Bill Chastain,2019-10-01 He ran like a crazed jackrabbit according to one awe struck sportswriter Clint Castleberry was already an Atlanta area football sensation when he arrived at Georgia Tech in 1942 and in one meteoric college season he became a national sports hero as well He was the first college freshman ever to be voted All American At least one Heisman Trophy was all but certain Though weighing just 155 pounds he seemed destined to become one of the greatest tailbacks in college football history But then World War II intervened and Castleberry became instead another young man whose destiny was cut short His 19 is the only number ever retired in the illustrious history of Georgia Tech football Bill Chastain weaves Clint Castleberry s story around other legends of Georgia Tech football including John Heisman William Alexander and Bobby Dodd to create a glorious portrait of a proud football tradition and America s Greatest Generation God and Humanity at Marshall Mark Coppenger,2020-09-21 The movie We Are Marshall brought national attention to the tragic loss and dramatic reconstitution of the school s football team But neither this film nor the Emmy winning documentary Marshall University Ashes to Glory explores the spiritual context and effect of the plane crash Few know that a visiting campus preacher touched the life of a popular defensive lineman the week before his ill fated flight that a campus minister was surprised several weeks later by a nighttime visit from students who'd come to ask the Jesus man how to be saved that two years before the crash a new young professor with a doctorate from India enlisted five students to help evangelize the campus and that three decades later a devout linebacker urged the coach to change the name of a play since it was demeaning to women The story extends back to the school's log church beginnings up through the decades when campus Ys generated foreign missionaries to the national championship years when key players testified freely to their faith nearly two centuries of spiritual highs and yes lows in the life of this remarkable school
