Rational Readings on Environmental Concerns Jay H. Lehr, 1992-08-04 the proof of man's destruction of the environment is consistently flawed the scientific method is being abused and ignored The errors are not random however but are systematically biased toward attempting to prove the guilt of man in the alleged destruction of the planet Objective science is disappearing and is being replaced by the pursuit of a philosophical agenda Richard F Sanford in Environmentalism and the Assault on Reason Chapter 1 The public has numerous misconceptions about the relationship between environmental pollution and human cancer Underlying these misconceptions is an erroneous belief that nature is benign Bruce N Ames Ph D and Lois Swirsky Gold Ph D in Environmental Pollution and Cancer Some Misconceptions Chapter 7 Greenhouse gases have been increasing in the atmosphere largely as a result of human activities However the climate record does not show the temperature increase and other telltale signs of the expected greenhouse effect The mathematical models used for predicting such effects are evidently not complete enough to encompass all of the relevant physical processes in the atmosphere thus throwing grave doubt on the drastic warming hypothesized for the next century S Fred Singer in Global Climate Change Facts and Fiction Chapter 13 There is now no prima facie case for any expensive policy of safeguarding species without more extensive analysis than has so far been done Julian L Simon in Disappearing Species Deforestation and Data Chapter 26     Readings from the Perspective of Earth Norman C. Habel, 2000-08-01 This volume introduces the hermeneutical approach and ecojustice principles developed by the Earth Bible project team Following this approach biblical scholars illustrate how a reading of the biblical text from the perspective of Earth yields fresh insights Though the text may seem anthropocentric these studies are able to retrieve evidence of the living voice and intrinsic value of Earth It is an approach that can be harmonized with other recognized critical approaches to the Bible from historical criticism to ecofeminist criticism The texts chosen are from many parts of the Bible Psalms Prophets Gospels Romans Revelation and the intertestamental literature Tobit and Wisdom of Solomon     Journal of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society , 1889     Gender and Human Rights Politics in Japan Jennifer Chan-Tiberghien, Jennifer Chan, 2004 This book examines the impact of global human rights norms on the development of women's children's and minority rights in Japan since the early 1990s     Zhuangzi's Critique of the Confucians Kim-chong Chong, 2016-10-24 Looks at the Daoist Zhuangzi's critique of Confucianism The Daoist Zhuangzi has often been read as a mystical philosopher But there is another tradition beginning with the Han dynasty historian Sima Qian which sees him as a critic of the Confucians Kim chong Chong analyzes the Inner Chapters of the Zhuangzi demonstrating how Zhuangzi criticized the pre Qin Confucians through metaphorical inversion and parody This is indicated by the subtitle Blinded by the Human which is an inversion of the Confucian philosopher Xunzi's remark that Zhuangzi was blinded by heaven and did not know the human Chong compares Zhuangzi's Daoist thought to Confucianism as exemplified by Confucius Mencius and Xunzi By analyzing and comparing the different implications of concepts such as heaven heart mind and transformation Chong shows how Zhuangzi can be said to provide the resources for a more pluralistic and liberal philosophy than the Confucians     ,     Thoreaus Sense of Place Richard J. Schneider, 2000-05 Recent Thoreau studies have shifted to an emphasis on the green Thoreau on Thoreau the environmentalist rooted firmly in particular places and interacting with particular objects In the wake of Buell's Environmental Imagination the nineteen essayists in this challenging volume address the central questions in Thoreau studies today how green how immersed in a sense of place was

Thoreau really and how has this sense of place affected the tradition of nature writing in America The contributors to this stimulating collection address the ways in which Thoreau and his successors attempt to cope with the basic epistemological split between perceiver and place inherent in writing about nature related discussions involve the kinds of discourse most effective for writing about place They focus on the impact on Thoreau and his successors of culturally constructed assumptions deriving from science politics race gender history and literary conventions Finally they explore the implications surrounding a writer's appropriation or even exploitation of places and objects

Amor Mundi and Overcoming Modern World Alienation Justin Pack, 2019-10-17 Love in many premodern cultures extended to and permeated the world or even the cosmos but love in contemporary consumerist society tends to be sexualized romanticized and individualized As a result ancient visions of ethical love are difficult for moderns to comprehend especially those rooted in premodern Western thought or Native American thinkers that describe a love of the natural world that would help us live more responsibly on the Earth This volume retrieves the significant narratives of love of the world and the concomitant ethical ramifications of those visions and argues that our age of science and technology has destroyed the ancient living cosmos of previous visions and replaced it with a mechanical universe This shift has resulted in various forms of destruction diminishment and forgetfulness Overcoming modern world alienation requires recovering a sense of what it means to love the world and changing our practices to reflect our interconnection with it and our interdependency on it

Figuring Religions Shubha Pathak, 2013-04-02 Figuring Religions offers new ways of comparing prominent features of the world's religions Comparison has been at the heart of religious studies as a modern academic discipline but comparison can be problematic Scholars of religion have been faulted for ignoring or reinterpreting differences to create a universal paradigm In reaction many of today's scholars have placed chief emphasis on the differences between traditions Seeking to reinvigorate comparison and avoid its excesses contributors to this volume use theories of metaphor and metonymy from the fields of philosophy linguistics and anthropology to look at religious ideas images and activities Traditions considered include Hinduism ancient Greek religions Judaism Buddhism Daoism Confucianism Christianity and Islam By applying trope theories contributors reveal elements of these religions in and across their cultural contexts

Wordsworth's Metaphysical Verse Lee M. Johnson, 1982-12-15 In his philosophic verse Wordsworth identifies the history of poetry and geometrical thought as the two chief treasures of the mind and as main sources of his poetic inspiration He assigns transcendental value to geometry and indicates that he attempts to apply its proportions to the laws of nature In this book Professor Johnson demonstrates how Wordsworth also employed geometrical patterns in the metrical construction of his verse and how the character of those patterns can be related to the poet's major philosophical values Johnson shows how Wordsworth when writing about the nature and significance of geometrical thought in The Prelude and The Excursion designs his verse paragraphs in accordance with simple geometrical proportions which are thereby associated with the metaphysical value he attributes to geometry Wordsworth finds geometrical forms to be hidden in the natural landscape and inherent in the structures of perception itself This book is the first to make a sustained description of Wordsworth's symbolic patterns and metrical forms in his philosophic verse with major examples drawn from Tintern Abbey The Prelude The Excursion and the Immortality Ode Although it presents an approach which differs radically from any in the established criticism of the poet it is basically at one with the large body of work that concerns the nature of Wordsworth's imagination Multisensory Human Kathy L.
