Passing Guest The A Life Of Henry Kingsley:

The Passing Guest J. S. D. Mellick, 1983-01-01 Portrays the experiences of Henry Kingsley the author of The Recollections of Geoffrey Hamlyn discusses his literary career and describes his travels in Australia The Passing Guest John Stanton Davis Mellick, 1983

Rule of Darkness Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-01-14 A major contribution to the cultural and literary history of the Victorian age Rule of Darkness maps the complex relationship between Victorian literary forms genres and theories and imperialist racist ideology Critics and cultural historians have usually regarded the Empire as being of marginal importance to early and mid Victorian writers Patrick Brantlinger asserts that the Empire was central to British culture as a source of ideological and artistic energy both supported by and lending support to widespread belief in racial superiority the need to transform savagery into civilization and the urgency of promoting emigration Rule of Darkness brings together material from public records memoirs popular culture and canonical literature Brantlinger explores the influence of the novels of Captain Frederick Marryat pioneer of British adolescent adventure fiction and shows the importance of William Makepeace Thackeray's experience of India to his novels He treats a number of Victorian best sellers previously ignored by literary historians including the Anglo Indian writer Philip Meadows Taylor's Confessions of a Thug and Seeta Brantlinger situates explorers narratives and travelogues by such famous author adventurers as David Livingstone and Sir Richard Burton in relation to other forms of Victorian and Edwardian prose Through readings of works by Arthur Conan Doyle Joseph Conrad H Rider Haggard Rudyard Kipling John Hobson and many others he considers representations of Africa India and other non British parts of the world in both fiction and nonfiction The most comprehensive study yet of literature and imperialism in the early and mid Victorian years Rule of Darkness offers in addition a revisionary interpretation of imperialism as a significant factor in later British cultural history from the 1880s to World War I It is essential reading for anyone concerned with Victorian culture and society and more generally with the relationship between Victorian writers and imperialism and between racist ideology and patterns of domination in modern history

Frontier Fictions Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, 2018-11-28 This book compares the nineteenth century settler literatures of Australia Canada South Africa and the United States in order to examine how they enable readers to manage guilt accompanying European settlement Reading canonical texts such as Last of the Mohicans and Backwoods of Canada against underanalyzed texts such as Adventures in Canada and George Linton or the First Years of a British Colony it demonstrates how tropes like the settler hero and his indigenous servant the animal hunt the indigenous attack and the lost child cross national boundaries Settlers similarly responded to the stressors of taking another's land through the stories they told about themselves which functioned to defend against uncomfortable feelings of guilt and ambivalence by creating new versions of reality This book traces parallels in 20th and 21st century texts to ultimately argue that contemporary settlers continue to fight similar psychological and cultural battles since settlement is never complete

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene

Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world. Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect. In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide. The Country of Lost Children Peter Pierce, 1999-06-07 This book traces the figure of the lost child in Australia's history and imagination.

Exploring Place in the Australian Landscape David S. Jones, 2022-08-30 This book offers an original framework on how to investigate, understand and translate sense of place at a regional scale. The book explores contemporary sense of place theory and practice drawing upon the Western District of Victoria in Australia being the Country of the White Cockatoo. It offers a unique multi temporal and thematical analytical approach towards comprehending and mapping the values that underpin and determine strengths of human relationships and nuances to this landscape. Included is a deep ethno ecological and cross cultural translation that takes the reader through both the Western understanding of sense of place as well as the Australian Aboriginal understanding of Country. Both are different intellectual constructions of thoughts, values and ideologies but which share numerous commonalities due to their archetypal meanings, feelings and values transmitted to humans. Dictionary of Nineteenth-century Journalism in Great Britain and Ireland Laurel Brake, Marysa Demoor, 2009 A large scale reference work covering the journalism industry in 19th Century Britain. All Before Them John McVeagh, 1989 Transported to Botany Bay Dorice Williams Elliott, 2019-04-30 Literary representations of British convicts exiled to Australia were the most likely way that the typical English reader would learn about the new colonies there. In Transported to Botany Bay Dorice Williams Elliott examines how writers from canonical ones such as Dickens and Trollope to others who were themselves convicts used the figure of the felon exiled to Australia to construct class, race and national identity as intertwined. Even as England's supposedly ancient social structure was preserved and venerated as the true England, the transportation of some 168 000 convicts facilitated the birth of a new nation with more fluid class relations for those who didn't fit into the prevailing national image. In analyzing novels, broadsides and first person accounts Elliott demonstrates how Britain linked class, race and national identity at a key historical moment when it was still negotiating its relationship with its empire. The events and incidents depicted as taking place literally on the other side of the world, she argues, deeply affected people's sense of their place in their own society with transnational implications that are still relevant today. Victorian Bestseller Karen Bourrier, 2019-06-19 When novelist Dinah Craik 1826-87 died, expressions of grief came from Lord Alfred Tennyson, Matthew Arnold, Robert Browning, T.H. Huxley and James Russell Lowell among others, and even Queen Victoria picked up her pen to offer her consolation to the widower. Despite Craik's enormous popularity throughout a literary career that spanned forty years she is now all but forgotten Yet in an otherwise respectable life bookended by scandal this was precisely the way that she wanted it Victorian Bestseller is the first book to relate the story of Dinah Craik s remarkable life Combining extensive archival work with theoretical work in disability studies and the professionalization of women s authorship Karen Bourrier engagingly traces the contours of this author s life Craik who wrote extensively about disability in her work was no stranger to it in her personal and professional life marked by experiences of mental and physical disability and the ebb and flow of health Following scholarship in the ethics of care and disability studies the book posits Craik as an interdependent subject placing her within a network of writers publishers editors and artists friends and family members Victorian Bestseller also traces the conditions in the material history of the book that allowed Victorian women writers careers to flourish In doing so the biography connects corporeality gender and the material history of the book to the professionalization of Victorian women s authorship Creditable Warriors, 1830-1876 John McVeagh,1990 Discussing the period from the impact of Reform to the rise of Disraelian imperialism this volume assesses writers relations to British expansionism and the alternative of a growing Europeanism It considers re evaluation of Romantic responses to foreign travel the search abroad for civic images to oppose to industrialism and more Delphi Complete Works of Arthur Quiller-Couch (Illustrated) Arthur Quiller-Couch,2022-05-09 A giant of early twentieth century English literature Sir Arthur Quiller Couch was a prolific novelist poet and literary critic Celebrated for his clear and effortless style he produced masterpieces in numerous genres including adventure fiction children s classics poetry critical essays and influential anthologies For the first time in publishing history this eBook provides Quiller Couch s complete fictional works with numerous illustrations rare texts informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material Version 1 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Quiller Couch s life and works Concise introductions to the novels and other texts All 23 novels with individual contents tables Features rare novels including the unfinished novel Castle Dor Please note Daphne du Maurier s completion cannot appear due to copyright Images of how the books were first published giving your eReader a taste of the original texts Excellent formatting of the texts Famous works are fully illustrated with their original artwork Rare story collections Special chronological and alphabetical contents tables for the short stories Easily locate the stories you want to read Poetry collections Wide range of Quiller Couch s non fiction Features the author s autobiography first time in digital print Ordering of texts into chronological order and genres Please visit www.delphiclassics.com to browse through our range of exciting titles CONTENTS The Novels Dead Man s Rock 1887 The Astonishing History of Troy Town 1888 The Splendid Spur 1889 The Blue Pavilions 1891 Ia 1896 St Ives 1898 The Ship of Stars 1899 The Westcotes 1902 Hetty Wesley 1903 The Adventures of Harry Revel 1903 Fort Amity 1904 The Shining Ferry 1905 The Mayor of Troy 1906 Sir John Constantine 1906 Poison Island 1907 Major Vigoureux 1907 True Tilda 1909 Lady Good for Nothing 1910 Brother Copas 1911 Hocken and Hunken 1912 Nicky Nan Reservist 1915 Foe Farrell 1918 Castle Dor 1962 The Short Story Collections Noughts and Crosses 1891 The Delectable Duchy 1893 I Saw Three
