Selected Critical Writings:

Selected Critical Writings David Herbert Lawrence, 1998 A critic must be able to feel the impact of a work of art in all its complexity and force To do so he must be a man of force and complexity himself A critic must be emotionally alive in every fibre intellectually capable and skilful in essential logic and then morally very honest These comments by D H Lawrence are as close a description as any of himself as a critic They come from his essay on fellow novelist John Galsworthy and there are many other pieces on novels and novelists in this selection But Lawrence's range of genres extends to poetry and plays and paintings and his critical writing encompasses an enormous variety of subjects from Aeschylus and the Apocalypse to symbolism and syphilis for his interests are philosophical psychological religious moral sociological historical and cultural as well as literary and artistic This selection is a treasure trove of thought adventures by one of literature's liveliest critical spirits

Selected Critical Writings of George Santayana George Santayana, 1968 Selected Critical Writings, 1998 Richard Aldington: Selected Critical Writings, 1928-1960 Richard Aldington, 1970 Alister Kershaw Aldington's closest friend from 1947 until his death in 1962 here presents ten trenchant and refreshing essays not previously published in book form by perhaps the last of the great literary critics to come to grips with the jubilant illiteracy of these times In his highly personal and reflective Introduction Kershaw discusses Aldington's deep involvement in life the catholicity of his interests and his considerable erudition which gave his writing an unusual quality of spontaneity and eloquence Selected Critical Writings George Santayana, 1968 Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods Selected critical writings, 1928-1960, ed Richard Aldington, Selected Critical Writings Vol 2 Santayana, 1968-09-02 George Santayana 1863-1952 was one of the leading philosophers of his era His range of interests was wide in addition to books and essays on philosophical subjects he wrote literary criticism of the first rank cultural criticism that remained fresh and valid up to the time of this book's publication in 1968 and autobiographical works which reveal a man of great charm with a deep interest and affection for his acquaintances This two volume selection of Santayana's writing is exceptionally comprehensive the editor has been careful to provide passages which adequately illustrate Santayana's views on a wide variety of subjects and his selection includes essays and excerpts from books that had long been unavailable Volume two contains selections of cultural and social criticism and philosophical writing Diversity and Depth in Fiction Angus Wilson,1984 Includes information on Jane Austen Emma Mansfield Park Northanger Abbey Persuasion Pride and Prejudice Sandition Sense an Sensibility Albert Camus Caligula La Chute L Etranger Joseph Conrad Heart of Darkness Lord Jim Nostromo The Secret Agent Under Western Eyes Charles Dickens Bleak House The Chimes David Copperfield Dombey and Son Great Expectations Hard Times Little Dorrit Martin Chuzzlewit Nicolas Nickleby The Old Curiosity Shop Oliver Twist Pickwick Papers Pictures from Italy George Eliot Daniel Deronda Felix Holt Middlemarch The Mill on the Floss Scenes of Clerical Life Gustave Flaubert Bouvard et Pecuchet etc Selected Critical Writings; Ed. by N Henfrey George Santayana,1968 Selected Critical Writings; Ed. by N Henfrey George Santayana,1968 Selected essays and critical writings Alfred R. Jones Edmund David Jones,1922 Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow,2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment

British Women's Writing from Brontë to Bloomsbury, Volume 1 Adrienne E. Gavin, Carolyn W. de la L. Oulton, 2018-07-31 This five volume series British Women's Writing From Brontë to Bloomsbury 1840-1940 historically contextualizes and traces developments in women's fiction from 1840 to 1940 Critically assessing both canonical and lesser known British women's writing decade by decade it redefines the landscape of women's authorship across a century of dynamic social and cultural change With each of its volumes devoted to two decades the series is wide in scope but historically sharply defined Volume 1 1840s and 1850s inaugurates the series by historically and culturally contextualizing Victorian women's writing distinctly within the 1840s and 1850s Using a range of critical perspectives including political and literary history feminist approaches disability studies and the history of reading the volume's 16 original essays consider such developments as the construction of a post Romantic tradition the politicization of the domestic sphere and the development of crime and sensation writing Centrally it reassesses key mid nineteenth century female authors in the context in which they first published while also recovering neglected women writers who helped to shape the literary landscape of the 1840s and 1850s

Victorian Structures Jody Griffith, 2020-03-01 Although Victorian novels often feature lengthy descriptions of the buildings where characters live work and pray we may not always notice the stories these buildings tell But when we do pay attention we find these buildings offer more than evocative background settings Victorian Structures uses the architectural writings of Victorian critic John Ruskin as a framework for examining the interaction of physical social and narrative structures in Little Dorrit by Charles Dickens Adam Bede by George Eliot and The Mayor of Casterbridge and Jude the Obscure by Thomas Hardy By closely reading their descriptions of architectural structure this book reconsiders structure itself both the social structures the novels reflect and the narrative structures they employ Weaving together analysis of these three kinds of structure offers an interpretation of Victorian realism that is far more socially and formally unstable than critics have tended to assume It illustrates how these novels radically critique the limitations dysfunctions and deceptions of structure while also imagining alternative possibilities This unique interdisciplinary approach emphasizes structure in time while current conversations about structure focus on its static and fixed properties this book understands it as various forces in tension producing meanings that are always in flux Victorian Structures focuses not only on the way structures shape our perceptions and experiences but also more importantly on the processes through which those structures come to be constructed in the first place and how they change over time

Life as Insinuation Katarzyna Krempleska, 2019-04-16 In this book Katarzyna Krempleska offers a thorough analysis of Santayana's conception of human self viewed as part of his larger philosophy of life. Santayana emerges as an author of a provocative philosophy of drama in which human life is acted out. Krempleska demonstrates how his thought addresses the dynamics of human self in this context and the possibility of sustaining self integrity while coping with the limitations of finite life. Focusing on particular aspects of Santayana's thought such as his conception of the tragic aspect of existence and the role of the doctrine of spirit in his philosophical anthropology and critique of culture, this book also sets Santayana's thought in substantial dialogue with other thinkers such as Heidegger, Bergson, and Nietzsche. Like Santayana's philosophy, this book seeks to build passages between theoretical reflection and practical life with the possibility of a good life in view.
