John Sayles David R. Shumway, 2012-03-15 John Sayles is the very paradigm of the contemporary independent filmmaker By raising much of the funding for his films himself Sayles functions more independently than most directors and he has used his freedom to write and produce films with a distinctive personal style and often clearly expressed political positions From The Return of the Secaucus Seven to Sunshine State his films have consistently expressed progressive political positions on issues including race gender sexuality class and disability In this study David R Shumway examines the defining characteristic of Sayles's cinema its realism Positioning the filmmaker as a critical realist Shumway explores Sayles's attention to narrative in critically acclaimed and popular films such as Matewan Eight Men Out Passion Fish and Lone Star The study also details the conditions under which Sayles's films have been produced distributed and exhibited affecting the way in which these films have been understood and appreciated In the process Shumway presents Sayles as a teacher who tells historically accurate stories that invite audiences to consider the human world they all inhabit

John Sayles, Filmmaker Jack Ryan, 1998-01-01 In 1980 art house audience word of mouth about an unusual new movie Return of the Secaucus Seven launched the career of director John Sayles and with him the era of the independent filmmaker Sayles has remained a maverick writing directing editing and even acting in his own films He has directed such diverse films as The Brother from Another Planet Matewan Eight Men Out Passion Fish and Lone Star and received two Academy Award nominations Here is the chronicle of Sayles career including the story of his inauspicious beginning as a second string actor and his work in fiction theatre music videos and television The author argues that the importance of Sayles signature plain visual style has been overlooked A chapter is devoted to each of Sayles feature films offering background material on production funding a plot sketch an analysis of important characters and a look at the language setting and politics Each chapter also traces Sayles technical development his camera work editing musical arrangement and mise en scene The book includes a complete filmography and a bibliography Cinema of Outsiders Emanuel Levy,1999-09 The most important development in American culture of the last two decades is the emergence of independent cinema as a viable alternative to Hollywood s safe and innocuous entertainment Indeed while Hollywood studios devote much of their time and energy to churning out big budget star studded event movies a renegade independent cinema that challenges mainstream fare continues to flourish with strong critical support and loyal audiences Visualizing Difference Elżbieta H. Oleksy,2017-02-17 In the wealth of literature on intersectionality as a concept theory political option and methodology little has been written on how it might be taught Proceeding from theory to practice Visualizing Difference fills in this lacuna and offers an original approach to a visual pedagogy that recognizes the necessity of integrating difference whilst also inspiring the reader to convey meanings from visuals that directly bear influence upon their lives This innovative volume proposes a novel approach to empirical investigation of the visual So far it has not been demonstrated how interconnections between various social differentials such as gender disability sexuality race ethnicity and nationality intersect in a particular lived experience and shape the reception of visual texts Oleksy thus focuses on documenting how critical analysis of films empowers students and gives them incentive to oppose normalizing power effects Through students personal narratives the reader will witness how subjectivity is indicative of the retrospective look at their own lives which classroom experiences of watching and discussing the films have stimulated This intriguing book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in Film Audience Intersectionality Sociology Pedagogy and Gender Studies The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S.
