Next To Nothing:

Next to Nothing James Champion, 2024-11-12 A lesser known tradition in theology the apophatic has resurfaced in our time Simply stated this tradition has long recognized that discussion of what God is not is central to theological discernment The apophatic emphasis on giving the negative its due has been rediscovered and enlarged today in several ways Above all this theological orientation warrants our radical questioning and honors the importance of doubt It also leads us to greater awareness of our hidden fears of loss and of the costs of our unconscious flight from death At the same time it can open the door to new perceptions of what lay persons as well as theologians such as Eckhart and Tillich have understood as our deepest relationship to the God beyond God This development is significant for those in progressive faith communities for those who call themselves spiritual but not religious and those who assume that religion and spirituality have no place in their lives
