Proceedings from the 7th Nordic Conference on English Studies Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, Brita Wårvik, 1999 The (Ir)reversibility of English Binomials Sandra Mollin, 2014-09-15 This book focuses on binomials word pairs such as heart and soul rich and poor or if and when and in particular on the degree of reversibility that English binomials demonstrate Detailed and innovative corpus linguistic analyses investigate the correlates of the degree of reversibility linguistic constraints that influence the ordering and reversibility of binomials and the diachronic development of reversibility In addition judgment data are analyzed for their convergence and divergence with corpus data regarding degrees of reversibility The book thus establishes reversibility as a complex characteristic of the binomial construction at the same time throwing light on general questions in phraseology lexicalization language structure and language processing Thematics Max Louwerse, Willie Van Peer, 2002-01-01 Themes play a central role in our everyday communication we have to know what a text is about in order to understand it Intended meaning cannot be understood without some knowledge of the underlying theme This book helps to define the concept of themes in texts and how they are structured in language use Much of the literature on Thematics is scattered over different disciplines literature psychology linguistics cognitive science which this detailed collection pulls together in one coherent overview The result is a new landmark for the study and understanding of themes in their everyday manifestation Structures in Discourse Martin Gill, Aino Malmivirta, Brita Wårvik, 2024-08-15 This volume aims to stretch the boundaries of text and discourse linguistics exploring organization and structuring in discourse across a variety of communication forms from written to spoken to visual in old and new media It presents a collection of case studies ranging in focus from the micro level discourse functions of pronouns and emojis to the macro level structure of online interaction all from their different perspectives drawing inspiration from the notion of text as structure and process In a world of proliferating media and discourse types the papers collected here reflect the latest scholarship in text and discourse studies highlighting the value of combining multiple approaches and suggesting future directions and possibilities for research Structures in Discourse will be of interest to students and researchers in pragmatics discourse analysis media studies and digitally mediated communication The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe Michael Hollington, 2013-08-29 The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe offers a full historical survey of Dickens s reception in all the major European countries and many of the smaller ones filling a major gap in Dickens scholarship which has by and large neglected Dickens s fortunes in Europe and his impact on major European authors and movements Essays by leading international critics and translators give full attention to cultural changes and fashions such as the decline of Dickens s fortunes at the end of the nineteenth century in the period of Naturalism and Aestheticism and the subsequent upswing in the period of Modernism in part as a consequence of the rise of film in the era of Chaplin and Eisenstein It will also offer accounts of Dickens s reception in periods of political upheaval and revolution such as during the communist era in Eastern

Discourse Perspectives on English Risto Hiltunen, Janne Skaffari, 2003-12-19

Covering nearly one thousand years this volume explores medieval and modern English texts from fresh perspectives Within the relatively new field of historical discourse linguistics the synchronic analysis of large textual units and consideration of text external features in relation to discourse has so far received little attention To fill that gap this volume offers studies of medieval instructional and religious texts and correspondence from the early modern period The contributions highlight writer audience relationships the intended use of texts descriptions of text type and questions of orality and manuscript contextualization The topics ranging from the reception of Old English texts to the conventions of practical instruction in Middle English to the epistolary construction of science in early Modern English are directly relevant to historical linguists discourse and text linguists and students of the history of English

Collaborating Towards Coherence Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, 2006-01-01 This book approaches cohesion and coherence from a perspective of interaction and collaboration After a detailed account of various models of cohesion and coherence the book suggests that it is fruitful to regard cohesion as contributing to coherence as a strategy used by communicators to help their fellow communicators create coherence from a text Throughout the book the context sensitive and discourse specific nature of cohesion is stressed cohesive relations are created and interpreted in particular texts in particular contexts By investigating the use of cohesion in four different types of discourse the study shows that cohesion is not uniform across discourse types The analysis reveals that written dialogue computer mediated discussions and spoken monologue prepared speech make use of similar cohesive strategies as spoken dialogue conversations in these contexts the communicators interaction with their fellow communicators leads to a similar outcome The book suggests that this is an indication of the communicators attempt to collaborate towards successful communication

How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds
