A Morphological Interpretation of a Northern Chinese Traditional Village Kun Li, 2024-04-23. This book challenges the definition of a new approach for integrating protection and enhancing the Chinese heritage category of Traditional Villages. By applying a specific case study in the Hancheng context, Shaanxi Province, which lacks sound studies, the book formulates new theoretical prerequisites for future researches and an in-depth knowledge path and sound methodological principles. By working in a multiple scales approach, the object of preservation and enhancement is first of all redefined in its ontology as a unity formed by the courtyard type, the morphology of the village, and the related landscape structures. All these three levels of study have been deeply investigated, put into the relationship, and resulting in a new methodology which overcomes the inadequacy and ineffectiveness of the notion of setting deriving from conservation Charters to embrace the structural notion of context and a knowledge approach to rural settlements. The innovative and original features of this book are both in the reading villages in their landscape dimension, which in turn is studied as a context made of several interrelated structures. Another original feature of the book is the integration of Italian historic structural and morphological methodologies with specific Chinese cultural aspects. The author's work dug deeply and interdisciplinary in all those dimensions to account for the complex issues that are related and embodied in both the physical and intangible meaning of human settlements, opening a novel scientific methodology for Chinese studies as a sound base to define three key integrated project actions: what, why, how to preserve, enhance, develop.

Origins of Ancient Chinese Civilization Xueqin Li, 2024-07-24. This book presents detailed research regarding the Xia, Shang, and Zhou dynasties, including studies of inscriptions on bones or tortoise shells, bronzeware, bamboo scripts, and silk manuscripts in order to demonstrate the main features of various historical periods during the establishment and development of ancient Chinese civilization based on an overall view of ancient Chinese civilization studies as a whole. The book consists of three sections with a total of 38 essays. The first section provides a macro-level overview of the formation and development history of ancient Chinese civilization; the second section, covering general topics, examines the specific characteristics of early Chinese civilization from Emperors Yan and Huang to the Eastern Zhou Dynasty. Lastly, the appendix features 7 articles, including a short biography of the author.

Intimate China: the Chinese as I Have Seen Them MRS ARCHIBALD. LITTLE, 2020-08-04. Reproduction of the original Intimate China: the Chinese as I Have Seen Them by Mrs Archibald Little. Rehabilitating the Old City of Beijing Liangyong Wu, 2011-11-01. Seventy years of revolution and turmoil have had a severe impact on the miraculous ancient urban form of Beijing, but economic growth since the early 1990s has threatened to deal the coup de grace. In Rehabilitating the Old City of Beijing, Wu Liangyong presents an impassioned plea to turn the tide of demolition and offers a new direction for the planning and development of China's capital. Wu, a student and colleague of China's first architectural historian Liang Sicheng, is a champion of the human scaled development and a voice for conservation But above all he is an architect and it is through his own projects built and unbuilt that he advocates a more humane vision of the city Wu's project for the renewal of the Ju'er Hutong Chrysanthemum Lane neighbourhood in the heart of Beijing's Old City takes pride of place in this book A thoughtful analysis of those aspects of the ancient capital's features which the project aims to respect and conserve is followed by a detailed account of the design and development process of the project itself Architectural drawings and photographs of the completed project and data on the neighbourhood's resident population present the state of the art in Chinese residential design and planning a field that is deeply challenged by reforms sweeping through the entire economy and society of the country Urban historians conservationists planners and architectural scholars and practitioners interested in Chinese cities or in any of the world's great capitals will want to read this book
