Church, 2015-06-25 Excerpt from Recipes by Ladies of St Paul's P E Church Akron Ohio We may live without poetry music or art We may live without conscience live without heart We may live without friends may live without books But civilized men cannot live without cooks and though it is asserted that like poets cooks are born not made good cooking is largely the result of practical experience It is the truest economy to concoct the given materials into dishes so palatable and so daintily served that waste shall be reduced to a minimum Since in the multitude of councilors there is wisdom may we be pardoned if we add another to the number of cook books already flooding the land as all the formulae given in this compilation are obtained from ladies whose dainties are acknowledged to be most toothsome and who by this method furnish the recipes for which they have often been importuned The editors were troubled with unembarrassed riches and perhaps the selections are not the most felicitous but to err is human We tender our sincere thanks to the ladies of our town and especially to those of other congregations who have responded to our requests generously About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do
