Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan s former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region s socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia

Body of Victim, Body of Warrior Cabeiri deBergh Robinson, 2013-03-08 This book provides a fascinating look at the creation of contemporary Muslim jihadists Basing the book on her long term fieldwork in the disputed borderlands between Pakistan and India Cabeiri deBergh Robinson tells the stories of people whose lives and families have been shaped by a long history of political conflict Interweaving historical and ethnographic evidence Robinson explains how refuge seeking has become a socially and politically debased practice in the Kashmir region and why this devaluation has turned refugee men into potential militants She reveals the fraught social processes by which individuals and families produce and maintain a modern jihad and she shows how Muslim refugees have forged an Islamic notion of rights a hybrid of global political ideals that adopts the language of human rights and humanitarianism as a means to rethink refugees positions in transnational communities Jihad is no longer seen as a collective fight for the sovereignty of the Islamic polity but instead as a personal struggle to establish the security of Muslim bodies against political violence torture and rape Robinson describes how this new understanding has contributed to the popularization of jihad in the Kashmir region decentered religious institutions as regulators of jihad in practice and turned the families of refugee youths into the ultimate mediators of entrance into militant organizations This provocative book challenges the idea that extremism in modern Muslim societies is the natural by product of a clash of civilizations of a universal Islamist ideology or of fundamentalist conversion

The Great Partition Yasmin Khan, 2017-07-04 A reappraisal of the tumultuous Partition and how it ignited long standing animosities between India and Pakistan This new edition of Yasmin Khan s reappraisal of the tumultuous India Pakistan Partition features an introduction reflecting on the latest research and on ways in which commemoration of the Partition has changed and considers the Partition in light of the current refugee crisis Reviews of the first edition A riveting book on this terrible story Economist

Canfield, Gabriele Rasuly-Paleczek, 2010-10-04 This book examines the perspectives and issues of variously situated peoples in Greater Central Asia in terms of four major issues government repression ethnic group perspectives devices of mutual support and informal grounds of authority and influence Responding to the need for in depth studies concerning the social structures and practices in the region it provides a distinctive timely insight into this increasingly influential part of the world

Waging War in Waziristan Andrew M. Roe, 2010 A career soldier with on the ground experience presents a gripping history of the imperial British experience in Waziristan a remote area of Pakistan Distills the hard earned British experience and offers some potentially useful lessons for the West and its current troubles in the same region once described as the epicenter of terrorism and reputedly the hiding place of Osama bin Laden

The Afghan Way of War Robert Johnson, 2011-12-29 Focusing on key episodes in Afghanistan's long history of conflict with foreign forces from the early nineteenth century to the present this book sheds new light on the Afghan Way of War Robert Johnson shows that contrary to the stereotypes of primitive warriors enflamed with religious fanaticism Afghan warfare has been marked by constant change as Afghani methods evolved to face new threats From the dynastic struggles and popular resistance movements of the nineteenth century to the ideological confrontations of recent decades Afghans have long resisted political coercion military intervention and foreign influence To do so they have developed sophisticated strategic approaches to deal with both internal unrest and foreign intrusion while at the tactical level outthinking and outfighting their opponents at every step The final part of the book which deals with how the Taliban has contested Western intervention by borrowing from traditions in Afghan history and culture will be of considerable topical interest in light of the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan

Islam and the European Empires David Motadel, 2014-09-04 At the height of the imperial age European powers ruled over most parts of the Islamic world The British French Russian and Dutch empires each governed more Muslims than any independent Muslim state European officials believed Islam to be of great political significance and were quite cautious when it came to matters of the religious life of their Muslim subjects In the colonies they regularly employed Islamic religious leaders and institutions to bolster imperial rule At the same time the European presence in Muslim lands was confronted by religious resistance movements and Islamic insurgency Across the globe from the West African savanna to the shores of Southeast Asia Muslim rebels called for holy war against non Muslim intruders Islam and the European Empires presents the first comparative account of the engagement of all major European empires with Islam Bringing together fifteen of the world's leading scholars in the field the volume explores a wide array of themes ranging from the accommodation of Islam under imperial rule to Islamic anti colonial resistance A truly global history of empire the volume makes a major contribution not only to our knowledge of the intersection of Islam and imperialism but also more generally to our understanding of religion and power in the modern world The Muslim Secular Amar Sohal,2023 This book explores the political thought of three key Muslim thinker actors associated with the Indian freedom struggle Abul Kalam Azad Sheikh Abdullah and Abdul Ghaffar Khan These men sought to maintain Muslim minority rights and influence within a postcolonial united India The Defiant Border Elisabeth Leake,2017 This book explores why the Afghan Pakistan borderlands have remained largely independent of state controls throughout the twentieth century The Routledge International Handbook of Indigenous Resilience Hilary N. Weaver,2021-12-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive and cutting edge strengths based resource on the subject of Indigenous resilience Indigenous Peoples demonstrate considerable resilience despite the social health economic and political disparities they experience within surrounding settler societies This book considers Indigenous resilience in many forms cultural spiritual and governance traditions remain in some communities and are being revitalized in others to reclaim aspects of their cultures that have been outlawed suppressed or undermined It explores how Indigenous people advocate for social justice and work to shape settler societies in ways that create a more just fair and equitable world for all human and non human beings This book is divided into five sections From the past to the future Pillars of Indigeneity The power in Indigenous identities The natural world Reframing the narrative from problem to opportunity Comprised of 25 newly commissioned chapters from Indigenous scholars professionals and community members from traditions around the world this book will be a useful tool for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of manifestations of wellness and resilience This handbook will be of particular interest to all scholars students and practitioners of social work social care and human services more broadly as well as those working in sociology development studies and environmental sustainability Under the Drones Shahzad Bashir,Robert D. Crews,2012-05-14 Western media coverage of Afghanistan and Pakistan paints a simplistic picture of ageless barbarity terrorist safe havens and peoples in need of either punishment or salvation Under the Drones looks beyond this limiting view to investigate real people on the ground and analyze the political social and economic forces that shape their lives

Sovereign Attachments Shenila Khoja-Moolji,2021-06-15 Sovereign Attachments rethinks sovereignty by moving it out of the exclusive domain of geopolitics and legality and into cultural religious and gender studies Through a close reading of a stunning array of cultural texts produced by the Pakistani state and the Pakistan based Taliban Shenila Khoja Moolji theorizes sovereignty as an ongoing attachment that is negotiated in public culture Both the state and the Taliban recruit publics into relationships of trust protection and fraternity by summoning models of Islamic masculinity mobilizing kinship metaphors and marshalling affect In particular masculinity and Muslimness emerge as salient performances through which sovereign attachments are harnessed The book shifts the discussion of sovereignty away from questions about absolute dominance to ones about shared repertoires entanglements and co constitution Nation, Ethnicity and the Conflict in Afghanistan Raghav Sharma,2016-07-15 Ethnic and tribal loyalties in Afghanistan provided the lethal cocktail for the violent conflict that engulfed the country following the collapse of the Soviet backed government in 1992 The ensuing fighting between mujahideen groups paved the way for the tectonic social and political shifts which continue to shape events today What accounts for the emergence of ethnicity as the main cause of conflict in Afghanistan What moved people to respond with such fervour and intensity to calls for ethnic solidarity This book attempts to make sense of ethnicity s decisive role in Afghanistan through a comprehensive exploration of its nature and perception Based on new data generated through interviews field notes and participant observations Sharma maps the increased role of ethnicity in Afghan national politics Key social political and historical processes that facilitated its emergence as the pre dominant fault line of conflict are explored moving away from grand political and military narrative to instead engage with zones of conflict as social spaces This book will be of interest to students and scholars working in politics ethnic studies and security studies

Pakistan, Regional Security and Conflict Resolution Farooq Yousaf, 2020-10-20 This book explains how colonial legacies and the postcolonial state of Pakistan negatively influenced the socio political and cultural dynamics and the security situation in Pakistan s Pashtun tribal areas formerly known as the Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA It offers a local perspective on peace and conflict resolution in Pakistan s Pashtun tribal region Discussing the history and background of the former FATA region the role of Pashtun conflict resolution mechanism of Jirga and the persistence of colonial era Frontier Crimes Regulations FCR in the region the author argues that the persistence of colonial legacies in the Pashtun tribal areas especially the FCR coupled with the overarching influence of the military on security policy has negatively impacted the security situation in the region By focusing on the Jirga and Jirga based Lashkars or Pashtun militias the book demonstrates how Pashtuns have engaged in their own initiatives to handle the rise of militancy in their region Moreover the book contends that even after the introduction of constitutional reforms and FATA s merger with the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province little has changed in the region especially regarding the treatment of tribal Pashtuns as equal citizens of Pakistan This book explains in detail why indigenous methods of peace and conflict resolution such as the Jirga could play some role towards long term peace in the South Asian region Historically and contextually informed with a focus on North West Pakistan this book will be of interest to academics researching South Asian Studies International Relations Peace and Conflict Studies terrorism and traditional justice and restorative forms of peace making
