Pudlo Marie Routledge, Marion Elizabeth Jackson, Pudlo, National Gallery of Canada, 1990 Catalogue published in conjunction with the exhibition Pudlo thirty years of drawing at the National Gallery of Canada Ottawa and the Winnipeg Art Gallery in 1990 1991 Includes commentary on the drawings chronology family tree of Pudlo Pudlat of Cape Dorset map of locations of drawings mainly in District of Keewatin Northwest Territories plates catalogue checklist of prints and drawings exhibitions collections and bibliography and index of titles of drawings An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications On Aboriginal representation in the Gallery Lydia Jessup, Shannon Bagg, 2002-01-01 In recognizing the established intellectual and institutional authority of Aboriginal artists curators and academics working in cultural institutions and universities this volume serves as an important primer on key questions and issues accompanying the changing representational practices of the community cultural center the public art gallery and the anthropological museum Published in English Unpacking Culture Ruth B. Phillips, Christopher B. Steiner, 1999-01-30 An outstanding set of studies that work well with each other to produce truly substantial and rich insights into the making and consuming of art in the colonial and post colonial world Susan S Bean Curator Peabody Essex Museum Glyphs and Gallows Peter Wilton Johnson, 1999 In 1995 Peter Johnson went looking for a rare set of petroglyphs located on the outer coast of Vancouver Island near an abandoned whaling village Encouraged by archival research that yielded court records 90 year old correspondence and a tantalizing 1926 newspaper article Peter sought to tie these glyphs to the 1869 wreck of the trading barque John Bright and the bizarre colonial trial that followed He found more questions than answers Why for example were two Nuuchah nulth men so readily hung from a gallows erected in front of their village at Hesquiat And how did this event relate to the rock carvings that Peter knew existed in a cove many miles south along the life saving West Coast Trail by the Graveyard of the Pacific This story explores the significance of particular petroglyphs colonial injustice and the European trading mentality on the west coast at the time of contact Peter interweaves a personal journal with historical narrative in order to produce a lively account of the relationship between our coastal history and a little known Aboriginal art form Hunters, Carvers, and Collectors Maija M. Lutz, 2012-11-12 In the 1950s Chauncey C Nash started collecting Inuit carvings just as the art of printmaking was introduced in Kinngait Cape Dorset His collection of early Inuit sculpture and prints represents a vibrant period in contemporary Inuit art Drawing from ethnology archaeology art history and cultural studies Lutz tells the collection s story Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall,2000 Inuit sometimes referred to as Eskimo art is the primary art form of Canada and has a large international following particularly in the United States Japan and Germany Despite its popularity the complete history of Inuit art has never been presented This is the first chronological synthesis of Inuit art following its development from prehistory through early American and European exploration to the recognition of Inuit art as a commercial possibility and up to the present There is a particular emphasis on contemporary art and artists and the years 1950 through 1997 are each given separate detailed treatment in regard to important shows and events This history is appropriate both for the beginning admirer of Inuit art and for those already well immersed in it Uqalura John R. Bennett,Susan Rowley,2004-05-19 An authoritative and comprehensive compilation of the ancient knowledge of Inuit elders Women Graphic Designers Elizabeth Resnick,2025-10-02 Women are now the largest student body demographic in graphic design programs yet in the twenty first century the professional work of female designers is still underrepresented or ignored in the media and historical canons Women Graphic Designers features illustrated essays of 42 undervalued and marginalized female graphic designers from diverse global cultures who worked professionally during the 20th century 1900 1999 Each essay critically explores each subject s challenges and alternative approaches when faced with professional roadblocks or personal and family dilemmas With a broad range of contributors from around the world looking at the work of international graphic designers this new collection is ideal for use on courses that expand the conversation beyond the traditional canon and look at design history holistically This significantly important publication will celebrate the contribution women have made to the discipline of graphic design and help establish a more comprehensive diverse and inclusive design history Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo,Ruth Bliss Phillips,2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well
