

The background of the book cover is a high-angle, night-time photograph of a modern city. A prominent feature is a large, curved, multi-level architectural structure, possibly a train station or a public building, with a glass and steel facade that is brightly lit from within. The lights create a warm, golden glow that contrasts with the cool blue tones of the night sky and the surrounding city lights. The overall composition is dynamic and futuristic, suggesting a theme of progress and change.

Public Theology Changing Times:

Theology for Changing Times Christopher R. Baker, Elaine Graham, 2018-09-30 From wealth creation to wealth distribution and social ethics from urban mission to religious studies and psychology the work of John Atherton was breathtaking in scope and variety Unifying all of his work however was a concern with engaging the work of theology with wider society With contributions from some of the leading lights in public theology today this book offers not only an appreciation of John Atherton's work within a prodigiously large array of disciplines but also an attempt to ask what next taking his work forward and considering where the future of public theology might lie John Atherton's last published article is also reproduced Public Theology for Changing Times John Atherton, 2000 For Christians these times of rapid change pose a particular challenge This book is designed to help us to understand the processes at work over the last 40 years from a global national and local perspective and to live efficiently and purposefully in this context An interpretation of these changing times in the light of historical and contemporary processes demonstrates how Christianity has and therefore can act as an effective partner in such change In the words of Hans Kung the author seeks a viable outline of the future which takes historical experiences into account comes to grips with present social reality and at the same time transcends it in search of a relatively better world order Public Theology Gnana Patrick, 2020-04-07 This book situates public theology within the genre of political theology Drawing upon the distinct strands of political theologies identified by Daniel M Bell Jr Gnana Patrick treats public theology as the form of political theology for our contemporary era and takes special care to relate these strands of political theologies to the Indian context thereby opening up the theological horizon for Indian public theology Further Public Theology dwells upon certain prominent features of our contemporary global world and discerns the human need for experiencing transcendence today Taking faith to be the catalyst for this experience of transcendence it points to civil society as the interstice through which faith can be imparted to the contemporary world And it argues for the relevance of public theology for that work Public Theology in the Post-Secular Age Dominic Budhi-Thornton, 2025-07-31 As religion's status and place within society is contested in the post secular age Manchester Cathedral is a fascinating case study of the potential role that cathedrals and other religious institutions may be able to play in various public settings While the church's membership declines in the UK Manchester Cathedral operates as a spiritual hub in the area of Greater Manchester Using primary data gathered on the ground this work explores Manchester Cathedral's public theologies of inclusion which lie at the heart of its various activities and practices Focusing most explicitly on the cathedral's interfaith work anti racism work and its theology of LGBTQIA inclusion the author explores the potential strengths and weaknesses of religious engagement in the contemporary post secular age In this book Budhi Thornton seeks to contribute to questions about the relationship between the religious and the secular tradition and innovation inclusion and distinctiveness Drawing on a wide range of theological and philosophical traditions Budhi Thornton puts forward a case for the development of a public theological hospitality that remains open to the work of the Spirit in the life of the Other

Public Theology for the 21st Century Duncan B. Forrester, William Storrar, Andrew Morton, 2004-01-01 The book is a unique stocktaking by a leading international group of theologians social scientists and other scholars on issues facing public theology at the beginning of the 21st century It combines retrospect and prospect in that it reflects on the issues and approaches that have characterized public theology in the 20th century especially its latter half and attempts to anticipate those which will or should come to the fore in the 21st century seeking to discern continuities and changes Three opening chapters deal with the overall theme of public or political theology with Jurgen Moltmann giving a critical historical account from the Second World War onwards Raymond Plant relating such theology to cultural pluralism and Andrew Morton illustrating it from the work of Duncan Forrester These are followed by pairs of contributions relating public theology to more specific topicsr History Technology and Creation Globalization Spirituality Punishment and Forgiveness Medical Ethics Tolerance and Human Rights Social Exclusion and Equality

Contextual Missiology of the Spirit Wessly Lukose, 2013-01-01 This book explores the identity context and features of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan India as well as the internal and external issues facing Pentecostals It argues for an indigenous origin of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan as it is a product of local Spirit revivals in the existing churches and the missionary activities of Indian Pentecostals It also reveals that both the intra church as well as extra church issues place Pentecostals in a missio ethical dilemma The book aims to suggest a contextual missiology of the Spirit as a new model of contextual missiology from a Pentecostal perspective It is presented as a glocal ecumenical transformational and public missiology

Let's Do Theology Laurie Green, 2010-01-12 Curating Spaces of Hope Matthew Barber-Rowell, 2025-03-31 What might a political theology of leadership look like in uncertain times Curating Spaces of Hope explores how individuals and communities work together to shape and contribute to society in times of pandemic Brexit war and a cost of living crisis through the exploration and development of local leadership practice underpinned by shared values

Religion in Diverse Societies Pauline Kollontai, Sue Yore, 2024-11-11 Religion in Diverse Societies Crossing the Boundaries of Prejudice and Distrust contributes to existing cutting edge research on the constructive way in which religion can support the promotion of respect dignity and justice for all people considered as essential features in shaping sustainable diverse and peaceful societies Through a combination of theoretical perspectives and theological analysis applied to real life contexts the diverse contributions examine the role of religion in helping to achieve this and thereby challenge the attitudes and practices that create walls of prejudice and distrust This timely volume provides a critical discussion of the complex role of religions in the public and political spheres in a range of global contexts and furthers the inter religious international and interdisciplinary understanding of how religion can contribute to promoting and helping create inclusive and diverse societies

Public Theology in Korea? Minseok Kim, 2021 Public Theology is one of the most important topics in the field of theology across the world but not in Korea There are several historical and theological reasons for this indifference of Korean

Reformed Christianity as the mainstream in Korea In order to dispel doubts of Korean Reformed Christianity to the public theological approaches it is necessary to demonstrate a coherence between some characteristics of public theology and Reformed theology This study analyses and utilises the six characteristics of public theology presented by Heinrich Bedford Strohm as a lens to engage aspects of John Calvin's theology and the period of the Reformation in Geneva Based on this work the author re-examines the history of Korean Christianity with a public theological point of view and asserts the justification for Korean Reformed Christianity to actively embrace public theological approaches
