Public Sphere In Muslim Societies:

The Public Sphere in Muslim Societies Miriam Hoexter, Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, Nehemia Levtzion, 2002-07-18
Multidisciplinary examination of the public sphere in traditional Muslim society The Public Sphere in Muslim Societies Miriam Hoexter, Shmuel N. Eisenstadt, Nehemia Levtzion, 2012-02-01 Challenging conventional assumptions the contributors to this interdisciplinary volume argue that premodern Muslim societies had diverse and changing varieties of public spheres constructed according to premises different from those of Western societies The public sphere conceptualized as a separate and autonomous sphere between the official and private is used to shed new light on familiar topics in Islamic history such as the role of the shari a Islamic religious law the ulama Islamic scholars schools of law Sufi brotherhoods the Islamic endowment institution and the relationship between power and culture rulers and community from the ninth to twentieth centuries New Media in the Muslim World, Second Edition Dale F. Eickelman, 2003-07-15 It is difficult to imagine a more thoughtful balanced or comprehensive treatment of this extremely elusive and difficult subject Digest of Middle East Studies This second edition of a widely acclaimed collection of essays reports on how new media fax machines satellite television and the Internet and the new uses of older media cassettes pulp fiction the cinema the telephone and the press shape belief authority and community in the Muslim world The chapters in this work including new chapters dealing specifically with events after September 11 2001 concern Indonesia Bangladesh Turkey Iran Lebanon the Arabian Peninsula and Muslim communities in the United States and elsewhere The extent to which today s new media have transcended local and state frontiers and have reshaped understandings of gender authority social justice identities and politics in Muslim societies emerges from this timely and provocative book Islamic Education and the Public Sphere Florian Pohl,

Public Sphere in Muslim Societies; Its Reflection on Social, Political Thought and Law Case Study Elham Beygi, 2013 This comprehensive study aims to situate and contextualize the meaning of the public sphere in Muslim societies especially Iran as compared with the experience of Turkey utilizing diverse tools of inquiry in qualitative research methodology such as critical textual analysis early Islam historiography and historical analysis of Iran and Turkey as well as in depth open ended interviews After setting the scene by rendering explicit certain aspects of Islamic thought and history this study goes on to demonstrate various reflections and repercussions that such a free domain would have on the societal and especially legal structure of the aforementioned societies Public Islam and the Common Good Armando Salvatore, Dale F. Eickelman, 2004 This book shows how competing Islamic ideas and practices create alternative political and social realities in the Muslim majority regions of the Arab Middle East Iran South Asia Africa and elsewhere in ways that differ from the emergence of the public sphere in Europe Islam in the Public Sphere Dietrich Reetz, 2006 This study explores the contestation of the public sphere by ten Islamic groups and traditions in colonial India The groups studied here represent reformist and revivalist traditions with a significant degree of heterogeneity They comprise seminary movements organized around a particular lead madrasa Deobandi Bareilwi Nadwa Firangi Mahal Aligarh and revival movements attempting to increase religious awareness in ritual observance in public life and in politics which this book closely examines A common concern of the Islamic project in South Asia becomes discernible on looking closely at the discourses of these schools and movements and their lines of activity Various issues which arose as a result of their activities eventually became entangled with the political awakening in India brought about by the nationalist movement led by the Indian National Congress These challenges caused Islamic groups to formulate their own project for society and an Islamic polity in India This project evolved over time from scholarly debates to political action and social concepts They took up political issues related to the status of Islam in India the Islamic world and vis vis British colonial rule the debate over the role of Islamic groups in the public sphere and the formation of an Islamic sector within it can serve as a catalyst for a better understanding of the diverse trends and models of their interaction

Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rituals changed from being an originally devotional practice to public events of political significance setting the stage for the emergence of the early modern Iranian public sphere in the Safavid period

Conceptualizing Islam Frank Peter, Paula Schrode, Ricarda Stegmann, 2025-03-31 In recent decades academic debates on how to conceptualize Islam as an object of study and how to approach it theoretically have been revitalized Not only has research on Islam grown enormously and become much more differentiated but Islam is also being discussed more intensively in society and politics than ever before This reader which brings together the perspectives of various disciplines provides an overview of academic approaches to Islam against the backdrop of these in some cases tense entanglements Through two contributions from scholars working on Buddhism and Hinduism these debates are situated in the context of broader trajectories of research history In sum this book does not only offer its readers entry points to a more complex and refined understanding of Islam but also to research processes within the study of Islam as well as religion in general

The Wiley Blackwell History of Islam Armando Salvatore, Roberto Tottoli, Babak Rahimi, 2018-06-18 A theoretically rich nuanced history of Islam and Islamic civilization with a unique sociological component This major new reference work offers a complete historical and theoretically informed view of Islam as both a religion and a sociocultural force Uniquely comprehensive it surveys and discusses the transformation of Muslim societies in different eras and various regions providing a broad narrative of the historical development of Islamic civilization This text explores the complex and varied history of the religion and its traditions It provides an in depth study of the diverse ways through which the religious dimension at the core of Islamic traditions has led to a distinctive type of civilizational process in history The book illuminates the ways in which various historical forces have converged and crystallized in institutional forms at a variety of levels embracing social religious legal political cultural and civic dimensions Together the team of internationally renowned scholars move from the genesis of a new social order in 7th century Arabia right up to the rise of revolutionary Islamist currents in the 20th century and the varied ways in which Islam has grown and continues to pervade daily life in the Middle East and beyond This book is essential reading for students and academics in a wide range of fields including sociology history law and political science It will also appeal to general readers with an interest in the history of one of the world s great religions
