From the Heart J. A Commentary on the Gospel of John David Pawson, 2015-06-24 John is a remarkable Gospel utterly different from the other three It reflects the unique insights of the man who was closest to Jesus while he was on earth and is full of concern that we should not just know about what Jesus did but should also realize who he was It reflects too John s burden the believers in Jesus should not be side tracked by erroneous teaching whether concerning Jesus identity or the veracity of his claims He wanted believers to be absolutely sure that eyewitnesses Jesus own words and his astonishing works all point to one who was truly God come in the flesh the living Word the very glory of God among humanity John s collected evidence and proof all make the most compelling testimony to Jesus right to demand our on going trust and obedience

 1952 and 1963 which established his reputation as the major post World War II German language poet Celan a Bukovinian Jew who lived through the Holocaust created work that displays both great lyric power and an uncanny ability to pinpoint totalitarian cultural and political tendencies His quest however is not only reflective there is in Celan s writing a profound need and desire to create a new inhabitable world and a new language for it In Memory Rose into Threshold Speech Celan s reader witnesses his poetry which starts lush with surrealistic imagery become gradually pared down its syntax tightens and his trademark neologisms and word formations increase toward a polysemic language of great accuracy that tries in the poet s
