The Reputable Firm Pekka Aula, Jouni Heinonen, 2015-10-19 This book revisits the concept of reputation, bringing it up to date with the era of social media and demonstrating the significance of a good reputation for making sustainable business. Partnership Power Marsha L. Semmel, 2019-02-28 Partnership Power examines museum-related partnerships, collaborations, and networks within today's dynamic, ever-changing environment. With today's greater emphasis placed on measurable community impact and leveraging technology for greater reach and connection on significant social challenges, partnerships have become increasingly important. Through perspectives from other related sectors, including libraries and other nonprofits, current museum case studies from a broad and diverse spectrum of museum types, history, children's art, science, and ethnic, and proven tools, tips, and resources, Partnership Power: Essential Museum Strategies for Today's Networked World serves as an invaluable primer for museums and museum professionals wanting to create and sustain effective partnerships and collaborations. The volume helps solve the partnership puzzle, focusing on the essential attributes of sustainable and relevant collaborations within communities, states, and nationally, including examples of broader multi-institutional networks that are increasingly important to maintain relevance in this hyper-connected world. It contains words of wisdom from museum leaders, funders, community organizers, and researchers, both industry experts and newcomers, on what authentic partnership means, how partnerships evolve, the benefits of partnerships as well as the challenges they present. How does a museum determine and select a viable partner or partners? What happens when a partnership encounters the inevitable pitfalls and barriers? When should you move away from a partnership? How does one evaluate a partnership's success or failure? The book also looks inside the museum, the key issues of institutional culture, staff skills and competencies, managing financial resources, marketing the partnership, and working with boards that often emerge in the context of partnership development and management.

NGOs and Transnational Networks William E. DeMars, 2005-04-20 Non-Governmental Organizations and their networks are proliferating in all regions of the world. They address every transnational issue, from population to peace, human rights to species rights, genocide to AIDS. Supporters claim NGOs are effective in achieving their goals while detractors counter that NGO power is paltry compared to governments and corporations Challenging both views DeMars irreverently reveals the political claims implicit in every transnational NGO They are best conceptualised he argues not in terms of either principles or power but through the partners they make in transnational society and politics NGOs and transnational networks institutionalise conflict as much as cooperation and reshape states and societies often inadvertently NGOs have overthrown dictators provided life support for collapsed states and reengineered the family Their historical origins contrast sharply with current realities and show signs of radical change in the future
