Nora loves everything about Paris from the Eiffel Tower to chocolate chaud. Of course she's never actually been there; she's only visited through her Grandma Sylvia's stories. And just when they've finally planned a trip together, Grandma Sylvia is suddenly gone, taking Nora's dreams with her. Nora is crushed. She misses her grandmother terribly but she still wants to see the city they both loved. So when Nora finds letters and a Paris treasure map among her Grandma Sylvia's things, she dares to dream again. She's not sure what her grandma wants her to find, but Nora knows there are wonderful surprises waiting for her in Paris. And maybe amongst the croissants and macarons, she'll even find a way to heal her broken heart. This love letter to the City of Light will have readers believing that everything's better in Paris. Schroeder lets the city's romance shine in a thoughtful story laced with mystery and French vocabulary about losing family and gaining individuality in a place where curiosity can bloom. Publishers Weekly: A light and frothy Parisian adventure with hints of emotional heft. School Library Journal: Nora's hopeful, openhearted character is beautifully depicted.
