Gesture of Writing Jonathan Wyatt,2018-12-07 Therapy Stand Up and the Gesture of Writing is a sharp lively exploration of the connections between therapy stand up comedy and writing as a method of inquiry and of how these connections can be theorized through the author s new concept creative relational inquiry Engaging often poignant stories combine with rich scholarship to offer the reader provocative original insights Wyatt writes about his work as a therapist with his client Karl as they meet and talk together He tells stories of his experiences attending comedy shows in Edinburgh and of his own occasional performances He brings alive the everyday profound through vignettes and poems of work travel visiting his mother mourning his late father and more The book s drive however is in bringing together therapy stand up and writing as a method of inquiry to mobilise theory drawing in particular from Deleuze and Guattari the new materialisms and affect theory Through this diffractive work the text formulates and develops creative relational inquiry With its combination of fluent story telling and smart theoretical propositions Therapy Stand up and the Gesture of Writing offers compelling possibilities both for qualitative scholars who have an interest in narrative performative and embodied scholarship and those who desire to bring current complex theories to bear upon their research practices Teaching Seeing and Writing Anne Kress,Suellyn

Winkle,2000 ICONECT 2019 Murtono,Moh Kanzunnudin,Fina Fakhriyah ,Ratri Rahayu,Robbi Rahim, The complex problems of education and technological development and information demands then takes its main innovations in learning The purpose of this Education is Innovation in order to improve the quality effectiveness efficiency relevance and productivity making the learning process more meaningful and fun for children Innovation can be performed in all subjects learning methods media and evaluation Innovation based learning local culture values will yield the superior character that will benefit children in the face of a globalized world So is innovation technology based learning make learning be fun so that children become active and creative ideas thoughts research related to the innovation of education can be presented in International Conference Education Culture and technology is preferred The theme of this Conference Innovation of Education to Improve Character Value for Childern Writing as Learning Andrew Rothstein,Evelyn Rothstein,Gerald Lauber,2006-12-13 Using 12 step by step strategies teachers can help students build a rich vocabulary gain a deep understanding of concepts and develop organized thinking processes Virtual Collaborative Writing in the Workplace: Computer-Mediated Communication Technologies and Processes Hewett, Beth L.,Robidoux, Charlotte,2010-06-30 This book investigates the use of computer mediated communication technologies and collaborative processes to facilitate effective interdependent collaboration in writing projects especially in virtual workplace settings Provided by publisher State of New York Supreme Court Appellate Division Fourth Department , The Camera-Eye Metaphor in Cinema Christian Quendler,2016-11-18 This book explores the cultural intellectual and artistic fascination with camera eye metaphors in film culture of the twentieth century By studying the very metaphor that cinema lives by it provides a rich and insightful map of our understanding of cinema and film styles and shows how cinema shapes our understanding of the arts and media As current new media technologies are attempting to shift the identity of cinema and moving imagery it is hard to overstate the importance of this metaphor for our understanding of the modalities of vision In what guises does the camera eye continue to survive in media that is called new The Ethics of Seeing Jennifer Evans,Paul Betts,Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann,2018-01-09 Throughout Germany s tumultuous twentieth century photography was an indispensable form of documentation Whether acting as artists witnesses or reformers both professional and amateur photographers chronicled social worlds through successive periods of radical upheaval The Ethics of Seeing brings together an international group of scholars to explore the complex relationship between the visual and the historic in German history Emphasizing the transformation of the visual arena and the ways in which ordinary people made sense of world events these revealing case studies illustrate photography s multilayered role as a new form of representation a means to subjective experience and a fresh mode of narrating the past

Telling Stories Jenn Fishman,Amy C. Kimme Hea,2023-07-23 In Telling Stories more than a dozen longitudinal writing researchers look beyond conventional project findings to story their work and in doing so offer otherwise unavailable glimpses into the logics and logistics of long range studies of writing The result is a volume that centers interrelations among people places and politics across two decades of praxis and an array of educational sites two year colleges a senior military college an adult literacy center a small liberal arts college and both public and private four year universities Contributors share direct knowledge of longitudinal writing research citing project data e g interview transcripts research notes and journals descriptions drawn from memory and extended personal reflections The resulting stories tempered by the research and scholarship of others convey a sense of longitudinal research as a lived activity as well as a prominent and consequential approach to inquiry Yet Telling Stories is not a how to guide nor is it written for longitudinal researchers alone Instead this volume addresses issues about writing research that are germane to all who conduct or count on it Such topics include building and sustaining good interpersonal research relations ethically negotiating the institutional power dynamics that undergird writing research effectively using knowledge from longitudinal studies to advocate for writers and writing educators and improving both conceptual and concrete resources for long range research in writing studies
