culture and co-coordinator of the Modern China Studies Program at the City University of New York College of Staten Island Stanley Rosen is director of the East Asian Studies Center and a professor of political science at the University of Southern California

On the Margins of Modernism Christopher Rosenmeier, 2017-06-27 Introduces popular 1940s Chinese authors and explores their influence on Chinese literature Xu Xu and Wumingshi were among the most widely read authors in China during and after the Second Sino-Japanese War 1937-1945 but although they were an integral part of the Chinese literary scene their bestselling fiction has been given scant attention in histories of Chinese writing This groundbreaking book the first book length study of Xu Xu and Wumingshi in English or any other western language re establishes their importance within the popular Chinese literature of the 1940s With in depth analyses of their innovative short stories and novels Christopher Rosenmeier demonstrates how these important writers incorporated and adapted narrative techniques from Shanghai modernist writers like Shi Zhecun and Mu Shiying contesting the view that modernism had little lasting impact in China and firmly positioning these two figures within the literature of their times Fills a gap in Chinese literary history Focuses on two of the most popular Chinese authors of the 1940s Develops a wider argument about the influence of Shanghai modernism on Chinese wartime literature

Down with Traitors Yun Xia, 2017-12-11 Throughout the War of Resistance against Japan 1931 1945 the Chinese Nationalist government punished collaborators with harsh measures labeling the enemies from within hanjian literally traitors to the Han Chinese Trials of hanjian gained momentum during the postwar years escalating the power struggle between Nationalists and Communists Yun Xia examines the leaders of collaborationist regimes who were perceived as threats to national security and public order and other subgroups of hanjian including economic cultural female and Taiwanese hanjian Built on previously unexamined code edicts and government correspondence as well as accusation letters petitions newspapers and popular literature Down with Traitors reveals how the hanjian were punished in both legal and extralegal ways and how the anti hanjian campaigns captured the national crisis political struggle roaring nationalism and social tension of China s eventful decades from the 1930s through the 1950s

Saving the Nation Thomas H. Reilly, 2020-09-18 While Protestant Christians made up only a small percentage of China s overall population during the Republican period they were heavily represented among the urban elite Protestant influence was exercised through churches hospitals and schools and reached beyond these institutions into organizations such as the YMCA Young Men s Christian Association and YWCA Young Women s Christian Association The YMCA s city associations drew their membership from the urban elite and were especially influential within the modern sectors of urban society Chinese Protestant leaders adapted the social message and practice of Christianity to the conditions of the republican era Key to this effort was their belief that Christianity could save China that is that Christianity could be more than a religion focused on saving individuals but could also save a people a society and a nation Saving the Nation recounts the history of the Protestant elite beginning with their participation in social reform campaigns in the early twentieth century continuing through their contribution to the resistance against Japanese imperialism and ending with Protestant support for a social revolution The story Thomas Reilly tells is one about the Chinese Protestant elite and the faith they adopted and adapted Social Christianity But it is also a broader story about the Chinese people and their struggle to strengthen and renew their nation to build a New China

Resisting Manchukuo Norman Smith, 2011-11-01 Norman Smith reveals the literary world of Japanese occupied Manchuria Manchukuo 1932 45 and examines the lives careers and literary legacies of seven prolific Chinese women writers during the period Smith shows how a complex blend of fear and freedom produced an environment in which Chinese women writers could articulate dissatisfaction with the overtly patriarchal and imperialist nature of the Japanese cultural agenda while working in close association with colonial institutions The first book in English on women s history in twentieth century Manchuria Resisting Manchukuo adds to a growing literature that challenges traditional understandings of Japanese colonialism Poetry, History, Memory Zhiyi Yang,2023-11-02 Wang Jingwei poet and politician patriot and traitor has always been a figure of major academic and popular interest Until now his story has never been properly told let alone critically investigated The significance of his biography is evident from an ongoing war on cultural memory modern mainland China prohibits serious academic research on wartime collaboration in general and on Wang Jingwei in particular At this critical juncture when the recollection of World War II is fading from living memory and transforming into historical memory this knowledge embargo will undoubtedly affect how China remembers its anti fascist role in WWII In Poetry History Memory Wang Jingwei and China in Dark Times Zhiyi Yang brings us a long overdue reexamination of Wang s impact on cultural memory of WWII in China In this book Yang brings disparate methodologies into a fruitful dialogue including sophisticated methods of poetic interpretation The author argues that Wang s lyric poetry as the public performance of a private voice played a central role in constructing his political identity and heavily influenced the public s posthumous memory of him Drawing on archives in the PRC Taiwan Japan the USA France and Germany memoirs historical journals newspapers interviews and other scholarly works this book offers the first biography of Wang that addresses his political literary and personal life in a critical light and with sympathetic impartiality Minorities in Global History Holger Weiss,2024-04-04 This collection analyses the concept of minority and minorities in global history Taking transnational transregional and comparative approaches it explores narratives of inclusion and exclusion both conceptually and through case studies Exploring examples of marginalization in Imperial Russia early 20th century Korea WWII China and Postcolonial Africa amongst others the chapters in this volume seek to understand the entanglements of fluid minorities and native populations in various historical settings They explore dynamics between nation states and empires minority majority processes in post imperial and post Soviet contexts fourth world perspectives and transnational minority movements Taken together the contributions to this collection address the exposure to and challenge of historical and contemporary treatments of marginalization exclusion belonging and inclusion in global history

Reappraising Republican China Frederic E. Wakeman,Richard L. Edmonds,2000 This book testifies to the accomplishments of Republican studies during the 1980s and early 1990s Reviewing many aspects of contemporary research it covers the transition from the late Qing dynasty to the Republic agricultural development from the mid 1890s to 1937 the political aspects of twentieth century Chinese urban history the problems of capacity building for Republican era governments political party organization finance and military matters Shanghai s modernization process the politics of the Kuomintang during the Nanjing decade and its relationship with fascism and Republican era diplomacy Youtai -

Presence and Perception of Jews and Judaism in China Peter Kupfer, 2008 This volume summarizes the results of a research project organized at Mainz University in Germersheim Germany It focused on the Jewish community in Kaifeng in China 12th to 19th century In recent years increasing research has been done about the history and culture of the Jews in China and in the future more academic interest in all questions connected with it can be expected Main topics are the perception of Chinese Judaism in European history as well as in Chinese society itself the self image of the descendants in Kaifeng and their present status in China and how China deals with foreign ethnics and religions as part of its own history and identity These topics were discussed from various interdisciplinary points of view The authors from Australia China Hong Kong Israel Great Britain France and Germany are prominent sino judaists who present their latest results of research in the light of new facts and approaches

Inheritance of Loss Yukiko Koga, 2016-11-28 How do contemporary generations come to terms with losses inflicted by imperialism colonialism and war that took place decades ago How do descendants of perpetrators and victims establish new relations in today's globalized economy With Inheritance of Loss Yukiko Koga approaches these questions through the unique lens of inheritance focusing on Northeast China the former site of the Japanese puppet state Manchukuo where municipal governments now court Japanese as investors and tourists As China transitions to a market oriented society this region is restoring long neglected colonial era structures to boost tourism and inviting former colonial industries to create special economic zones all while inadvertently unearthing chemical weapons abandoned by the Imperial Japanese Army at the end of World War II Inheritance of Loss chronicles these sites of colonial inheritance tourist destinations corporate zones and mustard gas exposure sites to illustrate attempts by ordinary Chinese and Japanese to reckon with their shared yet contested pasts In her explorations of everyday life Koga directs us to see how the violence and injustice that occurred after the demise of the Japanese Empire compound the losses that later generations must account for and inevitably inherit

Modern China and the West Hsiao-yen PENG, Isabelle Rabut, 2014-04-30 In Modern China and the West Translation and Cultural Mediation the authors investigate the significant role translation plays in the act of cultural mediation They pay attention to transnational organizations that bring about cross cultural interactions as well as regulating authorities in the form of both nation states and ideologies which dictate what and even how to translate Under such circumstances is there room for individual translators or mediators to exercise their free will To what extent are they allowed to do so The authors see translation as a shaping force While intending to shape or reshape certain concepts through the translating act translators and cultural actors need to negotiate among multifarious institutional powers that coexist including traditional and foreign Contributors include Fran oise Kreissler Angel Pino Shan Te hsing Nicolai Volland Joyce C H Liu Huang Ko wu Isabelle Rabut Xiaomei Chen Zhang Yinde Peng Hsiao yen Sebastian Hsien hao Liao and Pin chia Feng
