Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2003 Fighting to Preserve a Nation's Soul Robert

Bauman, 2019-04-15 Fighting to Preserve a Nation's Soul examines the relationship between religion race and the War on Poverty that President Lyndon Johnson initiated in 1964 and that continues into the present It studies the efforts by churches synagogues and ecumenical religious organizations to join and fight the war on poverty as begun in 1964 by the Office of Economic Opportunity The book also explores the evolving role of religion in relation to the power balance between church and state and how this dynamic resonates in today's political situation Robert Bauman surveys all aspects of religion's role in this struggle and substantially discusses the Roman Catholic Church mainline Protestant churches Jewish groups and ecumenical organizations such as the National Council of Churches In addition he pays particular attention to race showing how activist priests and other religious leaders connected religion with the antipoverty efforts of the civil rights movement For example he shows how the Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization IFCO exemplifies the move toward ecumenism among American religious organizations and the significance of black power to the evolving War on Poverty Indeed the Black Manifesto issued by civil rights and black power activist James Forman in 1969 challenged American churches and synagogues to donate resources to the IFCO as reparations for those institutions participation in slavery and racial segregation Bauman then explores the intricate and fundamental connection between religious organizations social movements and community antipoverty agencies and expands the argument for a long War on Poverty Catalog of Philosophy of History R. J. Rushdoony, 2009-11-16 For the orthodox Christian who grounds his philosophy of history on the doctrine of creation the mainspring of history is God Time rests on the foundation of eternity on eternal decree of God Time and history therefore have meaning because they were created in terms of God's perfect and totally comprehensive plan The humanist faces a meaningless world in which he must strive to create and establish meaning The Christian accepts a world which is totally meaningful and in which every event moves in terms of God's purpose he submits to God's meaning and finds his life therein This is an excellent introduction to Rushdoony Once the reader sees Rushdoony's emphasis on God's sovereignty over all of time and creation he will understand his application of this presupposition in various spheres of life and thought American Opinion, 1984 The Henry George Standard, 1920 Personfree David Patterson, 2001-08-27
