

PASSION AND CRAFT

Conversations with Notable Writers

EDITED BY BONNIE LYONS AND BILL OLIVER

The twelve contemporary fiction writers interviewed in Passion and Craft go beyond the merely autobiographical, revealing that, despite their differences, they share passionate devotion and discipline for their craft.

Included are Richard Ford, winner in 1995 of both the Pulitzer Prize and the PEN/ Faulkner Award; Gina Berniault, 1997 winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award; Bobbie Ann Mason; T. Coraghessan Boyle; Rick Bass; Leonard Michaels; Christopher Tighman; Thom Jones; Julia Alvarez; Andre Dubus; Jayne Anne Phillips; and Tobias Wolff.

Their comments will interest readers devoted to their novels and stories, other writers, and aspiring writers.

BONNIE LYONS, a professor of English at the University of Texas at San Antonio, is the author of Henry Roth: The Man and His Work. BILL OLIVER, assistant professor of English at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, is the author of Women and Children First.

Passion And Craft Conversations With Notable Writers:

Passion and Craft Bonnie Lyons,Bill Oliver,1998 Collection of interviews with 12 contemporary fiction writers

Conversations with Beth Henley Jackson R. Bryer,Mary C. Hartig,2023-03-24 With roots in the American South Beth Henley b 1952 has for four decades been a working playwright and screenwriter Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1981 at the age of twenty eight Henley so far has written twenty five produced plays that are always original usually darkly comic and often experimental In these interviews Henley speaks of the plays from her early crowd pleasers Crimes of the Heart and The Miss Firecracker Contest to her more experimental plays including The Debutante Ball and Control Freaks to her brilliant and time bending play The Jacksonian Henley is a master at writing about the duality of human experience the beautiful and the grotesque the cruel and the loving This duality provokes in Henley both amazement and compassion She discusses here not only her admiration for Chekhov and other influences but also her process of bringing a play from notebooks of images and bits of dialogues through rumination writing and rewriting to rehearsals and previews The interviews range from 1981 just before she won the Pulitzer Prize to 2020 and cover nearly forty years of a creative life which as Henley remarks in the most recent interview is such a life worth living to be in tune with the creative process Reading U.S. Latina Writers A.

Quintana,2003-03-18 This essential teaching guide focuses on an emerging body of literature by U S Latina and Latin American Women writers It will assist non specialist educators in syllabus revision new course design and classroom presentation The inclusive focus of the book that is combining both US Latina and Latin American women writers is significant because it introduces a more global and transnational way of approaching the literature The introduction outlines the major historical experiences that inform the literature the important genres periods movements and authors in its evolution the traditions and influences that shape the works and key critical issues of which teachers should be aware The collection seeks to provide readers with a variety of Latina texts that will guarantee its long term usefulness to teachers and students of pan American literature Because it is no longer possible to understand U S Latina literature without taking into consideration the histories and cultures of Latin America the volume will through its organization argue for a more globalized type of analysis which considers the similarities as well as the differences in U S and Latin American women s cultural productions In this context the term Latina evokes a diasporic transnational condition in order to address some of the pedagogical issues posed by the bicultural nature which is inherent in pan American women s literature Notable Latino

P. Werlock,2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present Julia Alvarez Kelli Lyon Johnson,2005 This book provides the first book length examination of the writings of Julia Alvarez the author of How the Garcia Girls Lost Their Accents and nearly a dozen other books of fiction and non fiction and one of today s most widely read Latina writers Kelli Lyon Johnson perceptively illuminates the themes ideals and passions that unite these diverse and rich works all of which explore issues of understanding and representing identity within a global society Forced by political oppression to leave the Dominican Republic when still young Alvarez has lived most of her adult life in the United States Johnson argues that through her narratives poetry and essays Alvarez has sought to create a cartography of identity in exile Alvarez inscribes a geography of identity in her work that joins theory and narrative across multiple genres to create a new map of identity and culture By asserting that she is mapping a country that s not on the map Alvarez places creativity and multiplicity at the center of this emerging cartography of identity Rather than elaborating a hybrid identity that surreptitiously erases distinctions and difference Alvarez embraces the mestizaje or mixture and accumulation of identities experience and diversity To Alvarez linguistic and cultural multiplicity represents the reality of what it means to be American and she offers a compelling vision of both self and community in which the homeland Alvarez seeks is the narrative space of her own writings As Johnson shows Alvarez will continue to shape American literature by stretching the literary cartography of identity and of the Americas

Conversations with Andre Dubus Olivia Carr Edenfield,2013-08-01 Over three decades celebrated fiction writer Andre Dubus 1936 1999 published seven collections of short stories two collections of essays two collections of previously published stories two novels and a novella While this is an impressive publishing record for any writer for Dubus who suffered a near fatal accident mid career it is near miraculous Just after midnight on July 23 1986 after stopping to assist two stranded motorists Dubus was struck by a car His right leg was crushed and his left leg had to be amputated above the knee After months of hospital stays and surgeries he would suffer chronic pain for the rest of his life However when he gave his first interview after the accident his deepest fear was that he would never write again This collection of interviews traces his career beginning in 1967 with the publication of his novel The Lieutenant to his final interview given right before his death February 24 1999 In between are conversations that focus on his shift to essay writing during his long recovery period as well as those that celebrate his return to fiction with the publication of The Colonel's Wife in 1993 Dubus would also share stories surrounding his Louisiana childhood his three marriages the writers who influenced him and his deep Catholic faith

How to Write A Short Story (And Think About It) Robert Graham,2017-09-16 Short story publishing is flourishing in the 21st century and is no longer seen as a poor relation of the novel But what is a short story And how do you write one Robert Graham takes you through everything you need to know from how a writer works to crafting and editing your own fiction This heavily revised edition features new chapters by contemporary fiction writers Stressing the importance of reading broadly and deeply the book includes a wide range of prompts and writing exercises It teaches you how to read as a writer and write like somebody who has read You will learn the elements of craft you need to produce short stories and one of the key writer's disciplines reflecting on your own work Whether you are a student or an experienced author this book will teach you how to write short stories and reflect on the creative processes involved The book features chapters from writer teachers James Friel Rodge Glass Ursula Hurley Heather Leach Helen Newall Jenny Newman James Rice and Tom Vowler

Inhabiting La Patria Rebecca L. Harrison,Emily Hipchen,2013-11-08 This is the first collection of critical essays on the works of Dominican American author Julia Alvarez A prolific writer of nearly two dozen books of poetry fiction nonfiction and children's literature Alvarez has garnered numerous international accolades including the impressive F Scott Fitzgerald Award for Outstanding Achievement in American Literature She was one of only ten poets invited to write for President Obama's inauguration in 2009 and her In the Time of the Butterflies was selected as a National Endowment for the Arts Big Read putting her in the company of Mark Twain Zora Neale Hurston and Harper Lee Yet despite Alvarez's commercial success and flourishing critical reputation much of the published scholarship has focused on her two best known novels In the Time of the Butterflies and How the Garcia Girls Lost Their Accents Moving beyond Alvarez's more recognizable work the contributors here approach her wider canon from different points of access and with diverging critical tools This enriches current discussions on the construction of selves in life writing and nonfiction more generally and furthers our understanding of these selves as particular kinds of participants in the creation of nation and place In addition this book provides fresh insight for transnational feminist studies and makes a meaningful contribution to the broader study of the gendered diaspora as it positions Alvarez scholarship in a global context

Encyclopedia of Jewish-American Literature Gloria L. Cronin, Alan L. Berger, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Jewish American literature providing profiles of Jewish American writers and their works

Revolucionarias Par Kumaraswami, 2007 This book collects essays which discuss women's representation of women and the war story in Latin American literature looking in particular at their experiences historical contexts and their political and creative aims This collection draws together for the first time a range of narratives of conflict and revolution as represented by Latin American women writers By embracing a broad definition of conflict and by engaging with a wide range of narratives of conflict it provides a space for multiple and complex versions of subjectivity writing and experience in conflict to co exist
