patristics can still be a daunting task Without realizing it many priests seminarians members of religious communities and even laity already own a patristic library their Liturgy of the Hours In the four volumes of the Liturgy of the Hours the official daily prayer of the Catholic Church there are nearly 600 selections from the writings of Fathers and saints Seeing the potential of this vast collection as a theological resource Milton Walsh has organized these selections by topics according to the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church This topical concordance allows the reader to compare what the various authors have written on the same themes while a chronological timeline of the readings shows their relationship to each other in time Walsh has also provided background on the liturgical celebrations of the Church as well as historical information on each author In addition there is a chapter on how patristic readings can assist in understanding the Bible This fresh and original presentation of material that is literally at the fingertips of anyone praying the Liturgy of the Hours can be a tremendous aid to both religious devotion and theological study The Roman Martyrology Gregory XIII, Aeterna Press, The Roman Martyrology is an official and accredited record on the pages of which are set forth in simple and brief but impressive words the glorious deeds of the Soldiers of Christ in all ages of the Church of the illustrious Heroes and Heroines of the Cross whom her solemn verdict has beatified or canonized In making up this long roll of honor the Church has been actuated by that instinctive wisdom with which the Spirit of God who abides in her and teaches her all truth has endowed her and which permeates through and guides all her actions She is the Spouse of Christ without spot or wrinkle or blemish wholly glorious and undefiled whom He loved for whom He died and to whom He promised the Spirit of Truth to comfort her in her dreary pilgrimage through this valley of tears and to abide with her forever She is one with Him in Spirit and in love she is subject to Him in all things she loves what He loves she teaches and practises what He commands Aeterna Press

The Hymnographic Book of Tropologion Svetlana

Kujumdzieva, 2017-11-08 The Tropologion is considered the earliest known extant chant book from the early Christian world which was in use until the twelfth century. The study of this book is still in its infancy. It has generally been believed that the book has survived in Georgian translation under the name ladgari, but similar books have been discovered in Greek, Syriac, and Armenian. All the copies clearly show that the spread and the use of the book were much greater than we had previously assumed, and the Georgian ladgari is only one of its many versions. The study of these issues unquestionably confirms the earliest stage of the compilation of the book in Jerusalem or its environs and shows its uninterrupted development from Jerusalem to the Stoudios monastery, the most important monastery of Constantinople. Over time, many new pieces and new authors were added to the Tropologion. It is almost certain that it was the Stoudios school of poet-composers that divided the content of the Tropologion and compiled separate collections of books, each one containing a major liturgical cycle. In the beginning, all of the volumes kept the old title, but in the tenth century the copies of the book were renamed, probably according to the liturgical repertory included, and by the thirteenth century the title Tropologion is no longer found in the Greek sources as it became superfluous and fell out of use.
