Psychology, Theology, and Spirituality in Christian Counseling Mark R. McMinn, 2012-03-19. The American Association of Christian Counselors and Tyndale House Publishers are committed to ministering to the spiritual needs of people. This book is part of the professional series that offers counselors the latest techniques, theory, and general information that is vital to their work. While many books have tried to integrate theology and psychology, this book takes another step and explores the importance of the spiritual disciplines in psychotherapy, helping counselors to integrate the biblical principles of forgiveness, redemption, restitution, prayer, and worship into their counseling techniques. Since its first publication in 1996, this book has quickly become a contemporary classic, a go-to handbook for integrating what we know is true from the disciplines of theology and psychology and how that impacts your daily walk with God. This book will help you integrate spiritual disciplines such as prayer, Scripture reading, confession into your own life and into counseling others.

Mark R. McMinn, Ph.D., is professor of psychology at Wheaton College Graduate School in Wheaton, Illinois, where he directs and teaches in the Doctor of Psychology program. A diplomate in Clinical Psychology of the American Board of Professional Psychology, McMinn has thirteen years of postdoctoral experience in counseling, psychotherapy, and psychological testing. McMinn is the author of Making the Best of Stress: How Life's Hassles Can Form the Fruit of the Spirit, The Jekyll Hyde Syndrome: Controlling Inner Conflict through Authentic Living, Cognitive Therapy Techniques in Christian Counseling, and Christians in the Crossfire, written with James D. Foster. He and his wife Lisa have three daughters.

Solution-Focused Pastoral Counseling Charles Allen Kollar, 2010-06-15. This groundbreaking book, now updated and expanded, furthers its original effective, time-saving approach that benefits pastors overtaxed by counseling demands. Dr. Charles Kollar presents a departure in pastoral counseling, showing that counseling need not be long term or depend on psychological manipulation to produce dramatic results In most cases the solution lies with the counselees themselves Using the tested methods found in Solution Focused Pastoral Counseling pastors apart from counselors will be well equipped to help their counselees discover a solution and put it in motion speedily and productively SFPC is short term typically one to five sessions in which the counselor seeks to create solutions with not for the counselee The focus is on the possibility of life without the problem through an understanding of what is different when the problem does not occur or is less intrusive The goal is healthy change sooner rather than later by helping the counselee see and work on the solution with God s activity already present in his or her life The solution focused approach does not require the counselor to be a highly trained psychological expert It requires biblically based sensitivity and common sense Yet this approach also recognizes its limitations and understands that there are situations in which other professional and or medical help is required
