

An underwater photograph of a diver in a blue wetsuit and scuba gear, positioned on a large, rectangular metal grate or platform. The water is a deep teal color, and a bright light source, likely the sun, creates a circular glow on the left side of the frame. The diver is looking down, and their equipment, including a tank and hoses, is visible.

Passage Through Deep Waters:

Grove chapel pulpit: discourses Joseph Irons, 1849      A Door Ajar Thomas Gardner, 2006-08-17 Thomas Gardner argues in this original study that we are just beginning as a culture to understand the far reaching implications of Emily Dickinson's work Looking at the way quite different writers have enacted and fleshed out crucial aspects of her poetry Gardner gives us a Dickinson for our times Beginning with the work of Lucie Brock Broido Alice Fulton Kathleen Fraser and Robert Hass Gardner moves on to analytical chapters and fully developed conversations with four writers in whose work he finds the fullest extension of Dickinson's legacy The interviews with these four Marilynne Robinson Charles Wright Susan Howe and Jorie Graham provide a particularly intimate look at writers at work In returning to Dickinson's work Gardner observes contemporary writers have powerfully extended what he calls her poetics of broken responsiveness in which an acknowledgment of limits leads paradoxically to a deep engagement with a world beyond our capacity to master or possess In the hands of our most important poets and novelists Dickinson's emptying of the articulate self has become a potent means of addressing some of our culture's fundamental erotic religious philosophical and social questions A Door Ajar makes visible the Dickinson that will matter to writers and readers over the next several decades      Ecology Michael Begon, Colin R. Townsend, 2020-11-11 A definitive guide to the depth and breadth of the ecological sciences revised and updated The revised and updated fifth edition of Ecology From Individuals to Ecosystems now in full colour offers students and practitioners a review of the ecological sciences The previous editions of this book earned the authors the prestigious Exceptional Life time Achievement Award of the British Ecological Society the aim for the fifth edition is not only to maintain standards but indeed to enhance its coverage of Ecology In the first edition 34 years ago it seemed acceptable for ecologists to hold a comfortable objective not to say aloof position from which the ecological communities around us were simply material for which we sought a scientific understanding Now we must accept the immediacy of the many environmental problems that threaten us and the responsibility of ecologists to play their full part in addressing these problems This fifth edition addresses this challenge with several chapters devoted entirely to applied topics and examples of how ecological principles have been applied to problems facing us highlighted throughout the remaining nineteen chapters Nonetheless the authors remain wedded to the belief that environmental action can only ever be as sound as the ecological principles on which it is based Hence while trying harder than ever to help improve preparedness for addressing the environmental problems of the years ahead the book remains in its essence an exposition of the science of ecology This new edition incorporates the results from more than a thousand recent studies into a fully up to date text Written for students of ecology researchers and practitioners the fifth edition of Ecology From Individuals to Ecosystems is an essential reference to all aspects of ecology and addresses environmental problems of the future      The Ladies' Repository, 1856 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's

Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Encyclopædia Americana, ed. by F.
