Seeing Is Believing Visions Of Life Through Film:

Seeing is Believing Robert Benne, 1998-10-29 Seeing is Believing demonstrates that serious dramatic films usually express deeply running visions of life designated as Christian Greek American or skeptical The author provides a narrative analysis that investigates these deep structures the mythic elements embedded in the films while paying close attention to the comprehensive meaning of the whole film not just the themes or implications that may be identified in the film's discrete parts His analysis introduces a new and exciting method of film interpretation that developed succinctly through a narrative style that shows how the concepts are applied to films relying more on understanding than memorization The author also includes appendices that list effective questions for use in discussing movies and a list of movies that work well with the book's method of analysis

Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur, 2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A-Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today's viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing, 2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film the religious significance of film technique Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation Downing cites Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film

Ordinary Saints Robert Benne,2003-06-18 Theologian and ethicist Robert Benne addresses the Christian life in its religious and moral dimensions by writing about the vocation of the Christian in daily life With clarity and authority he discusses Christian identity the call of God moral development and marriage and family life among other topics This fully revised edition includes a study guide for use in classrooms and church study groups Seeing Is Believing Richard Vance Goodwin,2022-07-19 In this study in IVP Academic s STA series theologian Richard Goodwin considers how the images that constitute film might be a conduit of God s revelation By considering works by Stanley Kubrik Martin Scorsese Terrence Malick and more Goodwin argues that by inviting emotional responses film images can be a medium of divine revelation

Theology and the Films of Terrence Malick Christopher B. Barnett,Clark J. Elliston,2016-08-12 Terrence Malick is one of the most important and controversial filmmakers of the last few decades Yet his renown does not stem from box office receipts but rather from his inimitable cinematic vision that mixes luminous shots of nature dreamlike voiceovers and plots centered on enduring existential questions Although scholars have thoroughly examined Malick s background in philosophy they have been slower to respond to his theological concerns This volume is the first to focus on the ways in which Malick integrates theological inquiries and motifs into his films The book begins with an exploration of Malick s career as a filmmaker and shows how his Heideggerian interests relate to theology Further essays from established and up and coming scholars analyze seven of Malick s most prominent films Badlands 1973 Days of Heaven 1978 The Thin Red Line 1998 The New World 2005 The Tree of Life 2011 To the Wonder 2012 and Knight of Cups 2015 to show how his cinematic techniques point toward and overlap with principles of Christian theology A thorough study of an iconic filmmaker this book is an essential resource for students and scholars in the emerging field of religion and film Seeing and Believing Margaret Ruth Miles,1997-09-04 Enriched by a cultural studies approach a deep understanding of religion and history and a love for the movies Seeing and Believing explores what popular films of the 1980s and 1990s say about religion and the values by which we live

100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A.
