Pat Barker's Regeneration A Readers Guide:

Pat Barker's Regeneration Karin Westman, 2001-09-12 Continuum Contemporaries will be a wonderful source of ideas and inspiration for members of book clubs and readings groups as well as for literature students. The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to 30 of the most popular, most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years. A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question. The books in the series will all follow the same structure: a biography of the novelist including other works, influences and in some cases an interview; a full length study of the novel drawing out the most important themes and ideas; a summary of how the novel was received upon publication; a summary of how the novel has performed since publication including film or TV adaptations, literary prizes etc; a wide range of suggestions for further reading including websites and discussion forums and a list of questions for reading groups to discuss.

Critical Perspectives on Pat Barker Sharon Monteith, 2005. These essays cover the work and career of Pat Barker providing insight into her novels from Union Street 1982 through the Regeneration trilogy 1991-95 to Double Vision 2003. The essays are organized into Writing, Working Class, Women, Dialogue, under Pressure, Men at War, The Talking Cure and Regenerating the Wasteland.

The Fiction of Pat Barker Merritt Moseley, 2014-05-28. Pat Barker is one of the most important authors of her time. Her fiction has won many awards including the Booker Prize for The Ghost Road, the last novel in her celebrated Regeneration trilogy and has attracted much critical attention. This stimulating Guide examines the key critical responses to the full range of Barker's fiction from newspaper reviews and journal articles to revealing interviews and book length scholarship. Merritt Moseley also explores the central themes which run through Barker's novels and the criticism such as the issues of gender, class, social realism, violence and trauma. Tracing the development of Barker's fiction through the surrounding critical works, this is an indispensable volume for anyone with an interest in one of Britain's most popular and widely studied contemporary writers.

Reciprocal Haunting: Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy Karen Patrick Knutsen,

The Ivory Tower and Harry Potter Lana A. White, 2004. Now available in paperback. The Ivory Tower and Harry Potter is the first book length analysis of J K Rowling's work from a broad range of perspectives within literature, folklore, psychology, sociology and popular culture. A significant portion of the book explores the Harry Potter series' literary ancestors including magic and fantasy works by Ursula K LeGuin, Monica Furlong, Jill Murphy and others as well as previous works about the British boarding school experience. Other chapters explore the moral and ethical dimensions of Harry's world including objections to the series raised within some religious circles. In her new epilogue, Lana A White brings this volume up to date by covering Rowling's latest book Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix.

Don DeLillo's Underworld John Duvall, 2002-01-11. This is part of a new series of guides to contemporary novels. The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to some of the most popular, most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years from The Remains of the Day to White Teeth A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question

Re-reading Pat Barker Pat Wheeler, 2020-05-15 Re-reading Pat Barker brings together a number of scholars from across the world who explore in detail the work of one of Britain's most notable contemporary novelists The essays both acknowledge and engage with previous scholarship re-establishing Barker's eminence as a writer and adding to existing critical perspectives In the collection established Barker scholars return to her work re-reading her novels to offer fresh and innovative readings and other critics who have not previously published on Barker offer new insights into her body of work The contributors examine a number of thematic concerns including matrilineal heritage masculinity the body ways of seeing institutional and personal violence psychoanalysis and gender and class The essays in the collection explore the broader social and historical aspects of Barker's novels and the aesthetics and ethical issues in her work drawing our attention to the ways that she engages with the world gesturing towards new ways of seeing and to the possibilities of personal and political regeneration The collection shows there is still much to say about the novels and the ways in which we choose to read them
