Just in Time! Pastoral Prayers in Public Places Dr. F. Belton Joyner JR.,2010-09-01 Part of a pastor's role in the community is to pray publicly The pastor is often the official pray-er at all kinds of community events the high school football game the opening of the new grocery store the county school board meeting kindergarten graduation to name a few But the pastor must also pray knowing that there are believers of many persuasions and non believers present This book will contain sample prayers for many civic functions that can be used with little modification Belton Joyner is a retired United Methodist pastor and author of Being Methodist in the Bible Belt A Theological Survival Guide for Youth Parents and Other Confused Methodists American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Private Prayers in Public Places Donald Shockley,2003-12 Don Shockley may be the only person in America who likes to wait He has discovered that active waiting opens the door to spiritual experiences that are often humorous as well as serious and deep He believes that the key to prayer is not in the act of asking but in the art of listening For more than twenty five years he has transformed the necessity to wait into an opportunity to look listen and learn More often than not this distinctive form of meditation has been practiced in urban environments waiting rooms of doctors and dentists on buses planes and trains in bakeries coffee shops and college cafeterias in libraries parks and bars These spiritual interludes have been captured in exceptionally vivid writing you can see what the author is saying When the late Howard Thurman one of America's foremost spiritual thinkers saw some of the early pieces included in this book he said they were precisely on target and should be shared Over the years since these Private Prayers in Public Places have been well received when read before various groups and at long last they are now available in print Worshipping in the Small Membership Church Robin Knowles Wallace,2008 Offers pastors new inspiration and fresh worship encounters with God Worship is the most important time in the life of the gathered faithful Inspirational and accessible this book is will help pastors and worship leaders fully ground worship in scripture and tradition while being responsive to current times Included practical worship helps for the Christian year tips to involve the congregation in leadership and participation ways to incorporate music and other arts in worship and select ideas for congregations of up to one hundred A sample basic worship library Children's Sermons Anne E. Homiletic Review, 1904

Holy Fire Fell Dirk R. Ellis, 2017-01-18 Why do we worship as we do What are the forgotten practices once central to many early Nazarene congregations Because historical events and other factors have shaped and molded the various worship patterns found in local congregations the way in which contemporary Nazarenes worship is no accident Like other descendants of the American holiness movement Nazarene worship is influenced by events predating our denominational forebears This text explores the history behind current worship trends for a crucial reason the very act of worship shapes and forms worshipers Beliefs and attitudes are forged not merely by what is heard from the pulpit but also by what is done bodily in the pew Ellis examines the liturgical concerns and practice of John Wesley as well as those of early Nazarene pioneers in an attempt to address these issues In so doing the book provides a historical resource for denominational leaders pastors and congregations At the same time it aims to help congregations both to appreciate our rich ecclesial history and to critically evaluate current worship practices in order that they may truly be transformational
