Jewish Literary Eros Isabelle Levy, 2022-06-07 In Jewish Literary Eros Isabelle Levy explores the originality and complexity of medieval Jewish writings Examining medieval prosimetra texts composed of alternating prose and verse Levy demonstrates that secular love is the common theme across Arabic Hebrew French and Italian texts At the crossroads of these spheres of intellectual activity Jews of the medieval Mediterranean composed texts that combined dominant cultures literary stylings with biblical Hebrew and other elements from Jewish cultures Levy explores Jewish authors treatments of love in prosimetra and finds them creative complex and innovative Jewish Literary Eros compares the mixed form compositions by Jewish authors of the medieval Mediterranean with their Arabic and European counterparts to find the particular moments of innovation among textual practices by Jewish authors When viewed in the comparative context of the medieval Mediterranean the evolving relationship between the mixed form and the theme of love in secular Jewish compositions refines our understanding of the ways in which the Jewish literature of the period negotiates the hermeneutic and theological underpinnings of Islamicate and Christian literary traditions

One Hundred Middle English Lyrics Robert David Stevick, 1994 Stevick's classic work remains the only text of its kind aimed at fostering the linguistic competence necessary to understand its poems in Middle English The wide range of lyric poems in the book are normalized to a Chaucerian dialect The introduction has been revised to take into account the scholarship and criticism published since the first edition appeared in 1964 It gives the background for the poetry explains how and why the texts are normalized and reviews significant critical scholarly studies of the works Included is a section on morphology and grammar that introduces students to the language of the lyrics and a section on the evolving meter of Middle English A fine piece of work Learned wide ranging and judicious John B Friedman author of The Monstrous Races in Medieval Art and Thought An impressive collection Stevick's decision to normalize the texts makes it highly accessible Ralph Hanna III University of California Riverside

Poetry & Money Peter Robinson, 2020 Poetry & Money illuminates relationships between poets poetry and money from Chaucer to the contemporary times Through readings of poems variously engaged with money it proposes ways in which we can come to a fresh understanding of values money may serve to enable but which are nevertheless beyond price

God: A Biography Jack Miles, 2011-03-30 WINNER OF THE PULITZER PRIZE What sort of person is God What is his life story Is it possible to approach him not as an object of religious reverence but as the protagonist of the world's greatest book as a character who possesses all the depths contradictions and ambiguities of a Hamlet This is the task that Jack Miles a former Jesuit trained in religious studies and Near Eastern languages accomplishes with such brilliance and originality in God: A Biography Using the Hebrew Bible as his text Miles shows us a God who evolves through his relationship with man the image who in time becomes his rival Here is the Creator who nearly destroys his chief creation the bloodthirsty warrior and the protector of the downtrodden the lawless law giver the scourge and the penitent

Profoundly learned stylishly written the resulting work illuminates God and man alike and returns us to the Bible with a sense of discovery and wonder

Gender, Sexuality, and Material Objects in English Renaissance Verse Pamela S. Hammons, 2016-12-05 An important contribution to recent critical discussions about gender sexuality and material culture in Renaissance England this study analyzes female and male authored lyrics to illuminate how gender and sexuality inflected sixteenth and seventeenth century poets conceptualization of relations among people and things human and non human subjects and objects Pamela S Hammons examines lyrics from both manuscript and print collections including the verse of authors ranging from Robert Herrick John Donne and Ben Jonson to Margaret Cavendish Lucy Hutchinson and Aemilia Lanyer and situates them in relation to legal theories autobiographies biographies plays and epics Her approach fills a crucial gap in the conversation which has focused upon drama and male authored works by foregrounding the significance of the lyric and women s writing Hammons exposes the poetic strategies sixteenth and seventeenth century English women used to assert themselves as subjects of property and economic agents in relation to material items ranging from personal property to real estate despite the dominant patriarchal ideology insisting they were ideally temporary passive vehicles for men s wealth The study details how women imagined their multiple complex interactions with the material world the author shows that how a woman poet represents herself in relation to material objects is a flexible fiction she can mobilize for diverse purposes Because this book analyzes men s and women s poems together it isolates important gendered differences in how the poets envision human subjects use control possession and ownership of things and the influences effects and power of things over humans It also adds to the increasing evidence for the pervasiveness of patriarchal anxieties associated with female economic agency in a culture in which women were often treated as objects

The Notion of Turning in Metaphysical Poetry Carmen Dörge, 2018 In Metaphysical Poetry there is an emphasis on religious experience which often touches on diverse kinds of turning Among them are religious conversion a turn to God spatial movement turning in space divine transformation turning from one kind into another musical tuning turning as a requisite for harmony and circular turning Moreover there is a strong link between turning and its realisation through the language of the poems Focusing on John Donne and George Herbert this study explores various aspects of turning as well as their interrelation Dissertation Series Religion and Literature Religion und Literatur Vol 7 Subject Poetry
