Paterson Ewen:

Paterson Ewen ,1988 Depicting Canada's Children Loren Lerner,2011-04-07 Depicting Canada's Children is a critical analysis of the visual representation of Canadian children from the seventeenth century to the present Recognizing the importance of methodological diversity these essays discuss understandings of children and childhood derived from depictions across a wide range of media and contexts But rather than simply examine images in formal settings the authors take into account the components of the images and the role of image making in everyday life The contributors provide a close study of the evolution of the figure of the child and shed light on the defining role children have played in the history of Canada and our assumptions about them Rather than offer comprehensive historical coverage this collection is a catalyst for further study through case studies that endorse innovative scholarship This book will be of interest to scholars in art history Canadian history visual culture Canadian studies and the history of children Paterson Ewen Retrospective Paterson Ewen,1976 The Spirituality of Art Lois Huey-Heck,Jim Kalnin,2006 Through stories quotes and images this book is a guide to deeper enjoyment and appreciation of visual art the spiritual journey and the connections between the two It has stunningly beautiful colour reproductions of art across time place and culture From Cohen to Carson Ian Rae,2008-03-26 From Cohen to Carson provides the first book length analysis of one of Canada's most distinctive fields of literary production Ian Rae argues that Canadian poets have turned to the novel because of the limitations of the lyric but have used lyric methods puns symbolism repetition juxtaposition to create a mode of narrative that contrasts sharply with the descriptive conventions of realist and plot driven novels Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F. Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery Paterson Ewen John George Hatch, 2018

Paterson Ewen Paterson Ewen, 1993 Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam's Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing's capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice The Last Art College Garry Neill Kennedy, 2012-02-24 The long awaited history of the art college that became an unlikely epicenter of the art world in the 1960s and 1970s How did a small art college in Nova Scotia become the epicenter of art education and to a large extent of the postminimalist and conceptual art world itself in the 1960s and 1970s Like the unorthodox experiments and rich human resources that made Black Mountain College an improbable center of art a generation earlier the activities and artists at Nova Scotia College of Art and Design aka NSCAD

in the 1970s redefined the means and methods of art education and the shape of art far beyond Halifax A partial list of visiting artists and faculty members at NSCAD would include Joseph Beuys Sol LeWitt Gerhard Richter Dan Graham Mel Bochner Lucy Lippard John Baldessari Hans Haacke Yvonne Rainer Robert Frank Jenny Holzer Robert Morris Eric Fischl and Dara Birnbaum Kasper Koenig and Benjamin Buchloh ran the NSCAD Press publishing books by Hollis Frampton Lawrence Weiner Donald Judd Daniel Buren Michael Asher Martha Rosler and Michael Snow among others The Lithography Workshop produced early works by many of today's masters including John Baldessari Vito Acconci and Claes Oldenburg With The Last Art College Garry Kennedy the college's visionary president at the time gives us the long awaited documentary history of NSCAD during a formative era From gallery openings to dance performances to visiting lectures to exhibitions to classroom projects the book gives a rich historical and visual account of the school's activities supplemented by details of specific events reminiscences by faculty and students accounts of artists talks and notes on memorable controversies

John Ralston Saul Reimagines Canada (4-Book Bundle) John Ralston Saul, 2017-05-16 Canada has no greater interpreter and champion than John Ralston Saul who for years has been challenging our common notions of Canada These four books examine our history and myths our relationships and modern reality and together brilliantly portray a unique and remarkable country Reflections of a Siamese Twin In Reflections of a Siamese Twin Saul turns his eye to an examination of Canada itself Caught up in crises political economic and social Canada continues to flounder unable to solve or even really identify its problems Instead we assert absolute differences between ourselves we are English or we are French Natives or Europeans early immigrants or newly arrived from the east or from the west Or we bow to ideologies and deny all differences in the name of nationalism unity or equality In a startling exercise in reorientation John Ralston Saul makes sense of Canadian myths real false denied and reconciles them with the reality of today s politics culture and economics A Fair Country In this startlingly original vision of Canada John Ralston Saul argues that Canada is a M tis nation heavily influenced and shaped by Aboriginal ideas Egalitarianism a proper balance between individual and group and a penchant for negotiation over violence are all Aboriginal values that Canada absorbed An obstacle to our progress Saul argues is that Canada has an increasingly ineffective elite a colonial non intellectual business elite that doesn t believe in Canada It is critical that we recognize these aspects of the country in order to rethink its future The Comeback Historic moments are always uncomfortable Saul writes in this impassioned argument calling on all of us to embrace and support the comeback of Aboriginal peoples This he says is the great issue of our time the most important missing piece in the building of Canada The events that began late in 2012 with the Idle No More movement were not just a rough patch in Aboriginal relations with the rest of Canada What is happening between Aboriginals and non Aboriginals is not about guilt or sympathy or failure or romanticization of the past It is about citizens rights It is about rebuilding relationships that were central to the creation of Canada These relationships are just as important to its continued existence Wide in scope but piercing in detail The Comeback presents a powerful portrait of modern Aboriginal life in Canada illustrated by a remarkable selection of letters speeches and writings by Aboriginal leaders and thinkers showcasing the extraordinarily rich moving and stable indigenous point of view across the centuries Louis Hippolyte LaFontaine and Robert Baldwin Here Saul argues that modern Canada did not begin in 1867 rather its foundation was laid years earlier by two visionary men Louis Hippolyte LaFontaine and Robert Baldwin Opposites in temperament and driven by intense experiences of love and tragedy together they developed principles and programs that would help unite the country After the 1841 union the two leaders of Lower and Upper Canada worked to create a reformist movement for responsible government run by elected citizens instead of a colonial governor During the Great Ministry of 1848 to 1851 despite violent opposition they set about creating a more equitable nation They revamped judicial institutions established a public education system made bilingualism official and designed a network of public roads Writing with verve and deep convictions Saul restores these two extraordinary Canadians to rightful prominence
