Excerpt from Pastor Hsi of North China: One of China's Christians With Portraits and Illustrations

IN the various places in which this book has grown to completion I have been repeatedly asked how it has been possible to collect so much material about the life of a Chinaman who never left his own country. The question brings up many memories straightway one lives again some of the most sacred of life's experiences and the heart warms at the recollection of all that has contributed to the work now finished. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com. This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

God's Double Agent Bob Fu, Nancy French, 2013-10-01

Tens of millions of Christians live in China today; many of them leading double lives or in hiding from a government that relentlessly persecutes them. Bob Fu, whom the Wall Street Journal called "The pastor of China's underground railroad," is fighting to protect his fellow believers from persecution, imprisonment, and even death. God's Double Agent is his fascinating and riveting story. Bob Fu is indeed God's double agent. By day, Fu worked as a full-time lecturer in a communist school; by night, he pastored a house church and led an underground Bible school. This can't put it down book chronicles Fu's conversion to Christianity, his arrest and imprisonment for starting an illegal house church, his harrowing escape and his subsequent rise to prominence in the United States as an advocate for his brethren God's Double Agent will inspire readers even as it challenges them to boldly proclaim and live out their faith in a world that is at times indifferent and at other times murderously hostile to those who spread the gospel

Pastor Hsi, One of China's Christians Howard Mrs Taylor, 1904 Pastor Hsi of North China Howard Taylor, 2013-11 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book
