Pastoral Care With Stepfamilies Mapping The Wilderness:

Pastoral Care with Stepfamilies Loren Townsend, 2000-01-01 Loren Townsend shows ministers and pastoral counselors how they can provide effective marriage and family counseling for a growing segment of the population Introduction to Pastoral Counseling Loren Townsend, 2009-06-01 Grounded in empirical research and richly illustrated with case studies this introduction continues the theoretical practical and theological expansion of Pastoral Care and Counseling Because of increasing cultural diversity and the fact that more training is done outside of seminaries in non seminary related colleges and universities there is fragmentation in the discipline This makes a coherent orientation to pastoral care and counseling as a ministry increasingly difficult To address this confusion author Loren Townsend calls us to readdress basic understandings He also makes the case that pastoral identity can function as a unifying concept The Smart Stepfamily Ron L. Deal, 2006 Each member has their own unique place in a family Ron Deal explores the myth of the blended family offering practical realistic solutions for stepfamilies The Formation of Pastoral Counselors Duane R. Bidwell, Joretta L. Marshall, 2012-11-12 Explore the concept of formation in pastoral counseling from a variety of perspectives Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that s radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is a practical guide for educators working to shape curricula and training programs to the shifting context in which pastoral counselors are formed for ministry service and lifelong learning This unique book examines ideas about appropriate content and processes for the formation of pastoral care professionals and looks at specialized contextual training models that form their emerging identities The book s contributors call on extensive experience in pastoral theology care and counseling to explore the essential components of formation across different contexts how those contextual realities change the delivery systems the epistemological nature of formation reasons for the limited roles that formal theological education and spiritual experience seem to play at the moment and why formation is rarely formally addressed in pastoral counseling training Topics discussed in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include the turn to formation the goals of theological education core elements of pastoral theology developing spiritual practices diversity pastoral counseling training programs race and ethnicity in the formation of pastoral counselors cultural identity intercultural contexts practical relevancy in training gender identity and sexual orientation economic disparity Models and practices examined in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include parallel charting clinician narratives group supervision Benedictine spirituality academic and clinical training at the Claremont School of Theology the model of formation at the Virginia Institute of

Pastoral Care VIPCare and much more The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is an essential guide for pastoral counselors faculty in pastoral theological care and counseling and training directors in pastoral counseling centers Family Disintegration Anton Purcell, 2002 The contemporary family is being distracted disturbed and distraught by societal pressures from every direction The nuclear family concept believed crucial to child rearing is becoming pass according to census data Or has the wave of disruption to families crested It is hoped that this bibliography will serve as a useful tool to researchers seeking further information on families and the pressures being exerted upon them in the 21st century The Struggle Is Real Dr. Tim Clinton, 2017-09-21 20 25% of Americans suffer from a diagnosable mental illness Divorce is epidemic Abuse of all kinds is rampant Suicidality is at an all time high Domestic violence is out of control Cohabitation and out of wedlock births are at unprecedented levels Addictions are more widespread than ever These and many other problems confront our culture today in alarming proportions Consequently mental and relational health issues find their way home To everyone s home People with these and other concerns typically turn first to the church for help Yet most churches are not equipped to adequately minister to the depth and magnitude of these overwhelming problems This book was created as a comprehensive resource to provide the church with practical tools to care for these hurting people in a biblically sound and emotionally healthy way We at the American Association of Christian Counselors hope and pray this book finds its way into the hands of every pastor church leader counselor and Christian caregiver in America Because the struggle is real The struggle is real indeed This is a lineup of experienced healers and caring writers It will be a valuable resource for the field of mental and emotional health for years to come John Ortberg Ph D Senior Pastor of Menlo Church Menlo Park CA Clinical Psychologist and best selling author People everywhere are hurting including those inside the church Written by a team of experts this important resource is designed to shine the wonderful and liberating light of the gospel into the dark and difficult areas of people s lives What s here will heal You need this book and the people you love need it too Johnnie Moore Founder The KAIROS Company People today are struggling in ways that only the church can help The Struggle is Real is an excellent resource for equipping ministry leaders and counselors alike to meet this most pressing need Rev Samuel Rodriguez president of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference I heartily recommend The Struggle Is Real Clinton and Pingleton have provided exactly what the church needs Jeremiah J Johnston Ph D President Christian Thinkers Society Professor Houston Baptist University We are not fine the people we serve are not fine we all struggle This book is an invaluable resource for helping us minister to people who need our understanding Greg Surratt Founding Pastor Seacoast Church Mount Pleasant SC President Association of Related Churches ARC In this book Tim Clinton and Jared Pingleton provide a solid guide to better understand the issues and dynamics of trouble that people experience and how to effectively minister to them George O Wood P Th D J D former General Superintendent The General Council of the Assemblies of God

Counseling H. Norman Wright, 2011-12-14 Many pastors and lay counselors have had minimal training in clinical methods of grief and trauma counseling The Complete Guide to Crisis and Trauma Counseling is a biblical practical guide to pastoral counseling written by one of the most respected Christian therapists of our time Dr H Norman Wright brings more than forty years of clinical and classroom experience to this topic He shares real life dialogues from his decades in private practice to demonstrate healthy healing counseling sessions Readers will learn how to counsel and coach both believers and nonbelievers who are in crisis how to walk alongside them through the hours weeks and months following their trauma and how to help them find the path to complete restoration

Just Care Leah R. Thomas, 2019-12-03 What does it mean to engage in ethical anti racist pastoral care with women with mental illness particularly if these women are residents of an inpatient psychiatric hospital This book draws on interviews with eighteen chaplains in three psychiatric facilities to examine psychiatric chaplaincy with women in the context of a state psychiatric hospital It combines the voices of the chaplains with the disciplines of Christian social ethics and feminist womanist and intercultural pastoral care to create Just Care an approach to pastoral care that accounts for both personal and societal systemic factors in its practice of ministry Just Care proposes that pastoral care that addresses the entirety of the person necessitates a commitment to justice and an attention to cultural dynamics as foundational for ethical pastoral care It argues that psychiatric pastoral care must honor the communal and individual nature of care both the particularity of the caregiver and care seeker as well as intersections of culture gender race and class

The Role of Religion in Marriage and Family Counseling Jill Duba Onedera, 2007-07-19 Religion can play a vital role in the way people relate to each other particularly with interpersonal dynamics within a family The role of a couple or family s religion s in the counseling room is no less important This book provides practitioners with an overview of the principles of the major world religions with specific focus on how each religion can influence family dynamics and how best to incorporate this knowledge into effective practice with clients
