Seeing Tomorrow Ron S. Dembo, Andrew Freeman, 1998 Ron S Dembo has developed an analysis that can be applied to almost any decision whether it s a matter of placing a bet on a horse buying a house or at the most exalted level managing the investment activities of an international bank In Seeing Tomorrow Dembo together with Economist staffer Andrew Freeman lays out a new set of concepts and principles that anyone can use to guard against the unforeseen Regulation and the Evolution of the Global Telecommunications Industry Anastassios Gentzoglanis, Anders Henten, 2010-01-01

After decades of liberalization of the telecommunications industry around the world and technological convergence that allows for increasing competition sector specific regulation of telecommunications has been on the decline As a result the telecommunications industry stands in the middle of a debate that calls for either a total deregulation of access to broadband infrastructures or a separation of infrastructure from service delivery This book proposes new approaches to dealing with the current and future issues of regulation of telecommunication markets on both a regional and a global scale This volume represents a valuable compendium of ideas regarding global trends in the telecommunications industry that focus on market and regulatory issues and company strategies With an international cast of contributors Regulation and the Evolution of the Global Telecommunications Industry also provides insight into topics including mobile Internet development structural function and separation global experiences with next generation networks technology convergence and the role of regulation and the regulatory impact on the balance between static and dynamic efficiencies The empirical evidence and experiences presented here illustrate the diversity of thoughts and research that characterize this important area of academic and business research Thus it will be a critical reference for scholars and students of regulatory economics policy and finance and researchers and administrators of the telecom industry Seeing Tomorrow Ron Dembo, Andrew Freeman, 1999-04-01
