Love Warps the Mind a Little: A Novel John Dufresne, 2008-01-17 Reissue of a favorite novel by a generous and lyric storyteller San Francisco Chronicle known for his tragicomic voice and unforgettable characters Ever since Lafayette Proulx quit his day job left his wife hauled his dog and his Royal portable across town to Judi Dubey's house and set out at last to be a fiction writer his life has been a sordid mess Judi's exotically dysfunctional family isn't all to blame Sure the murders are disconcerting And yes Judi's father's gone off the deep end Worse are the vicious rejection letters Laf gets from editors To top it off Laf's falling for Judi at the same time he's nettled with guilt is in marriage counseling with his wife and is writing his long hoped for novel When Judi is diagnosed with stage IV cancer they both struggle to find the memory that will comfort the truth that will redeem in a world where everyone suffers some kind of love disorder John Dufresne called a highly readable Faulkner will once again take the literary world by storm with this new tragicomic tale

95 Prostheses Frank G. Honeycutt, 2018-01-18 Five hundred years after Luther's famous posting of his 95 Theses in 1517 the church again faces an important crossroads Sunday worship attendance is shrinking at alarming rates There are now more Elvis believers in the US than Episcopalians and almost limitless spiritual options exist for those who seek faith and trust in something but are hesitant to commit to a particular path leading to truth The word prosthesis normally associated with surgery is also an apt word to describe the church's need to forge a theological identity that fits our current context The church faces change and a transformed body but not at the expense of the biblical richness and tradition that fueled the restlessness of the reformers The essays gathered here arranged around the seasons of the church year address familiar challenges faced by all pastors and leaders in an era of transition specifically in Christian formation and discipleship Appropriate for group and personal reflection 95 Prostheses employs humor and biblical accessibility with the skeptical outsider who may be considering Jesus and his church for the first time in mind Preachers and Misfits, Prophets and Thieves G. Lee Ramsey, 2008-01-01 In this compelling book G Lee Ramsey Jr mines the riches of southern fiction and discovers a colorful assortment of ministers who arise out of the religious South At once mystical and mischievous these ministers haunt the margins of southern life while preaching a gospel that startles and compels But their oddness is also their appeal and part of their gift For through these colorful portraits of Christian ministry today's readers are challenged to think about what matters in ministry and to re-imagine ministry in ways that bring new life to the church and community Throughout Ramsey shows how ministers such as Roger Hagan in Will Campbell's The Convention and Hazel Motes in Flannery O'Connor's Wise Blood can help show us the stumbling blocks to faithful ministry and steer clergy and congregations forward in today's world The Passionate Economist Sally Sheard, 2013-11-28 Brian Abel Smith was one of the most influential expert advisers of the 20th century in shaping social welfare He was a modern day Thomas Paine driven by a strong socialist mission to improve the lives of the poorest This valuable and accessible book is the first biography of Abel Smith It takes a historical perspective to analyse the development of health and social welfare systems since the 1950s exposing the critical impact of long running debates on poverty and state responsibility especially in Britain This book also provides the first comparative study of how developing countries sought better health and social welfare enabled by the World Health Organization and other agencies for whom Abel Smith regularly worked This book offers an engaging and useful study for students and researchers in health and social policy history politics and economics and interested general readers It will also be essential reading for professionals working in those government ministries and institutions that Brian Abel Smith helped to shape LSE Pioneers in Social Policy Brian Abel Smith Richard Titmuss and Peter Townsend all based at the London School of Economics and Political Science made major contributions to the development of policies on the elderly health care law poverty and welfare in the 20th century This series of biographies tells the stories of these outstanding individuals their backgrounds ideas and work
