Seeing Films Politically Mas'ud Zavarzadeh, 1991-02-19 In this bold political rethinking of contemporary film theory Zavarzadeh overturns the dominant concepts that fetishize film as a work of art or simple entertainment He demonstrates how aesthetic notions obscure the ideological effects produced by viewing films particularly the production of the spectator as the subject of social class Seeing films he argues is part of the political struggle over cultural intelligibilities subjectivities and representations One of the book's analytical innovations is its concept of renarrating a reading strategy that displays the logic of the film showing that it is not so much a unique aesthetic articulation as it is the common logic of the dominant ideology In a series of brilliant readings of recent films the book constructs a critical space for the reader to not only see the culturally visible tale of the film the one that legitimates the existing reality the status quo but also to see the other suppressed tale that de narrates the social contradictions arising from exploitation and class rule Seeing Films

Griffin, 2014-10-17 Why has a nineteenth century author with an elitist reputation proved so popular with directors as varied as William Wyler François Truffaut and James Ivory A partial answer lies in the way many of Henry James's recurring themes still haunt us the workings of power the position of women in society the complexities of sexuality and desire Susan Griffin has assembled fifteen of the world's foremost authorities on Henry James to examine both the impact of James on film and the impact of film on James Anthony Mazella traces the various adaptations of The Turn of the Screw from novel to play to opera to film Peggy McCormack examines the ways the personal lives of Peter Bogdanovich and then girlfriend Cybill Shepherd influenced critical reaction to Daisy Miller 1974 Leland Person points out the consequences of casting Christopher Reeve then better known as Superman in The Bostonians 1984 during the conservative political context of the first Reagan presidency Nancy Bentley defends Jane Campion's anachronistic reading of Portrait of a Lady 1996 as being more authentic than the more common period costume dramas Dale Bauer observes James's influence on such films as Next Stop Wonderland 1998 and Notting Hill 1999 Marc Bousquet explores the ways Wings of the Dove 1997 addresses the economic and cultural situations of Gen X viewers Other fascinating essays as well as a complete filmography and bibliography of work on James and film round out the collection State University of New York Research ,1991-05 Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts 1991 Library of Congress,New York Public Library Theatre & Drama,1992 Discourse ,1992 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1975 New York Magazine ,1985-05-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1970-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world The Philosopher's Index ,1995 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts
