Publishers, Incorporated,1997      The Patent Crisis and How the Courts Can Solve It Dan L. Burk,Mark A.
Lemley,2009-08-01 Patent law is crucial to encourage technological innovation But as the patent system currently stands diverse industries from pharmaceuticals to software to semiconductors are all governed by the same rules even though they innovate very differently The result is a crisis in the patent system where patents calibrated to the needs of prescription drugs wreak havoc on information technologies and vice versa According to Dan L Burk and Mark A Lemley in The Patent Crisis and How the Courts Can Solve It courts should use the tools the patent system already gives them to treat patents in different industries differently Industry tailoring is the only way to provide an appropriate level of incentive for each industry Burk and Lemley illustrate the barriers to innovation created by the catch all standards in the current system Legal tools already present in the patent statute they contend offer a solution courts can tailor patent law through interpretations and applications to suit the needs of various types of businesses The Patent Crisis and How the Courts Can Solve It will be essential reading for those seeking to understand the nexus of economics business and law in the twenty first century
