Pictures in an Academy John Sansom, 2007 The Royal West of England Academy in Bristol has an astonishing collection of more than 1 300 paintings and other works of fine art Primarily put together since the Second World War the collection represents an outstanding cross section of modern British art From the 1950s alone this little known collection includes work by Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant Bernard Dunstan Henry Lamb Ann Redpath William Townsend Julian Trevelyan and Carel Weight from later decades artists represented include Mary Fedden Paul Feiler Dod Procter and the master etcher Robin Tanner The book puts the Bristol collection in a national context with more than 150 full colour reproductions Profiles of Anabaptist Women C. Arnold Snyder, Linda A. Huebert Hecht, 2010-10-30 During the upheavals of the Reformation one of the most significant of the radical Protestant movements emerged that of the Anabaptist movement Profiles of Anabaptist Women provides lively well researched profiles of the courageous women who chose to risk prosecution and martyrdom to pursue this unsanctioned religion a religion that unlike the established religions of the day initially offered them opportunity and encouragement to proselytize Derived from sixteenth century government records and court testimonies hymns songs and poems these profiles provide a panorama of life and faith experiences of women from Switzerland Germany Holland and Austria These personal stories of courage faith commitment and resourcefulness interweave women s lives into the greater milieu relating them to the dominant male context and the socio political background of the Reformation Taken together these sketches will give readers an appreciation for the central role played by Anabaptist women in the emergence and persistence of this radical branch of Protestantism Making Space Public in Early Modern Europe Angela Vanhaelen, Joseph P. Ward, 2013-04-26 Broadening the conversation begun in Making Publics in Early Modern Europe 2009 this book examines how the spatial dynamics of public making changed the shape of early modern society The publics visited in this volume are voluntary groupings of diverse individuals that could coalesce through the performative uptake of shared cultural forms and practices The contributors argue that such forms of association were social productions of space as well as collective identities Chapters explore a range of cultural activities such as theatre performances travel and migration practices of persuasion the embodied experiences of lived space and the central importance of media and material things in the creation of publics and the production of spaces They assess a multiplicity of publics that produced and occupied a multiplicity of social spaces where collective identity and voice could be created discovered asserted and exercised Cultural producers and consumers thus challenged dominant ideas about just who could enter the public arena greatly expanding both the real and imaginary spaces of public life to include hitherto excluded groups of private people The consequences of this historical reconfiguration of public space remain relevant especially for contemporary efforts to meaningfully include the views of ordinary people in public life Monarchy, Myth, and Material Culture in Germany 1750-1950 Eva Giloi, 2011-07-21 A fascinating study of how ordinary German subjects collected and consumed royal relics and memorabilia

The Public and Private Life of ... George the Third, Etc. [With Plates, Including Portraits.] Robert Huish,1821

Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library,1898 British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections

Christopher Wright,Catherine May Gordon,2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting GPs and Purchasing in the NHS Bernard

Dowling,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The relative performance of health authorities and general practitioners as commissioners of health care services is a crucial question in the current health care policy debate but hitherto a poorly researched area This work addresses that topic and represents a systematic direct comparison of GPs and health authorities as purchasers of health care services In doing this it centres upon two of the chief controversies about the NHS internal market the equality of hospital waiting times for fund holding patients and the fairness of the budgets received by fund holding practices for commissioning effective surgery In discussing the policy implications of the research the book then addresses what lessons should be learned from the internal market about equity and efficiency in the service now that the present Labour Government is reforming the NHS with the introduction of Primary Care Groups and Primary Care Trusts
