New York Visions Struggles Voices:

Struggles for Equal Voice Yuya Kiuchi, 2012-11-01 Reveals how African Americans used cable television as a means of empowerment While previous scholarship on African Americans and the media has largely focused on issues such as stereotypes and program content Struggles for Equal Voice reveals how African Americans have utilized access to cable television production and viewership as a significant step toward achieving empowerment during the postCivil Rights and Black Power era In this pioneering study of two metropolitan districts Boston and Detroit Yuya Kiuchi paints a rich and fascinating historical account of African Americans working with municipal offices local politicians cable service providers and other interested parties to realize fair African American representation and media ownership Their success provides a useful lesson of community organizing image production education and grassroots political action that remains relevant and applicable even today

Voices and Visions of Aging Robert Kastenbaum, PhD, Thomas R. Cole, PhD, W. Andrew Achenbaum, PhD, Patricia L. Jakobi, PhD, 1992-11-15 A critical gerontology requires more than a simple elaboration of existing humanistic scholarship on aging This exceptional new work introduces a basis for genuine dialogue across humanistic scientific and professional disciplines Among the topics addressed are industrial employment retirement life styles of older women and biological research From philosophical reflections on the third age to critical perspectives on institutional adaptations to an aging society this book presents a wide range of provocative thought

Dissenting Voices in American Society Austin Sarat, 2012-01-31 Dissenting Voices in American Society The Role of Judges Lawyers and Citizens explores the status of dissent in the work and lives of judges lawyers and citizens and in our institutions and culture It brings together under the lens of critical examination dissenting voices that are usually treated separately the protester the academic critic the intellectual and the dissenting judge It examines the forms of dissent that institutions make possible and those that are discouraged or domesticated This book also describes the kinds of stories that dissenting voices try to tell and the narrative tropes on which those stories depend This book is the product of an integrated series of symposia at the University of Alabama School of Law These symposia bring leading scholars into colloquy with faculty at the law school on subjects at the cutting edge of interdisciplinary inquiry in law

Activist Hermeneutics of Liberation and the Bible Jin Young Choi, Gregory L. Cuéllar, 2023-02-08 Inspired by the current political moment around the globe in which uprisings protests revolutions and movements are on the rise this book examines the intersections between the Bible and activism It does this by showcasing intersectional readings of the Bible as an activist act and a tool for activism historicizing the uses of the Bible within activist freedom movements around the globe and offering activist approaches to teaching the Bible Each chapter in this volume provides a critical and substantive response from the discipline of Biblical Studies to global political trends International in scope with contributors from Africa Asia the Caribbean Europe Latin America Oceania South Africa and the United States they address themes such as gender politics racial injustices violence toward women political resistance and activist hermeneutics and pedagogies Together they harness the intellectual energies of minoritized Biblical scholars in a nonessentialist manner to reflect on the Bible as a tool for liberating social and political change Reflecting on the activist potential of the Bible this book will be of keen interest to scholars in Biblical Studies Political Theology and Religious Studies
