Selected African American Writing 1760 191:

African Americans and the Haitian Revolution Maurice Jackson, Jacqueline Bacon, 2013-09-13 Bringing together scholarly essays and helpfully annotated primary documents African Americans and the Haitian Revolution collects not only the best recent scholarship on the subject but also showcases the primary texts written by African Americans about the Haitian Revolution Rather than being about the revolution itself this collection attempts to show how the events in Haiti served to galvanize African Americans to think about themselves and to act in accordance with their beliefs and contributes to the study of African Americans in the wider Atlantic World African Americans and the Classics Margaret Malamud, 2019-01-24 A new wave of research in black classicism has emerged in the 21st century that explores the role played by the classics in the larger cultural traditions of black America Africa and the Caribbean Addressing a gap in this scholarship Margaret Malamud investigates why and how advocates for abolition and black civil rights both black and white deployed their knowledge of classical literature and history in their struggle for black liberty and equality in the United States African Americans boldly staked their own claims to the classical world they deployed texts ideas and images of ancient Greece Rome and Egypt in order to establish their authority in debates about slavery race politics and education A central argument of this book is that knowledge and deployment of Classics was a powerful weapon and tool for resistance as improbable as that might seem now when wielded by black and white activists committed to the abolition of slavery and the end of the social and economic oppression of free blacks The book significantly expands our understanding of both black history and classical reception in the United States A Richard Wright Bibliography Kenneth Kinnamon, Joseph Benson, Michel Fabre, Craig Werner, 1988-01-13 Any future biographical work on Richard Wright will find this bibliography a necessity academic or public libraries supporting a program of black culture will find it invaluable and it belongs in any library supporting American literature studies Richard Wright has truly been well served Choice The most comprehensive bibliography ever compiled for an American writer this book contains 13 117 annotated items pertaining to Richard Wright It includes almost all published mentions of the author or his work in every language in which those mentions appear Sources listed include books articles reviews notes news items publishers catalogs promotional materials book jackets dissertations and theses encyclopedias biographical dictionaries handbooks and study guides library reports best seller charts the Index Translationum playbills and advertisements editorials radio transcripts and published letters and interviews The bibliography is arranged chronologically by year Each entry includes bibliographical information an annotation by the authors and information about all reprintings partial or full The index is unusually complete and contains the titles of Wright's works real and fictional characters in the works entries relating to significant places and events in the author's life important literary terminology and much additional information A Guide to Sources in Black Studies in the Pennsylvania State University Libraries Deborah C. Black Conservatism Peter Eisenstadt, 2013-09-13 This volume is the first comprehensive examination of African American conservative thought and politics from the late eighteenth century to the present The essays in the collection explore various aspects of African American conservatism including biographical studies of abolitionist James Forten clergymen Henry McNeal Turner and J H Jackson and activists A Philip Randolph and Bayard Rustin Thematic essays in the volume consider southern black conservatism in the late nineteenth century and after World War I African American success manuals Ellisonian cultural criticism the Nation of Islam and African Americans and the Republican Party after 1964

The Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 1997 This the first comprehensive one volume reference work devoted to African American literature contains much information on little known writers unavailable elsewhere The book covers all types of genre and examines unique aspects of Afro Americanism

The Poetics of Difference Mecca Jamilah Sullivan, 2021-10-19 Winner of the Modern Language Association MLA's William Sanders Scarborough Prize From Audre Lorde Ntozake Shange and Bessie Head to Zanele Muholi Suzan Lori Parks and Missy Elliott Black women writers and artists across the African Diaspora have developed nuanced and complex creative forms Mecca Jamilah Sullivan ventures into the unexplored spaces of black women's queer creative theorizing to learn its languages and read the textures of its forms Moving beyond fixed notions Sullivan points to a space of queer imagination where black women invent new languages spaces and genres to speak the many names of difference Black women's literary cultures have long theorized the complexities surrounding nation and class the indeterminacy of gender and race and the multiple meanings of sexuality Yet their ideas and work remain obscure in the face of indifference from Western scholarship Innovative and timely The Poetics of Difference illuminates understudied queer contours of black women's writing

Songs of Zion James T. Campbell, 1995-09-07 This is a study of the transplantation of a creed devised by and for African Americans the African Methodist Episcopal Church that was appropriated and transformed in a variety of South African contexts Focusing on a transatlantic institution like the African Methodist Episcopal Church the book studies the complex human and intellectual traffic that has bound African American and South African experience It explores the development and growth of the African Methodist Episcopal Church both in South Africa and America and the interaction between the two churches This is a highly innovative work of comparative and religious history Its linking of the United States and African black religious experiences is unique and makes it appealing to readers interested in religious history and black experience in both the United States and South Africa
