Like Father, Like Son Michael Parkinson, 2020-11-05 a quietly impressive book which does something most celebrity autobiographies shy away from: it seeks the truth and more often than not finds it. THE MAIL A look at the life and times of the man Sir Michael most looked up to. It started in the shadow of the pithead in a South Yorkshire mining village and ended up in tears before an audience of millions. Michael Parkinson's relationship with his late father John William was and remains a family love story overflowing with tenderness and tall tales of sporting valour, usually involving Yorkshire cricket or Barnsley FC. However, it was the overwhelming grief which poured out of Michael when Piers Morgan pressed him about John William in a television interview four decades after the death of the father he encapsulated as Yorkshireman, miner, humorist and fast bowler that convinced one of the outstanding broadcasters and journalists of our time to delve deeper into the dynamics of their lives together. Co-written with his son Mike, this affectionate and revealing memoir explores the influences which shaped John William, Michael and succeeding generations of Parkinsons. The journey leads them from the depths of a Yorkshire coal mine via the chapel pub and picture house to a spot behind the bowler's arm at Lord's and the sands at Scarborough. While Like Father, Like Son conveys a powerful sense of time and place, it is wit and insight and above all enduring love which shine through its pages Grandad, There's a Head on the Beach Colin Cotterill, 2012-06-19 Grandad There s a Head on the Beach is the second Jimm Juree Mystery from award winning author Colin Cotterill In rural Thailand former crime reporter Jimm Juree must grapple with her quirky family a mysterious mother and daughter on the lam and the small matter of a head on the beach When Jimm Juree s mother sold the family house and invested in a rundown holiday camp at the southern end of Thailand on the Gulf of Siam the family had little choice but to follow Jimm Juree who was well on her way to achieving her goal of becoming the primary crime reporter for the major daily newspaper in Chiang Mai is less than thrilled to have lost her job as a reporter and to be stuck in the middle of nowhere where little of interest happens So it is with mixed feelings that she greets the news that a head has washed up on the beach It s tragic of course but this could be the sort of sensational murder that would get her a byline in a major daily and keep her toehold on her journalism career Now all she has to do is find out who was murdered and why How Come Nothing Ever Kills Granddad? Patrick M.
