Written by: JUDSON POLING

Drama That Works

DESCRIPTION:

Casting: 4 male, 2 female

Programming Tip: Pastor Howitzer and his assistant Eunice return for another installment [see "Pastor General" and "Pastor General—Resource Allocation"]; this sketch works even if you haven't done the prior sketches

A church Programming/Worship team is getting ready to do their weekly evaluation of the weekend service. As they discuss the service, their pastor, Pastor Howitzer drops by and wants to listen in. They continue the evaluation but as they do so, Pastor Howitzer can't help but speak up. He starts friendly enough, but is soon expressing outrage over a bad drama, a crazy idea involving birds in the sanctuary, and offetory music that was so loud people had their hands over their ears. Howitzer makes the whole team give him twenty push-ups.

Preaching as Spiritual Leadership Michael E. Connors, CSC,2021-05-15 In this unique resource Fr Michael E Connors

CSC gathers and expertly guides the collective wisdom of experienced preachers and homilists to provide a unique resource that examines the preacher's unique role as shepherd and a spiritual leader. The chapters will investigate these dual roles according to the roots of the Catholic spiritual tradition and provide practical advice for priests, deacons, seminarians in homiletics classes or preaching classes, retreat leaders, RCIA catechists, all who preach. Preaching as Spiritual Leadership provides solutions to the following questions: How is preaching embedded in the Church's pastoral mission? What does it mean to be a shepherd and spiritual leader for others? How can a preacher flourish in the role of spiritual leader? How can we lead others into committed discipleship through preaching? To be a shepherd and spiritual leader, the preacher must be in some sense a mystic who is filled with the Lord's gracious presence, a presence to be shared with others. Homilists are a sacramental people; they must also be mystagogues, ministers who can both lead the community's ritual celebrations and help the People of God to plunge into the liturgy with lively faith to touch the holy realities behind them.

Holy Clarity Sarah B. Drummond, 2009-06-22 In Holy Clarity Sarah Drummond explores the most basic reason leaders of religious organizations conduct evaluations: To find and create God-pleasing clarity regarding the organization's purpose and the impact of its activities. Leadership and evaluation are not separate disciplines; she argues. Effective leaders evaluate because they need to know what is happening in their organizations and how those activities are effecting change. Drummond first describes the way in which our postmodern culture makes clarity difficult to obtain. She then looks at holy clarity from a biblical and theological perspective and makes the case that it is a spiritual discipline that can stand on its own theological merits. She presents four approaches to evaluation that can help a leader to guide a community toward greater clarity both when evaluating or analyzing programs and when planning and starting programs. Finally, she considers the work of clarification as a faith practice, one that can make a pastor or layperson not just a better leader but a better Christian who is more firmly grounded in God. Each chapter concludes with a fictional case study.

that provides a jumping off point for discussion and helps bring her theory to life Holy Clarity provides an accessible resource as an entry point for those who are eager to learn the best practices of this crucial discipline     Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1979     Agenda for Synod 1998 / Acts of Synod 1998 ,1998-10-01     The Coming Winter T.
