Pumas Claw:

Wild Cats of the World Mel Sunquist, Fiona Sunquist, 2017-05-15 Did you know that European royalty once used cheetahs to hunt deer or that caracals can capture birds by leaping six and a half feet straight up into the air from a standing start Have you ever wondered whether domestic cats really do land on their feet when they fall or how Canada lynx can stalk their prey in the winter without falling through the deep snow Wild Cats of the World is a treasure trove of answers to questions like these and many others for anyone who is interested in learning more about the world's felids including the ones with whom we share our homes Mel and Fiona Sunquist have spent more than a decade gathering information about cats from every available source many of them quite difficult to find including scientific papers descriptions of hunts archeological findings observations by naturalists and travelers reports from government agencies and newsletters from a wide variety of organizations Weaving information from these sources together with their own experiences observing wild cats around the world the Sunquists have created the most comprehensive reference on felids available Each of their accounts of the 36 species of cat contains a description of the cat including human interactions with it as well as detailed data on its distribution ecology and behavior status in the wild and efforts to conserve it Numerous photographs including more than 40 in full color illustrate these accounts Ranging from the two pound black footed cat to the five hundred pound tiger and from the African serval with its satellite dish ears to the web footed fishing cat of Asia Wild Cats of the World will fascinate and educate felid fans of any stripe or spot

Ash and Ruin Nicholas Taylor, 2025-03-20 They march for conquest They fight for survival But war answers to no one Blood turns the ground to mud Smoke blots out the sky The war drums of Lysandrian echo across a world on the edge of conquest For generations the Ulfgarath have raided the frontier carving their names into legend with steel and fire But now the empire marches not for retribution but for annihilation Trapped in the storm are those who wield power unlike any other the Essaerists rare magic bearers who shape reality itself creatures born from will weapons forged from nothing Some fight for Lysandrian others for survival all caught in the ruthless march of history But war is never what the stories tell you Glory twists into ruin Honor is a fleeting thing And when the dust settles only one truth remains nothing is ever created without cost The invasion has begun The old world is burning And what rises from the ashes may never be the same

Creed of the Mountain Man William W. Johnstone, 2017-07-25 USA Today bestselling Author It's war on the Wyoming range and Smoke Jensen aims to restore order Live by the West Die by the West Smoke Jensen has tried to make peace with the land and the past But trying to outrun a reputation as a fearless gunslinger in the wilds of Colorado can be life's toughest game Especially when you're playing against fate This time it's calling Smoke to the restless Wyoming range to fight the bloodiest private war in American history In Johnson County vigilantes have become the law Cattle rustlers have turned the great Powder River red with the blood of the innocent And nothing's going to stop the renegades from going barrel to barrel to pilfer the best grazing land in the Territory But they've finally met their match in the likes of the kill or be
