Nature Mysticism John Edward Mercer, 2019-11-26 In Nature Mysticism John Edward Mercer embarks on an intellectual exploration of the profound connections between nature and the human experience The book is characterized by its lyrical prose and philosophical depth weaving together elements of mysticism ecology and spirituality Mercer draws upon a rich tapestry of literary traditions from Romantic poets to contemporary environmental thinkers to illustrate how nature can serve as a conduit for transcendental insights Each chapter invites readers to contemplate their own relationship with the natural world inviting an experiential understanding that transcends mere observation Mercer an accomplished essayist and scholar of comparative literature has spent years studying the intersection of literature and environmental philosophy His background in both Western and Eastern mystical traditions informs his writing allowing him to synthesize complex ideas in a manner that is both accessible and thought provoking This dual perspective has led him to appreciate the timelessness of nature s influence on human consciousness and the essential role it plays in shaping our spiritual lives For readers seeking a deeper connection with the natural world and a richer understanding of the mystical dimensions of life Nature Mysticism is an essential read Mercer s thoughtful examination challenges us to reconsider our place within the ecosystem inspiring readers not only to reflect on their experiences but also to engage actively with the wonders of the world around them

Jung and his Mystics John Dourley, 2014-04-03 Jung s psychology describes the origin of the Gods and their religions in terms of the impact of archetypal powers on consciousness For Jung this impact is the basis of the numinous the experience of the divine in nature and in human nature His psychology while possessed of a certain claim to science is based on depths of subjective experience which transcends psychology and science as ordinarily understood Jung and his Mystics In the end it all comes to nothing examines the mythic nature of Jung's psychology and thought and demonstrates the influence of mysticism and certain religious thinkers in formulating his own work John P Dourley explores the influence of Mechthild of Magdeburg and fellow mystics Beguines and traces the mystic impulse and its expression through Meister Eckhart and Jacob Boehme to Hegel in the nineteenth century All of these mystics were of the apophatic school and understood the culmination of their experience to lie in an identity with divinity in a nothingness beyond all form formal expression or immediate activity Dourley shows how this is still of relevance in our lives today The book concludes that Jung's understanding of mysticism could greatly alleviate the conflict between faiths religious or political by drawing attention to their common origin in the depths of the human Jung and his Mystics In the end it all comes to nothing is aimed at scholars and senior research students in Jungian Studies including religionists theologians and philosophers of religion especially those with an interest in mysticism It will also be essential reading for those interested in the connection between religious and psychological experience

The Philosophy of Mysticism Edward Ingram Watkin, 1920 Christian Mysticism Harvey D. Egan SJ, 1998-09-16 Christian mysticism is unique in its view of Jesus death and resurrection as the very cause and exemplar of the mystical life in all its purity Jesus saving death on the cross exemplifies the mystical letting go of everything consoling tangible and finite in order to surrender totally to the mystery of the Father's unconditional love In this introduction to Christian mysticism Reverend Harvey Egan S J presents four Christian mystics as paradigms of the classical tradition St Ignatius of Loyola St Teresa of Avila St John of the Cross and the unknown author of the Cloud of Unknowing From this foundation he moves to two contemporary figures Thomas Merton and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin each of whom reflects a contemporary transposition of the two mystical traditions the apophatic which emphasizes the radical difference between God and creatures and the kataphatic which emphasizes the similarity between God and creatures

Indigenous Sacred Natural Sites and Spiritual Governance John Studley, 2018-10-26 Since time immemorial indigenous people have engaged in legal relationships with other than human persons These relationships are exemplified in enspirited sacred natural sites which are owned and governed by numina spirits that can potentially place legal demands on humankind in return for protection and blessing Although conservationists recognise the biodiverse significance of most sacred natural sites the role of spiritual agency by other than human persons is not well understood. Consequently sacred natural sites typically lack legal status and IUCN designated protection. More recent ecocentric and posthuman worldviews and polycentric legal frameworks have allowed courts and legislatures to grant rights to nature and juristic personhood and standing to biophysical entities. This book examines the indigenous literature and recent legal cases as a pretext for granting juristic personhood to enspirited sacred natural sites. The author draws on two decades of his research among Tibetans in Kham southwest China to provide a detailed case study. It is argued that juristic personhood is contingent upon the presence and agency of a resident numina and that recognition should be given to their role in spiritual governance over their jurisdiction. The book concludes by recommending that advocacy organisations help indigenous people with test cases to secure standing for threatened sacred natural sites (SNS) and calls upon IUCN, UNESCO, MAB and WHS, ASEAN Heritage and EuroNatura to retrospectively re-designate their properties, reserves, parks and initiatives so that SNS and spiritual governance are fully recognised and embraced. It will be of great interest to advanced students and researchers in environmental law, nature conservation, religion and anthropology.

Western Mysticism Butler, 2012-10-12. A renewed interest in the spiritual with an increasing number of people today wishing to incorporate the contemplative in their active lives prompts the reissue of this classic work, a doctrine that is at once elevated and practical. The writings are meant to be studied from three distinct points of view: religious philosophy, material for the study of those states between mind and body such as ecstasy and trance, and for the sake of their mysticism. Drawn from the writings and teachings of Saint Augustine, Saint Gregory and Saint Bernard, the writings form a coordinated body of doctrine with what three great teachers of mystical theology in the Western Church have written concerning their own religious experience and the theories they based on it. In addition, the book discusses such important topics as speculative contemplation, what mysticism is, the characteristics of Western mysticism, the practical and the contrasts between the contemplative and active lives. No student of mysticism can possibly afford to neglect a volume so full of valuable suggestions and real insight into spiritual conditions.
