Passing On A Novel:

The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader Henry Abelove, Michèle Aina Barale, David M. Halperin, 1993 On homosexuality

Passing Interest Julie Cary Nerad, 2014-06-16 The first volume to focus on the trope of racial passing in novels memoirs television and films published or produced between 1990 and 2010 Passing Interest takes the scholarly conversation on passing into the twenty first century With contributors working in the fields of African American studies American studies cultural studies film studies literature and media studies this book offers a rich interdisciplinary survey of critical approaches to a broad range of contemporary passing texts Contributors frame recent passing texts with a wide array of cultural discourses including immigration law the Post Soul Aesthetic contemporary political satire affirmative action the paradoxes of colorblindness and the rhetoric of post racialism Many explore whether one drop of blood still governs our sense of racial identity or to what extent contemporary American culture allows for the racially indeterminate individual Some essays open the scholarly conversation to focus on ethnic passers individuals who complicate the traditional black white binary while others explore the slippage between traditional racial passing and related forms of racial performance including blackface minstrelsy and racial masquerade

Fakes and Forgeries Peter Knight, Jonathan Long, 2004 The possibility that works of art and literature might be forged and that identity might be faked has haunted the cultural imagination for centuries That spectre seems to have returned with a vengeance recently with a series of celebrated hoaxes and scandals ranging from the Alan Sokal hoax article in Social Text to Benjamin Wilkomirski's Fraud Holocaust memoir But as well as creating anxiety the possibility of faking it has now been turned into entertainment Traditionally these activities have been dismissed as dangerous and immoral but more recently some scholars have begun to speculate for example that all forms of national identity rely on forged myths of origin Recent cultural theory has likewise called into question traditional notions of authenticity and originality in both personal identity and in works of art Despite critical pronouncements of the death of the author and the substitution of the simulacrum for the original however making a distinction between the genuine and the fake continues to play a major role in our everyday understanding and evaluation of culture law and politics Consider for example the fiasco surrounding the forged Hitler diaries law suits against auction houses for failing to detect forgeries in the art market or the problem of plagiarism at universities It still seems to matter that we can spot the difference especially in the historical moment when we are capable of making copies that are indistinguishable perhaps even better than the original This collection of essays considers the moral aesthetic and political questions that are raised by the long history and current prevalence of fakes and forgeries The international team of contributors consider the issues thrown up by a wide range of examples drawn from fields ranging from literature to art history These case studies include little known subjects such as Eddie Burrup the Australian aboriginal artist who turned out to be an 81 year old white woman as well as new interpretations of familiar cases such as faked Holocaust memoirs The strength of the collection is that it brings together not only a wide range of cultural examples of fakes and forgeries from different historical periods but also offers a wide variety of theoretical takes that will form a useful introduction and casebook on this growing field of inquiry Passing Illusions Kerry Wallach, 2017-08-22 Challenges the notion that Weimar Jews sought to be invisible or indistinguishable from other Germans by passing as non Jews Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q. McCune, Jr., 2014-03-07 African American men who have sex with men while maintaining a heterosexual lifestyle in public are attracting increasing interest from both the general media and scholars Commonly referred to as down low or DL men many continue to have relationships with girlfriends and wives who remain unaware of their same sex desires and in much of the media DL men have been portrayed as carriers of HIV who spread the virus to black women Sexual Discretion explores the DL phenomenon offering refreshingly innovative analysis of the significance of media space and ideals of black masculinity in understanding down low communities In Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q McCune Jr provides the first in depth examination of how the social expectations of black masculinity intersect and complicate expressions of same sex affection and desire Within these underground DL communities men aren't as highly policed and thus are able to maintain their public roles as properly masculine McCune draws from sources that range from R and from E Lynn Harris's contemporary sexual passing novels to McCune's own interviews and ethnography in nightclubs and online chat rooms Sexual Discretion details the causes pressures and negotiations driving men who rarely disclose their intimate secrets Jewish Anxiety and the Novels of Philip Roth Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2015-02-26 Jewish Anxiety and the Novels of Philip Roth argues that Roth's novels teach us that Jewish anxiety stems not only from fear of victimization but also from fear of perpetration It is impossible to think about Jewish victimization without thinking about the Holocaust and it is impossible to think about the taboo question of Jewish perpetration without thinking about Israel Roth's texts explore the Israel Palestine question and the Holocaust with varying degrees of intensity but all his novels scrutinize perpetration and victimization through examining racism and sexism in America Brett Ashley Kaplan uses Roth's novels as springboards to illuminate larger problems of victimization and perpetration masculinity femininity and gender racism and anti-Semitism For if as Kaplan argues Jewish anxiety is not only about the fear of oppression and we can begin to see how these anxieties function in terms of fears of perpetration then perhaps we can begin to unpack the complicated dynamics around the line between the Holocaust and Israel Palestine The Post-Zombie C. Wylie Lenz,, Angela Tenga, Kyle William Bishop, 2025-05-21 The living dead have come a long way from the shambling corpses depicted by George A Romero While traditional zombie monsters continue to flourish thanks in part to the ongoing popularity of The Walking Dead universe the global community now features reanimated zombies resurrected zombies protagonist zombies robotic zombies romantic zombies fake zombies zombie adjacent monsters and post zombie zombies This collection of scholarly essays considers recent and contemporary examples of zombies in fiction literature popular culture and politics from around the world and makes the case that because of the evolution of the undead the zombie remains an important allegorical feature of horror fiction satire

That Middle World Julia S. Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12

For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism s Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

America's Imagined Revolution Tomos Wallbank-Hughes, 2024-04-24 America's Imagined Revolution explores the Reconstruction period after the Civil War to ask narratological historiographical and theoretical questions about how slave emancipation has and has not been theorized as revolution Reading historical fiction by authors such as George Washington Cable Albion Tourgée Charles Chesnutt Frances Harper and W E B Du Bois in dialogue with nineteenth century historical writing and the era's legal political and print culture Tomos Wallbank Hughes excavates an evanescent form of historicist writing sensitive to the revolutionary changes that shaped life in the emancipation era South As an aesthetic form the historical novel of Reconstruction poses questions about revolutionary experience in plantation societies and in the process challenges critical assumptions about historical time in the nineteenth century How do authors narrate epochal change that also feels like retrenchment In what direction does history travel if it does not progress What narratives of race class and region encompass both continued domination and ruptured power By plumbing the situations that give it form the historical novel of Reconstruction provides a window into the literary culture of the South's long nineteenth century in which rather than a storehouse of tradition the region became a terrain for interpreting social revolution and uncovering slavery's revolutionary afterlives America's Imagined Revolution offers a new interpretation of the literary and historiographical significance of the Reconstruction period and its relationship to American literary history CrossRoutes, the Meanings
