Possessions of Faith Robert Glen Guenther, 1994 The Guenther family appears to have originated in Switzerland Members of the family converted to the Anabaptist movement and were forced to flee first to Moravia and later to the valley of the Vistula in Poland and west Prussia Eventually members of the family became Mennonites and moved to the Ukraine where a number of Germans were settling One of the Guenthers to move there was Franz G nther 1827 1900 who married Maria Warkentin and was the father of six children In 1878 Franz Maria and four of their children immigrated to America They settled in South Dakota where one of the children Cornelius F Guenther 185301934 married Eva D rksen and was the father of fourteen children Their many descendants live throughout the United States Just Property Christopher Pierson, 2013 Property remains the bedrock of the societies we all inhabit It underpins our core institutions including families states and economies and it is the medium through which the intensifying politics of inequality is played out There is plenty of evidence that its importance is increasing in a world of growing wealth inequality and depletion of natural resources Volume Two of Just Property traces the development of ideas about property in the Western world from the early eighteenth century through the Enlightenment and the experience of the French Revolution to the critical stance of socialists and anarchists in the nineteenth century It ranges across the thought of Bernard Mandeville David Hume Adam Smith Voltaire Rousseau Kant

Hegel the Abbe de Sieyes Burke Wollstonecraft Charles Fourier Karl Marx Proudhon and Peter Kropotkin Many themes persist from an earlier period as does the influence of Christianity and the Roman Law but there are also many innovations In general the authority of God and the natural law recedes and the themes of utility and securing general welfare became more prominent In the wake of Locke labour though sometimes in the form of past labour that is capital attains a new prominence For its admirers a newly unfettered private property is the means of securing personal freedom constraining authoritarian governments promoting the arts and sciences and delivering an unprecedented improvement in the material condition of the whole population For its critics private property is the central component in a new political economy of systemic and unlimited class exploitation It penetrates everywhere and corrupts everything that it touches With these arguments we are clearly on the terrain of modernity witnessing a set of arguments and counter arguments with which we all still struggle

Evagrius of Pontus Robert E. Sinkewicz, 2006-04-14 Evagrius of Pontus c 345-399 was one of the most prominent figures among the monks of the desert settlements of Nitria Sketis and Kellia in Lower Egypt Through the course of his ascetic writings he formulated a systematic presentation of the teaching of the semi eremitic monks of these settlements The works of Evagrius had a profound influence on Eastern Orthodox monastic teaching and passed to the West through the writings of John Cassian c 365 435 This is the first complete English translation of Evagrius Greek ascetic writings based on modern critical editions where available and where they are not on collations of the principal manuscripts Two appendices provide variant readings for the Greek texts and the complete text of the long recension of Eulogios The translations are accompanied by a commentary to guide the reader through the intricacies of Evagrian thought by offering explanatory comments and references to other Evagrian texts and relevant scholarly literature Finally detailed indexes are provided to allow the reader to identify and study the numerous themes of Evagrian teaching Entangled Things Alison

Hulme,2024-08-22 Entangled Things takes the concept of entanglement as its starting point in investigating the relationship between us and the material things we engage with Each chapter illustrates a particular form of entanglement desiring things hoarding things creating things ridding ourselves of things using ethnographic examples and theoretical perspectives Hulme encourages a wider consideration of the place of humans in the world and the kind of choices we enact when influenced by the material things around us She explores our relationships with material objects in light of both personal and planetary space and personal and historical time from the space in our homes storage spaces landfill and oceans to the times in our lives and the times in wider shared histories that things connect us to not to mention our sense of time and our own place in the world In so doing Hulme intentionally places discussions on our entanglement with things squarely back into the context of the Anthropocene with a provocative analysis in which the Anthropocene is posited as a concept which on one hand takes away human agency placing us in the context of immense geological epochs whilst on the other hand pushes agency upon humans blaming us for the extreme challenges of the current era and looking to us to solve those challenges For Hulme material things are instrumental in helping us to grasp our existential place in the world and weave a way through the complications of living in epochal times Publications of the Catholic Truth Society ,1898 Classical Foundations of
