straight avenue to the winding approach Wall shows swung the perceptual balance away from the great house onto the personal experience of the visitor At the same time the grammatical and typographical landscape was shifting in tandem away from objects and Things and capitalized common Nouns to the spaces in between like punctuation and the lesser parts of speech The implications for narrative included new patterns of syntactical architecture and the phenomenon of free indirect discourse Wall examines the work of landscape theorists such as Repton John Claudius Loudon and Thomas Whately alongside travel narratives topographical views printers manuals dictionaries encyclopedias grammars and the novels of Defoe Richardson Burney Radcliffe and Austen to reveal a new landscaping across disciplines new grammars of approach in ways of perceiving and representing the world in both word and image
