Public Management The Eastern Caribbean Experience:

Public Administration and Policy in the Caribbean Indianna D. Minto-Coy, Evan Berman, 2015-06-26 The Caribbean is at a crucial phase in its development Global and local pressures have seen the region losing its competitiveness while it remains at risk of losing out on development gains made in the last few decades These pressures are demanding improvements in the way government operates particularly in its policy making and administrative Public Management Jamal Khan, 1982 Research report comprising a comparison of public administration and development planning trends and obstacles in the Eastern Caribbean discusses institutional frameworks and dysfunctions economic development project management regional cooperation resource allocation the impact of colonialism smallness of states social and cultural factors etc Map References and tables of national level data Halduskultuur-Administrative Culture 11(1): Small States and the "State", Public Management Jamal Khan, 1982 Research report comprising a comparison of public administration and development planning trends and obstacles in the Eastern Caribbean discusses institutional frameworks and dysfunctions economic development project management regional cooperation resource allocation the impact of colonialism smallness of states social and cultural factors etc Map References and tables of national level data Development Administration in the Caribbean J. Walker, 2002-05-22 A detailed and historical account of both theory and practice this book attempts to make sense of the loose and little understood field of development administration The book focuses on development administration over forty years and identifies key attributes of public bureaucracy which are associated with bureaucratic performance The associations between bureaucracy s attributes and performance are employed in explaining development differences between Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago over the period 1960 1995 Associations are explored at the macro level through aggregate data and at the micro level through fascinating case studies of the Industrial Development Corporations IDCs associated with economic growth and the Ministry of Education associated with women s empowerment The study establishes clear patterns of associations in the empirical cases and explores the implications of these findings for the theory of development administration Strengthening Urban Management Thomas L. Blair, 2013-03-08 Managing cities and providing housing essential infra structure and public services in an era of great pressures on municipal resources are challenging domestic issues in all parts of the world Increasingly city administrators and local government authorities in developing countries and western industrial nations are seeking to share experiences and exchange information in a search for solutions This highly informative volume attempts to meet this critical need and to aid development cooperation among municipalities Strengthening Urban Management presents the practical problems and approaches to the provision of housing trans portation and the mobilization of the requisite finance and manpower for local government in contrasting urban situations It draws upon selected papers contributed to inter national meetings and world congresses sponsored by the International Union of Local Authorities The Hague Netherlands Subject areas are illustrated in city examples given by mayors administrators and planners from Lusaka Harare Nairobi Osaka Jakarta Bandung Vienna Stockholm Caracas and Rio de Janeiro Theme introductions and contributions from leading international and national agencies highlight the important role and grave difficulties facing local government in urban management and planning Caribbean Perspectives on International Law and Organization Bertie G. Ramcharan, L.B. Francis, 2024-12-16 Public Administration in the Third World V. Subramaniam, 1990-06-26 Focuses on recent decades Includes trends since the beginning of the century

Global Tourism and Informal Labour Relations Godfrey Baladacchino, 2013-08-21 The worldwide expansion of the tourism industry creates many encounters between global agents and local forces yet the host guest interaction is rarely considered from the point of view of the experience of work This study documents and discusses such a global local encounter based on fieldwork carried out in hotels in Barbados and Malta Insight is drawn from a review of such issues as recruitment promotion redundancy discipline security communication expertise total quality management initiatives trade unionism and industrial action Public Administration in Small and Island States Randall Baker, 1992 Clearly defines and examines the unique personality and politics of small using the personal experience and field research of leading professionals to answer crucial questions
