Security In Oceania:

Security in Oceania Eric Shibuya, Jim Rolfe, 2003 Politics, Development and Security in Oceania David Hegarty, Darrell Tryon, 2013-04-01 French and Australian collaborative research in the humanities and the social sciences in the South Pacific has grown and intensified significantly over the past two decades beginning with the international symposium Changing Identities in the Pacific at the Dawn of the Twenty First Century held at the Australian Embassy in Paris in 1997 In April 2006 another French government sponsored international symposium AGORA Ateliers Gouvernance et Recherche Appliquée was held at IRD Institut de Recherche pour le Développement Noumea New Caledonia major themes being governance and economic development again bringing together Francophone and Anglophone scholars from France and the Pacific region This was followed in October 2009 by two conjoint Francophone Anglophone conferences held at the IRD Centre in Noumea Stability Security and Development in Oceania preceded by AGORA 2 an international conference on Anglophone research in the humanities and the social sciences in the Francophone Pacific sponsored by the French Government and the Government of New Caledonia The first of these conferences was sponsored by the French Fonds Pacifique and the State Society and Governance Program at The Australian National University An edited selection of presentations from this symposium constitutes the present volume Preface International Law and Security in Indo-Pacific Joanna Siekiera, 2025-08-01 This book uses an interdisciplinary approach to discuss international law and conflict in the Indo Pacific region covering topics such as maritime security climate change and international relations Detailing how international relations and particular state interests govern regional and global partnerships the book provides suggestions for the future of the Indo Pacific region Exploring how conflict within the region has international repercussions topics covered include the role of South East Asian countries and the role of statehood of small islands in Oceania Detailing harmonization of laws and policies in the context of international security and maritime law the book focuses on the impact of climate change and other topical issues such as cyber security and the protection of cultural identity The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of international law law of the sea international relations and security Changing Security Dynamic in Eastern Asia N. S. Sisodia, G. V. C. Naidu, 2005 Proceedings of the 7th Asian Security Conference held at New Delhi in January 2005 Security Cooperation in the Pacific Islands Joanne Wallis, Henrietta McNeill, James Batley, Anna Powles, 2025-03-20 Wallis McNeill Batley Powles and the contributors examine the dynamics of Pacific Islands security cooperation analysing how it helps address regional security challenges amid the broader strategic competition between China and the United States that is increasingly playing out in the region Pacific Island countries do not want to become pawns in this competition but its impacts are inescapable and are creating additional security challenges Compounding these effects are climate change and COVID 19 both of which have intersected with existing traditional and non traditional security challenges facing the region In response Pacific Island leaders have vowed to pursue greater security cooperation amongst themselves and with partner states This book addresses partner states interests in the region how these interests and Pacific priorities align and if not what the possible consequences may be It also analyses successful areas of security cooperation and tackles how challenges may be improved Incorporating a range of perspectives from key leaders practitioners and scholars this is an empirically grounded analysis of security cooperation within the Pacific Islands region and by the region s major partners A vital resource for researchers and practitioners seeking to better understand Pacific Islands security collaboration and the inherent challenges it faces The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

New Zealand in a Globalising World Ralph Pettman, 2005 In 2003 Victoria University hosted the Fourth Wellington Conference on World Affairs This book is a collection of papers from that gathering The theme was New Zealand in World Affairs and focused on three major threads New Zealand s role in the Pacific Trans Tasman relations and New Zealand in a globalising world Chapters include a discussion and deconstruction of globalization the role of diplomacy in a global world security in Oceania in the post 9 11 era a survey of diplomacy politics with regard to nuclear testing by the French and an investigation of the differing world views held by Australia and New Zealand

Australian Security After 9/11 Derek McDougall, 2020-07-24 Debates on security became more intense following the unanticipated end of the Cold War conflict and took on added force after the terrorist attacks on the US on September 11 2001 Generally viewed as a part of the wider West despite its separation by enormous geographical distances from both Europe and the United States Australia is a regional power in its own right It has been an active and loyal member of the US led coalitions of the willing first in Afghanistan and then in Iraq The terrorist attacks in Bali one year after the attacks in the United States brought home to Australia the direct nature of the new global terrorist threats to its own security This volume brings together leading experts on international security and Australia s foreign and security policies in a critical examination of Australia s adaptations to the new security challenges It is the first in depth and comprehensive analysis of Australia s defence and security policies as well as the country s role in countering regional and global challenges to international security since the war on terrorism began

Mapping Security in the Pacific Sara Amin, Danielle Watson, Christian Girard, 2020-02-25 This book examines questions about the changing nature of security and insecurity in Pacific Island Countries PICs Previous discussions of security in the Pacific region have been largely determined by the geopolitical interests of the Global North This volume instead attempts to centre PICs security interests by focussing on the role of organisational culture power dynamics and gender in security processes and outcomes Mapping Security in the Pacific underscores the multidimensional nature of security its relationship to local international organisational and cultural dynamics the resistances engendered through various forms of insecurities and innovative efforts to negotiate gender context and organisational culture in reducing insecurity and enhancing justice Covering the Pacific region widely the volume brings forth context specific analyses at micro

meso and macro levels allowing us to examine the interconnections between security crime and justice and point to the issues raised for crime and justice studies by environmental insecurity In doing so it opens up opportunities to rethink scholarly and policy frames related to security insecurity about the Pacific Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars in criminology sociology cultural studies social theory and those interested in learning about the Pacific region and different aspects of security Regional Security Rodrigo Tavares,2009-12-16 This book is the first systematic study of the capacities of the most recognized intergovernmental organizations with a security mandate

Global Trends and Transitions in Security Expertise James McGann,2017-11-08 The scope of Security and International Affairs research has expanded tremendously since the end of the Cold War to include topics beyond the realm of war studies or military statecraft The field once devoted solely to the study of conventional military and nuclear security issues has diversified to include foci often considered nontraditional including peace and conflict political economic environmental and human security In this exciting new volume McGann has undertaken a quantitative and qualitative study of SIA think tanks looking at global and regional trends in their research He argues that the end of the Cold War marked a fundamental shift within the field of defense and security studies among think tanks and academics Tracking the evolution of security as understood by researchers and policymakers is vital as the world follows the path of the Four Mores more issues more actors more competition and more conflict As we move forward into a world of rapid change and ubiquitous uncertainty think tanks will only become more prominent and influential The volume concludes with an assessment of the future of Security and International Affairs studies and raises the possibility of a return to a traditional security focus driven by recent events in Europe and the Middle East This will be an important resource for students and scholars of security studies global governance and think tanks Defense and Security Karl DeRouen Jr.,Uk Heo,2005-09-27 An authoritative up to date examination of the national security and defense policies of 50 influential nations and regions across the globe Defense and Security A Compendium of National Armed Forces and Security Policies presents highly readable authoritative essays profiling the defense and security policies of over 50 individual countries and regions with a focus on present day developments Written by leading national and international scholars and edited by eminent political science experts Karl DeRouen and Uk Heo the essays take an in depth look at each nation s current security situation defense spending present and potential military confrontations civil military relations alliances relations to terrorism and other topics of importance Historical events and conflicts are highlighted as well with emphasis on the post Cold War era The essays are parallel in structure allowing readers to pinpoint similarities and draw comparisons among nations The two volume set also includes a detailed introduction featuring a cross national comparison Enhancing Urban Safety and Security

Un-Habitat,2012-08-21 Enhancing Urban Safety and Security addresses three major threats to the safety and security of cities crime and violence insecurity of tenure and forced evictions and natural and human made disasters It analyses worldwide trends with respect to each of these threats paying particular attention to their underlying causes and impacts as well as to the good policies and best practices that have been adopted at the city national and international levels in order to address these threats The report adopts a human security perspective concerned with the safety and security of people rather than of states and highlights issues that can be addressed through appropriate urban policy planning design and governance

Corruption, Sustainable Development and Security Challenges in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, Sr.,2023-09-07 This book sheds light on Africa s development performance and dynamics arising from the interface between corruption and sustainable development on the one hand and the challenges that poses for peace security and stability Corruption also contributes to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism Pervasive corruption networks often include politicians civil servants working at all levels of state institutions representatives of the private sector and members of crime syndicates The consequences of corruption are detrimental in many aspects such as undermining governments ability to serve public interests and eroding public trust in democratic processes Presenting empirical evidence the book explains why corruption and the looting of staggering amounts of national assets undermine the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and has a negative impact on peace stability security the rule of law gender equality the environment and human rights This makes the book a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science international relations and economics in general as well as African studies development studies and security sector studies in particular covering issues and themes on corruption governance socio economic sustainable development public administration and management policing in an international context police reform and security sector reform It will also serve as a helpful resource for policy makers interested in a better understanding of the connection between corruption sustainable development and security challenges in Sub Saharan Africa

Security Expertise Trine Villumsen Berling,Christian Bueger,2015-04-10 This volume brings together scholars from different fields to explore the power consequences and everyday practices of security expertise Expertise mediates between different forms of knowledge scientific and technological legal economic and political knowledge This book offers the first systematic study of security expertise and opens up a productive dialogue between science and technology studies and security studies to investigate the character and consequences of this expertise In security theory the study of expertise is crucial to understanding whose knowledge informs security making and to reflect on the impact and responsibility of security analysis In science and technology studies the study of security politics adds a challenging new case to the agenda of research on expertise and policy The contributors investigate cases such as academic security studies security think tanks the collaboration between science anthropology and the military transnational terrorism and the ethical consequences of security expertise Together they challenge our understanding of how expertise works and what consequences it has for security politics and international relations This book will be of particular interest to students of critical security studies sociology science and technology studies and IR security studies in general Pacific Regional

Order Dave Peebles, 2005-10-01 New policies are needed if the Pacific is to realise its potential as a peaceful prosperous region where the Pacific's citizens enjoy good standards of health and education long lives and many opportunities where Pacific economic growth is constantly improving driven by environmentally sustainable service industries where coups civil conflict and the dangers of failed states have been relegated to the past where the Pacific is integrated into the wider region and is an influential voice in world affairs Argues that Pacific countries including Australia need to embrace regional integration to realise this vision The book sets out a comprehensive plan for realising a Pacific regional community dedicated to promoting sustainable development security human rights the rule of law and democracy Food Security and Nutrition Charis M. Galanakis, 2020-10-17 Food and nutrition security identified via availability access utilization and stability and transitions to sustainable food systems are major discourses in the agro food arena as many countries today experience different forms of malnutrition simultaneously such as child undernutrition anemia among women and adult obesity Meanwhile the triple burden of malnutrition undernutrition overnutrition and micronutrient deficiency is still widespread Food Security and Nutrition explores integrated context specific approaches to food security challenges emphasizing nutrition security as an integral component and addressing the implications of food content to food and nutrition security policies Providing insight into these challenges through agricultural policy nutritional geographic and sustainability lenses Food Security and Nutrition is a valuable reference for food scientists and nutrition researchers working in food supply food security and nutrition security and policy makers investors and other decision makers seeking to address food insecurity around the world Addresses nutrition security as part of the overall challenge of food security Explores contributing factors that impact both food and nutrition security Presents insights into effective policy development and implementation China in the Indian Ocean Region—India's Security Challenges (Reprint, 2024) Sidda

Goud, 2023-03-21 Indian Ocean third largest Ocean in the world surpasses the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans Being world's most populated Region one third of the world's bulk cargo and two thirds of world's oil ship tankers passes through the Indian Ocean China's interests in the Indian Ocean Region can be traced and backed by early 60's Ever since Beijing has been increasingly deepening its presence in the Indian Ocean Region for a variety of reasons such as oil trade and security etc Over 30 per cent of China's seaborne trade worth about 300 billion transits across Indian Ocean Region Sharing a quarter of the world's population China facing ever increasing demand for energy China has little choice but to look beyond its borders for its energy requirements Around 77 percent of its oil imports are sourced from West Asia and Africa and these are transporting through the Indian Ocean via Malacca Strait Thus China's dependency on Indian Ocean Region continues to grow for energy imports from gulf and to import resources from Africa and trade with Europe With China steadily spreading its footprints in the IOR with increasing military presence and with rapidly growing its navy being equipped with warships destroyers and nuclear submarines through a strategy called String of Pearls which can encircle India in its convenient time in the near future So China has been emerging as biggest threat for India by analyzing its actions in the Indian Ocean Region and along with India China border from Easter Ladakh to Arunachal Pradesh as stand off continues since June 2020 Asia Pacific Security Jawhar Hassan,Vincent Lim,2002 Regional Security in the Asia Pacific Marika Vicziany,David P. Wright-Neville,Peter Lentini,2004-03-25 The September 2001 terrorist attacks shocked the world But what did they change In this book Asia specialists from academe and policy think tanks assess the impact of 9 11 on the Asia Pacific Drawing on unique fieldwork access to a wide range of documents and inside expertise the authors consider how old geo strategic and cultural fault lines have been overlaid with new security threats from state and non state actors With chapters on specific countries and regions defense policies terrorism and current and potential conflict zones this collection critically examines the Asia Pacific region s post 9 11 as well as post Iraq war security architecture Global Food Security Zhang-Yue Zhou,2019-12-06 This book looks at food security from a socio economic perspective It offers a detailed and systematic examination of food security from its historical backgrounds concepts and measurements to the determinants and approaches to achieve food security The book also introduces the key challenges and root causes of food insecurity Through country specific cases the book highlights instances of both successful and disastrous national food security management and their outcomes The invaluable learning experiences of these countries shed light on food security practices and the straightforward demand supply framework effectively guides readers in understanding food security issues This is an essential resource for anyone who is keen to learn more about food security particularly researchers and university students who are new to the field The book endeavours to help us reflect on the current phenomenon and strategize better for the future
